

The Centre Reporter.
SUPPLEMENT.

Centre Hall, Pa., April 21, 1881.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The signal service reports from Yankton say, at 5 o'clock this morning the river is up to forty feet, but is falling. One hundred houses are submerged involving a loss of $50,000.

—Never go to Bellefonte without calling in at the Philad. Branch and examining the enormous piles of ready-made clothing to be found there—all manufactured by their own house and so cheap that the poorest are enabled to dress well.

AN ENTIRE RUSSIAN GARRISON KILLED.

LONDON, (April 13)—The Standard's Berlin correspondent reports that Nazz Kissar, the first advanced fort on the road to Mery, has been taken by surprise and captured by the Turcomans. The entire Russian garrison was killed.

—The lady who bought her goods at Lyon & Co's store says she slept sounder than ever before, because she got such extraordinary bargains.

ONE BROTHER KILLS ANOTHER.

St. Louis, March 25.—Two brothers, John and Michael Watt, aged nineteen and twenty years respectively, living with their parents at Palestine, Texas, quarrelled day before yesterday, and the former killed the latter with a knife.

—Albert Mingle, of Doll & Mingle, is now in the city, and will soon be back to Bellefonte with the largest, finest and best assortment of boots and shoes in this county, at prices lower than the lowest.

FORTY-FIVE VILLAGES DESTROYED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 12.—Earthquake shocks of considerable violence have begun again in Scio. It is estimated that barely twenty houses remain inhabitable in the whole island. Forty-five villages have been totally destroyed, and the population in many localities has absolutely disappeared.

In June, 1877, Samuel Archer, eight years old of Lackawaxen, Pa., was drowned accidentally, it was supposed while boating on the Delaware River with Charles Springsted, a playmate, thirteen years old Springsted now in jail at Passaic, N. J., for robbery, has confessed that he threw him into the water and held him under until he was drowned because he hated young Archer's father.

Again has there been a great fall, but nobody hurt—the fall has been in the price of ready-made clothing and nobody hurt, but all benefited by it. Every man saves money by getting his clothing at the Philad. Branch—why mothers think of it, you can get a child's suit there as low as $1.50.

The annual profits arising from the millionaire, William H. Vanderbilt's investments in U. S. government bonds, is $1,904,000. He received a check on the 31st of December last, for $476,000, being the interest for the three past months. The government pays him this enormous sum quarterly each and every year.

THE NIHILIST PRISONERS SENTENCED TO DEATH.

LONDON, April 10.—At the trial of the nihilists on Sunday, Assistant Prosecutor Muravioff strongly denounced the revolutionary doctrines and deeds avowed by the accused, demanded the severest penalty for all alike and concluded by declaring that the fidelity of the people to the imperial throne was unshaken, and that the efforts of the terrorist party in this direction had proved absolutely abortive. The prisoners listened unmoved. Jellaboff and Kibaltchitch took notes. Jellaboff rose to speak in his own behalf. He was several times interrupted by the presiding Judge. When Jellaboff finished the Court asked the accused if they had any further defense to urge and they replied in the negative. The Court retired to consider the verdict. After three hours deliberation they returned, at 6.20 A. M., with a verdict of guilty against all and sentence to death by hanging was pronounced. Sophie Pleosky's sentence will be submitted to the Czar for confirmation, because she is of noble birth. Sophie Pleosky asked that she be dealt with regardless of her sex. The prisoners received their sentence with perfect calmness and indifference.

DEATH OF MISS DEUEL AT THE CLOSE OF FORTY-SEVEN DAYS' FASTING.

IOWA CITY, IOWA, April 12.—Miss Hattie Deuel died at a quarter before 1 o'clock yesterday, having completed full forty-seven days in attaining death by starvation. Miss Deuel was at the time of her death 52 years old. She has been invalid for many years, suffering ceaseless pain from neuralgia and nervous diseases, which made life a constant torture, driving her at length to the stern resolve to end an existence which promised no alleviation for her torments. Though her conduct has long been peculiar, her acquaintances never deemed her insane. Her will was strong, as is proved by the fact that from November, 1879, till within a few days ago she never uttered a word, though no impairments of her vocal organs existed. During her period of silence she only communicated with her friends by writing, and no reasoning or entreaty could induce her to speak a word.

Miss Deuel ate no breakfast on the 23d of February, and when a member of the family asked her why she had not eaten she replied, by writing on a slate: "I have no hope of recovery or relief, and am determined to die." All her family friends, and her pastor, Rev. Mr. Folson, of the Presbyterian Church, used all their powers of persuasion in vain to induce the lady to change her resolve. She was inflexible. A proposition to use force in introducing food into her stomach was, after full consideration, abandoned, from belief that if that course should be taken it would only drive her into some other method of self-destruction. After the first week she asked her brother-in-law if drinking water would prolong her life. He replied that if she did not drink probably fever and delirium would set in, and that taking water would not sustain her life. After that time she drank from time to time every day a little water, but nothing else passed her lips after the 23d of February. Her gradual wasting away has been from day to day during the last ten days duly chronicled.

Not a drop of blood was found in her body, which weighed forty-five pounds. The stomach was also entirely void of any substance.

—The rag is not only taken off the bush but is taken off the poor man also by the Philad. Branch, which by honest dealing, low prices and genuine goods has enabled the poorest man and boy to wear decent clothes. Cheap clothing for the million and no shoddy, nor auction trash is the motto of the Philad. Branch.
