the nomination of Woodford, Finny, Payne, McDongall and Taylor simply means that the president has made up his mind to meet Mr. Conkling on his insurance companies. Several members of the Legislature who are interested in the speculative companies. Several members of the Legislature who are interested in the speculative companies appeared before the committee and wanted the bil more led by striking out all its vital fertures, particularly that which forbids the insurance of old and decrepid persons. The committee agreed to report the bill favorably as it came from the Senate.

The dead-lock at Washington was broken last week by a back-down of the republicans. They appointed a committee of safety—for their party—recontemended that executive sessions be hed immediately, for the transaction of business while orders. First to refer to the state form the general commended that executive sessions be hed immediately, for the transaction of business would some and the anticonsulations above mentioned. It is evident that with the deal in his hand the president will hold the winning can be administration, has withdrawn the president will hold the winning can be administration of the nominations. The ceremonies of feet-washing, as practiced by the Tunkers, gives rise to several important questions as to the "how." Shall one person both wash and wipe the feet of the whole church; or shall one wash and another, wipe? At a love-feast in Illinois, says the Brethren at Work, a "number of brethren were at the other of the work of the withdrawlas had been presented at Work, a "number of brethren were at the other of the withdrawlas had been presented at Work, a "number of brethren were at the other of the withdrawlas had been presented at Work, a "number of brethren were at the withdrawlas had been presented at Work, a "number of brethren were at the withdrawlas had been presented at Work, a "number of brethren were at the withdrawlas had been presented by the Tunkers, gives rise to several important questions as to the communications are always in duplicate. It is customary to send one copy to the Secretary's room immediate'y upon its receipt, but that custom was not observed to day, and it was nearly an bour at Work, a "number of brethren were after the withdrawlas had been presented ing. In his follower who is said to share the clerk's entire term he has been true and faithful to the people. Of his settlement against patronage of a clerk, ship connected therewith which he has against Robertson and act with him generally. But admit all ha claims, and there is still lacking a majority of the Senate.

Several Republican Senators waited on Parsons, John entire term he has been true and faithful to the people. Of his settlement against the Standard company the Patriot says:

It is a well known fact that for many years the great Standard Oil Company, with its millions of capital and seemingly unlimited power, has by evasions and delays managed to get out of the payment of taxes due the state. The Company has been called on frequently for reports for taxation, but has uniformly for reports for taxation, but has uniformly afford to incur.

As the term of Auditor General Schell drew near its close he consulted with the state treasurer in regard to the matter, and it was finating regard to the matter, and the matter regard to the matter, and the matter, and the matter, and the matter regard to the matte in regard to the matter, and it was finally up to the expectations of the patentees. Hayes begat Key, and Key begat make an estimate of the great corporation's business, as a basis for leving tax. A request that an examination of its books be permitted met with note ply. This left the auditor generals office without any data upon which 1 confice without any data upon whic office without any data upon which the base an account settled so far as the conpany could make it. A thorough and searching investigation was then institted by the auditor general. Information, statistics and affidavits were gathered from any and every source within reach. The most reliable data and statistics were accepted as the basis of the account and upon such data an account was settled against the Standard Oil Company amounting to $3,145,541,64.

The account was practically made upon Friday, but in order to give the comping very possible opportunity to report, it was withheld until yesterday. This is without doubt the most important one of Auditor General Schell's administration and will create a profound sensation throughout the state. The Standard Oil Company is now in such a position that it cannot take a single step without making a clean showing should be made some facts and figures will be disclosed that will cause people to one.
