Leader Horse Rake?

We have them. Call and see.

A panther escaped from a circus in Connecticut, ran half a mile, got sight of a woman's feet as she climbed a fence, and at once returned to his cage and laid down and died.

The run between New York and Philadelphia has been made in ninety-eight minutes. This is nearly an hour less than the majority of women require to comb their hair.

"A Chinaman should make a good actor, because he never forgets his cue," says an exchange, which doesn't seem to realize that the fellow would always be rushing on before his cue.

All competent judges of goods agree that you get the best goods in clothing at the Philad. Branch. They deal in no shoddy, and keep clear of auctions. They make their own clothing.

Never deceive a lawyer by lying to him about your case when he takes it in hand. He can attend to that branch of the business himself a great deal more efficiently than you can.

Be yourself and not another. If God had intended you to be Aunt Betsy or Uncle Joe He would have made you so. As it is, be yourself and be thankful for your possibilities and improve them.

Women somehow get over childish notions that men never outgrow. Some men celebrate the anniversary of their birth as long as they live, while women abandon the childish custom after they have passed twenty without marriage.

Business seems to be on the increase in this place, caused by the good bargains that are being offered at Dinges' store. People are flocking in from all parts and taking goods every day at an astonishing rate. Don't put off buying until everything is gone, but call of Cleve at once.

It takes time for young men to become acquainted with woman's ways. When, for instance, a young husband steals up behind his wife while she stands at her dressing case and suddenly bends forward and imprints an unexpected kiss on her lips, he gains the knowledge that a woman holds about one-hundred and ninety-seven pins in her mouth when she is dressing.

The superior moral sense of woman is conclusively shown by the fact that a dressmaker, after promising five women that she will do their gowns first, so that they may start for the country, never tosses up a cent or "shakes" to see upon which she shall go to work, whereas a tailor frequently yields to the temptation to resort to these immoral and illegal ways of solving a problem.

It is now settled, and all the rest of dealers give up, that the cheapest clothing is sold at the Philad. Branch. There is no getting ahead of Lewins—he has won the race by such odds that there is no catching up on the part of any other clothing store in the state. Five la Lewins—five la Philad. Branch.

You have doubtless noticed again and again with what resignation and delight some good christians can sit in a circus for three or four hours; but let the parson preach more than forty minutes on a Sunday and you will see a general twitting and restlessness all over the congregation. Why is this? Can you tell?

While repairing a postal car at the Michigan Central railroad car shops, in Detroit, a day or two ago, Superintendent Miller found two letters in the woodwork. They were both from New York City, and Postmaster Codd estimated that they had lain in the place of concealment for about ten years. They were forwarded to their destinations.

When you can buy a whole child's suit for $1.50, why you can afford to dress the little one nicely. At the Philadelphia Branch they sell children's suits as low as $1.50 and that is next to getting it for nothing. There can hardly be any profit on that.

"Say, John," said a local politician to a Chinaman, the other day, "are you naturalized?" "Yes, I naturalized. I vote alle time samee. I vote alle time samee, alle time samee." "Who are you going to vote for?" "I vote Washee—Washee—what you callee sim? Alle samee Chinamen! Washee-burne. I alle time Plublican, allee time Plublican makee blimee; Chinaman Diem-xelat say so. Plublican got bloody shirt. Chinamen votee allee same Plublican and glet job washee shirt. Ten cent, I votee Washee-burne one, fivee ten time."
