The late Dr. Guthrie, of Scotland, was a strong temperance man, and on one occasion expressed his opinion in those forceful words: "Whisky is good in its place. There is nothing like whisky in this world for preserving a man when he is dead. But it is one of the worst things in the world for preserving a man when he is living. If you want to keep a dead man put him in whisky; if you want to kill a living man put whisky into him."

—We have never known anyone to be bitten by a rattlesnake or a copperhead, that wore pants from the Philadelphia Branch. Did you? If so, let us know, and we'll publish the fact. Snakes never bite into genuine wool.

A well-known person who resigned the hammer and tongs for the pulpit, was preaching upon the text, "In my Father's house are many mansions." In order to explain to his hearers the exact meaning of the original, he stated that "mansions" should rather be translated "rooms." "There are," said he, "rooms for Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Roman Catholics, Methodists, and every other sect, and no doubt the English will find a home with all modern improvements, and that the bath-rooms has not been forgotten."—[Troy Times.

True greatness shows itself in ignoring or quickly forgetting personal injuries when men's natures would be kept in unrest by them. The less of a man one is the more he makes of an injury or an insult. The more of a man he is the less he is disturbed by what others say or do against him without cause.

The sea remembers not the vessel's rindings but rushes joyously the ravage to conceal. It is the tiny streamlet which is kept in a sputter by a stick thrust into its waters by a willful boy.

—Better bargains than those offered at Dinges' are hard to be found anywhere, and if you would take advantage of them you had better hurry before they are all closed out.

Record of Deed.—A deed is, in contemplation of law, recorded when it is left for record at the recorder's office, and is valid notice from that time though it be recorded in the wrong book and omitted from all the deed and mortgage indices.—Croll vs. Thomas, Sup. Court, Pa.

—They never impose upon a customer at the Philad. Branch. There is some consolation in this, amid the frequent crookedness that is often met with in purchasing clothing. The Philadelphia Branch makes good all it guarantees, and no one has yet had occasion to complain of any article of clothing bought at Lewins'.

Advice to those in debt.—Make a full estimate of all you owe, and of all that is owing to you. Reduce the same to a note. As fast as you collect, pay over to those you owe. If you cannot pay, renew your notes every year, giving the best security you can. Go to business diligently and be industrious. Waste no idle moments; be very economical in all things; discard all pride; be faithful in your duty to God, by regular and hearty prayer, morning and night; attend church, Sunday, and do us to all men as you would they should do unto you.

If you are too needy in circumstances to give to the poor, do what ever else is in your power, cheerfully; but, if you can do so, help the poor and unfortunate.

Pursue this course diligently for seven years, and if you are not happy, comfortable and independent in your circumstances, come to me and I will pay your debts.—BEN FRANKLIN.

—Get your hats, get your neckties, get your dusters, and your umbrellas, and your collars and your hose, or any thing you want to wear between head and foot, at the Philad. Branch, where Lewins' and his assistant Stranberg, put out the cheapest and best clothing in Pennsylvania.
