Wedded Bliss God bless the wives ! Who fill our lives With little bees and honey ! They ease life's shocks, They mend our socks. But-don't they spend the money ?

When we are sick They heal us quick-That is, if they love us; If not, we die, And yet they cry. And raise tombstones above fis.

A Sermon in Rhyme. If you have a friend worth loving, Love him. Yes, and let him know That you love him, ere life's evening Tinge his brow with sunset glow. Why should good words ne'er be said Of a friend-till he is dead ?

If you hear a song that thrills you, Sung by any child of song, Praise it. Do not let the singer Wait deserved praises long. Why should one who thrills your heart Lack the joy you may impart

If you hear a prayer that moves you By its humble, pleading tone, Join it. Do not let the seeker Bow before his God alone, Why should not your brother share The strength of "two or three" in prayer

If you see the hot tears falling From a brother's weeping eyes, Share them. And by kindly sharing Own your kinship with the skies. Why should any one be glad When a brother's heart is sad ?

If a silvery laugh goes rippling Through the sunshine on his face Share it. 'Tis the wise man's saying-For both grief and joy a place. There's health and goodness in the mirth In which an honost laugh has birth.

If your work is made more easy By a friendly, helping hand, Say so. Speak ont brave and truly, Ere the darkness well the land. Should a brother workman dear Falter for a word of cheer ?

Scatter thus your seeds of kindness, All enriching as you go-Leave them. Trust the harvest Giver, He will make each seed to grow. So, until its happy end Your life shall never lack a friend.

A LAWYER'S STORY.

"I never would convict a man on cir-cumstantial evidence if I were a juror-never! never!" The speaker was a distinguished crim-the speaker was a distinguished crim-
