CENTRE COUNTY

A CORDIAL INVITATION IS EXTENDED TO ALL TO CALL AND SEE.

Respectfully,

CLEVAH DINGES.

GUYMBER NOT SLEEPING, BUT SUFFERING FROM A FRACTURED SKULL.

ALLENSTOWN, Pa., May 31.—It is now definitely established that John Guymer, the sleeping Hungarian at the county almshouse, has at no time been in a trance, but that he has been suffering from an affection of the brain, which is expected to end in his death in a few days. After sleeping for a period of ninety-eight days his physicians discover an abscess forming on his head three inches long and two wide. Their examination also shows that the skull had been fractured at no remote date, but how or in what manner has not yet been ascertained. On Friday last the abscess was lanced. His sufferings were not mitigated thereby, but seemed rather to be augmented. The abscess has become a running sore. He is quite helpless, his attendants being compelled to carry him about. He refuses every kind of nourishment, and food in liquid form is now forced through his nostrils. Yesterday it was also discovered that he was suffering from congestion of the lungs, which necessarily greatly aggravates his condition. He is now sinking rapidly and his corps may be in the hands of the physicians for dissection in a day or two.

—To those who do not believe that Dinges sells goods cheaper than any other store in the valley, we say go and see, and if you are not convinced of the fact then we are badly mistaken.

VENNOR FOR JUNE.

For this month the Canadian weather prophet gives the following: June is likely to prove warm, even hot and dry up to about the 10th or 12th days. Beyond these dates cool and showery weather is probable up to the 20th, and frosts are likely to be experienced pretty generally both in Canada and Northern States. A snowfall is not improbable in mountainous regions. The neighborhood of the 22nd and 23rd days look, in the distance, particularly cool and frosty, while the 24th to 25th dates, on the contrary, smack of heat in many sections of the country. The neighborhood of the 29th is likely to prove stormy in Western United States, the storms being, in all probability, accompanied by thunder and lightning and hail. The month will end hot, in most parts, with threatening weather.

—Astronomers have recently discovered that the man in the moon has his eye continually on the Philad. Branch. He needs a new suit of clothes, but how to get down to see Lewis about it,—there's the rub. Poor fellow, no doubt he'd like to get a decent pair of breeches so he could go and see his girl.

The admirer of two girls at Waupaca, Oregon, could not choose between them and neither was willing to relinquish her claims in favor of the other. They therefore agreed to decide the question by the toss of a coin, and the tossing was done, carefully and fairly, in the presence of an invited company. The loser acquiesced her luck uncomplainingly, and is to be first bridesmaid at the wedding. A somewhat similar case had a different termination at Bowerton, Mich. The girls in this instance were sisters, and were willing to divide the lover between them. In order to carry out that idea they have started to Utah, where they will practice polygamy; but the harmonious sisters have exacted a solemn vow from the man never to have more than two wives.

—Dinges' is the place to buy first-class goods. Dinges' is the place to buy cheap goods. Dinges' is the place where you get your goods for almost nothing.

BALTIMORE, June 1.—The Sun this morning has a special from Frederick, Md., saying that Jesse Little, a destitute resident of Jiffeson, Frederick county, died on Monday, aged about eighty-three years, with policies on his life amounting to $68,000, said to have been taken out stately in different speculative companies by various persons.

—Dinges motto is not to advertise anything untrue, but to stick to the facts throughout.
