

LOOK!

CLEVAN DINGES

is revolutionizing the whole Retail Trade in Pennsvalley. It will pay to come from a distance and take a day in examining his stock.

In a few days he will open the finest line of ever exhibited in the county and at the cheapest rates. Only give him a trial.

He also says that his Clothing is selling rapidly and he expects to sell all of his stock off before 30 days. Be sure and buy a suit of him and get a bargain. Anything not in stock will be procured on short notice. See what he says:

I will prove to you that I can save you a percentage on Bellefonte prices and can easily do it. My Stock consists of pure and reliable goods.

A CORDIAL INVITATION IS EXTENDED TO ALL TO CALL AND SEE. Respectfully, CLEVAN DINGES.

Centre Hall, June 23.

We retain the following from last week's adv.:

GROCERIES.

All Pure Goods—Lower than the Lowest.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Opium is said to kill 3,000,000 Chinese annually.

It costs Chicago $225,000 a year to light her 12,617 street lamps.

The son of an Ohio Supreme Court Judge has gone to State prison for forgery.

A Lady of Limerick, Me., found in a fresh fish, the other day, an English gold coin worth $2.50.

Cincinnati has 4,000 liquor saloons, which pay neither license nor tax except to the general government.

Great is the rush to Dinges', so great indeed, that Cleve hardly knows whether to give up in dismay or to go ahead with the difficult task of furnishing the people with merchandise at prices that are almost to low.

Three of the great drinkers of Cairo, Ill., are to attempt the feat of drinking 100 glasses of beer apiece in four hours.

A stately woman walked solemnly down California street, San Francisco, dressed only in a nightgown. She was insane.

One New York cigar factory made 1,081,639 cigars one week, the largest number ever made in a single establishment in six days.

Alligator-skin boots and shoes have become so popular that 25,000 hides were consumed in their manufacture last year in this country.

Lord Shaftesbury lately stated that $180,000,000 have been spent on church building in England in this century—and yet there are unbelievers.

A Yankee woman recently married a Chinese laundryman, and in three days thereafter the unhappy Celestial appeared at a barber's shop and ordered his pigtail to be cut off, saying in explanation: "Too mukkee yank." Had they started in by dealing at Dinges' all this would not have occurred.

A new industry, the extensive cultivation of flowers for perfumery purposes, is about to be started in California. In Europe it is very remunerative; a good crop of lavender will yield $1,500.

A physician at Trenton, Ohio, has cured himself of small-pox by eating lemons, and looks upon the fruit as a specific of as much certainty and power in small-pox as quinine is in intermittent fever.

In the room of a railroad depot in Iowa is the following placard over the clock behind the counter: "This is a clock—it is running—it is right—it is set every day at ten o'clock—now keep your mouth shut."

The Cincinnati Northern Narrow-Gauge road has a grade of one hundred and twenty feet to the mile on a portion of its track. A test was made with wet rails and chained wheels, and the engine slid down at a rate of speed which condemned the grade as unsafe.

Miss Lonemaiden must have been a wonderful child. She is but twenty—this upon her own authority—and yet while speaking of war times the other evening, she got quite excited while relating her sensations upon seeing the first troops that left Massachusetts, marching through the city—when she could have been but a babe in arms, even if she had arrived at that distinction. It is wonderful, wonderful! Yes, and what is more wonderful is how cheap they sell clothing at the Phils. Branch. It beats everything.
