Haymaking has commenced. A heavy shower on Monday. For boots and shoes Doll & Mingle, Bellefonte, are headquarters. We regret to learn that Mr. A. E. Wolf, of Miles, is on the sick list. Tuesday, the longest day of the year. Glad we got over it safe. Highest market price is paid at Bellefonte for all kinds of country produce. We observe that on the wheat in many grain fields of this county. Our farmers are busy making hay, and the crop will be a good one with most of them. Best sugars, coffee, syrups, spices and all in the grocery line in abundance at Wolf's. The Central Pennsylvania Dental Association will meet at Huntingdon, July 8. A portion of the Jack Haven beam broke recently, and 15,000,000 feet of logs escaped. Don't go away from home to buy goods, when you can get them here, and even better bargains at Dinges. The Bellefonte car works are now running day and night. They shipped their first lot of cars last week. We hear reports of some of the grain fields in the upper end of the valley presenting a very poor appearance. Centre Hall's three schools held a picnic in Harper's grove, below town, on Friday last. Whitmer and John, at Wolf's, can show you a larger stock of goods than you generally find in a country store. It will take eight years more to complete the building of the proposed Pennsylvania trolley at Huntingdon, which was begun in 1879. Remember the only place in this part of the state to buy the very best clothing, is at Lewins', at the Philadelphia Branch, Bellefonte. Our neighbor, D. B. Brishin, is remodeling his dwelling which will add to its appearance. A man by name of James Kennedy was killed at Tyrone, on Monday, 20, while attempting to cross a moving train. Lewisburg decided by a majority of 116, that cows should not be allowed to run on the streets of the borough. A recent act of the legislature prohibits dealers selling toy pistols or any explosive substances to any person under 16 years of age. Besides the fine, fresh stock of groceries, Seehler's have on hand a large lot of dimes which they are offering at greatly reduced prices. Call and see them. A bay horse was stolen from George Blinn, of Clinton county, Saturday a week. A reward of $50 is offered for the return of the horse. Mr. Joseph Crozier has a Bronco (mule) eye that measures nine inches in circumference. Joe thinks it will make a big robber if hatched. Some people think that quantity and not quality of food is what they can best live on. For such Seehler's grocery might just as well not be, for they keep nothing but pure groceries. The soldiers' association, of Millin county, held a reunion, at Soraodville, on the 19th. The speaker was Gen. W. C. Gen. Beaver, assisted by Maj. Foster, of the Bellefonte Democrat. Mr. John W. Moore, of Bellefonte, has been awarded a patent for a machine which, it is claimed, will separate the finest particles of gold and silver from the ores in which they are imbedded. Every Tuesday and Friday Mr. J. B. Solt is around bright and early, with his beef wagon. He has been killing nothing but the very best beef, and intends furnishing only the best for his customers. Mr. Samuel Huber, father-in-law of Rev. A. A. Kerlin, of Alexandria, Huntingdon county, died very suddenly on the 17th inst. The deceased was a former resident of Huntingdon county, but was residing in Clinton county at the time of his death. According to usual custom among news papers, we will not issue a paper next week, in order to give our hands a vacation and opportunity of celebrating the 4th of July. We hear it stated that policies to the amount of over $50,000 had been taken out on the life of Mrs. Barbara Wate who died some weeks ago in Miles township, in a number of mid-west concerns. A fine line of dress goods, that will bear examination, is opened for inspection at Dinges'. The prices are what Cleve prices himself met on, as he is positive he is lower in that respect than any other merchant in Pennsylvania. Miss Hannah Pletcher, whose death notice appeared in these columns, refused food for a period of 45 days before her death. She appeared to suffer very little pain, and was unconscious most of the time during her illness. The Y. M. C. A. will hold a gospel meeting in the Methodist church, on next Sunday evening. The meeting promises to be an interesting one. Several members of the State College Association are expected to be present. All are invited to attend. Wolfe's old reliable stand is still completely stocked with the best class of goods. But what is of more interest to consumers is the fact that these very goods can be bought for the same that you pay other places for second or third class goods. Among the bills approved by the governor is one making it a misdemeanor and punishable by a heavy fine and imprisonment, for any one defacing walls, buildings, fences or trees with handbills, advertisements, or anything of that sort without the consent of the owner. Patent medicine men and merchants, beware. The Huntingdon Presbytery met at Newton Hamilton on Tuesday of last week. The object of the meeting was for the purpose of hearing applications for licensure. The following members (number) passed their examinations creditably and safely—Mr. W. K. Foster, of this place, being one of the candidates. EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The Queen City Suspenders Company, of Clinton county, are now manufacturing and introducing their new Stocking Supporters for Ladies and Children, and their ingenious skirts Suspenders for Ladies. None should be without them; our leading physicians recommend them, and are loud in their praise. These goods are manufactured by ladies who have made the waste of ladies and children a study, and they ask us to refer to them as so reliable and energetic lady to introduce them in this county, and we certainly think that an earnest solicitation in every household would meet with a ready response, and that a determined woman could make a handsome salary and have the exclusive agency of this county. We advise some lady who is in need of employment to send to the Company her name and address, and mention this paper. Address Queen City Suspenders Company, Nos. 114 & 116 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. 20 nos. 41

On the 23rd of October, 1898, in Danville, Pa., there was gathered a large assembly of citizens and their brethren from far and near, for the purpose of laying the cornerstone of Christ E. K. church. Divine service was performed at the court house, Rev. Robert D. D. Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, gave the invocation. In the services were completed, the brethren and citizens proceeded to the site of the church, which the corner stone was laid in ancient masonic form by William Davidson, W. M., of Columbia Lodge, Danville. Of the officers and members of Lodge No. 106, who were present upon that occasion, not one remains, all having gone to that home from whence none return. This venerable building, hallowed with the tenderest and deepest associations known to the human heart, raised to the ground to give place to a grand memorial church to be erected by the executors of Peter Bradly, deceased, and the lapse of more than half a century some of the lodges, then present, with other lodges, have laid the cornerstone of the new Christ church. The ceremony was performed by the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, on St. John the Baptist's day, Friday last, Rev. Robert D. D. Grand, now 85 years of age, who preached at the service. Rev. Robert D. D. Grand, who was W. M., laid the corner stone, joined in the work. The occasion was one of great interest, and a full representation of the available laity was present, some 15 or 20 persons having left Spring Mills that morning to be present at the ceremony. Twenty-five years ago a young man came to Bellefonte, poor, but determined to succeed. Mark the results, to-day his name is on the white paper upon which it is written. Reason? The Phila. Branch was in existence at that time, and he therefore had to pay high prices for his clothing, and even now that he has the Phila. Branch he hands, he still sticks to his old habit of purchasing elsewhere—listening to no advice on the subject, and consequently cannot get anything but a poor man's lot as he continues snubbing Lewins'. Rev. Marr, of Lewisburg, preached for the Presbytery at Armonk, on Sabbath evening. That people has been without a regular minister for some years. The Rev. gentleman selected for the occasion was Rev. Marr, of Lewisburg. A more sure word of prophecy, etc. His theme was the Revised Version of the New Testament. The sermon throughout was replete with forcible argument. Some persons may not be aware of the fact that there was an American as well as an English committee of Revision, and that many of the changes that were presented by the Americans were rejected by the English. Hence a copyright was taken out in the United States and called "The American Version," and also one in England. Consequently there are two revised versions of the Bible. One which is not to be too hastily casting aside the old, which was the anchor of our forefathers, and upon which our faith is based. Farmers, now that the harvesting season is close at hand, it would be well for you to buy in stock of groceries. The women have scarcely anything to cook, and certainly need some of Soehler's dried and canned fruits to see them through the winter. Now don't miss calling there and if you don't please your wife by bringing a lot of their fine groceries home, it is something wonderful. Did you see the grand comet? Look for it in the evening low in the northern sky, and after midnight, higher in the firmament a little west of north. The comet continues to be the centre of attraction, although most people are disappointed that it does not appear brighter. It appeared to us about 90,000,000 miles from the sun and 20,000,000 miles from the earth. The dimensions computed by the astronomers, which show the diameter of the nucleus to be 1,000 miles, the diameter of the tail 12,000 miles and the length of the tail 4,000 miles, leave no doubts in their minds that it is the comet of 1857. You can't catch a rat at each second time, and that's just why you can't see of getting only first-class clothing at Phila. Branch. Think what it costs them and how knowing that if they cheat or deceive one will return. Be assured that the Phila. Branch is just what we say it is; the only place in Centre county at which you can be certain of getting good clothing at cheap prices. The large bank barn of Rev. James R. Lane, who resides in Hill Valley, Huntingdon county, was destroyed by fire, with all its contents, Wednesday night last. The fire originated, it is supposed, from persons trying to steal meat out of the granary and dropped an ignited match in the hay. A valuable 2-year-old cow and calf that were in the barn were consumed. The thieves, when they saw the mischief likely to ensue, turned out all the horses and cattle in the stable immediately underneath the granary, and thus they were saved from destruction. We almost had a row in town the other day. Two men met on the street and No. 2 called No. 2 some hard names, when No. 2 replied by telling No. 1 to go to hell. No. 1, who might have been a serious difficulty proved a blessing, for No. 1 now buys his clothing at the Phila. Branch. Mrs. Mary Cooper, of Kansas, who left Armonk some thirteen years ago, is visiting her father, Mr. Geo. Bollinger, who has been confined to his bed for the past eight weeks, sick with typhoid fever. Mrs. Cooper first went to Illinois when she was married. About eight years ago she went with her husband to Kansas, where they have since lived. She resides in that part of Kansas which was ravaged by the grasshoppers a few years ago. Along with her is a bright little daughter about ten years of age. Ready-made clothing is now being offered at very low figures by Dinges, who wishes to dispose of his stock, and will sell at almost cost—rather than keep the stock over. Now is your time for cheap clothing. John C. Motz & Capt. Van Valen, of Woodward, were engaged in hauling a load of lumber from Motz's saw mill on Wednesday last, when Van Valen's horse, which was hitched in the team, kicked and kicked Motz with both feet, hitting him on the abdomen and throwing him back against the corner of the box. He was very seriously hurt. His being so near the horse, a gentleman said the other week that while he dealt with other merchants he was constantly in debt, but as soon as he commenced dealing with Dinges he kept out of debt as easy as he got in at other places. On the evening of the 23rd inst. the family of Thos. W. Hesterman, of Haines township, near Woodward, noticed a strange object some distance from the house, slipping around the top of a mullein stalk. Upon going to it, they found it to be a small rubber balloon about six inches in diameter. Attached to it was a bit of string and a paper on which was written, June 29th, W. M. Sloan, Reynolds, Pa. Hain or Hines the Phila. Branch is crowded with customers, there seems to be no end to them. Some have even forgotten themselves in their anxiety that they have gone there on Sunday to purchase clothing, but of course were not accommodated. Lewins' is to be congratulated on the successful way in which he manages his business. Mr. George Hollinger, of Armonk, is seriously ill from typhoid fever. Mr. Daniel Kerstetter, of Coburn, has been laid up for the last few months or more. Mr. Jacob Wagner, Sr., of the Loop, has taken a relapse, and is again confined to his bed. Mr. Wm. Emerick, farmer, is not improving. Mrs. Isabella Biler, who has been ill for some weeks, but convalescent of late, had the misfortune to fall and break an arm on Friday last. Mrs. Charles Diley, Pittsburg, says she had Chronic Catarrh badly. Porous cure her perfectly. For additional notes see 2nd page.

PERSONALS. Our friend J. G. Meyer, of Haines announces himself as a candidate for Treasurer. This adds the name of another good democrat to the list. Had a pleasant call from Mr. Ferguson Potter, one day last week. Mr. Potter placed himself in the seats of the candidate for Prothonotary, as the announcement will show. Reference to the announcement will show the name of J. H. Holt, of Snow Shoe, Pa., as a candidate for Treasurer. Mr. Holt is one of Centre's best democrats. Mr. Jacob Dunkle, of Walker township, is a candidate for the office of Commissioner. Had short calls from Messrs. S. K. Foust, of Miles, Michael Kerstetter, of Spring, J. Newman, Jr., and A. Sternberger, of Bellefonte. ANOTHER CANDIDATE. By a large majority the people of the United States have decided in favor of the Kilday-Wort as a remedy for the diseases of the kidneys and liver, some, however, have disliked the trouble of preparing it from the dried form. For such a new remedy is offered in the shape of Kidney Wort in Liquid Form. It is very convenient, is easily taken and is equally efficient as the dry. Try it. —Louisville Post. A Smooth Complexion can be had by every lady who will use Parker's Ginger Tonic. Regulating the internal organs and purifying the blood it quickly removes pimples and gives a healthy bloom to the cheek. See notice. Mrs. F. Simmering, Millersville, Pa., had Osmia and Chronic Catarrh. Porous cured her entirely. PREJUDICE KILLS. Eleven years ago our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best (and some of the worst) physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by a simple remedy of Hop Bitters, that we had purchased for two years, before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters. —The Parents. —Michigan. MARRIED. In Union twp., on Thursday, June 16, Mr. Daniel Peters to Miss Abigail Harris. On the 15th inst., by Rev. John Toblinson, Mr. M. L. Emerick, of near Centre Hall, and Miss Phoebe Storer, of Haines twp. On the 18th inst., by the same, Mr. Chas. Weaver, of Gregg twp., and Miss Elizabeth Howerton, of Penn twp. DIED.
