—EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The Queen City Suspender Company, of Cincinnati, are now manufacturing and introducing their new Stocking Supporters for Ladies and Children, and their unequaled Skirt Suspenders for Ladies. None should be without them four leading physicians recommend them, and are loud in their praise. These goods are manufactured by ladies who have made the wants of ladies and children a study, and they ask us to refer them to some reliable and energetic lady to introduce them in this county, and we certainly think that an earnest solicitation in every household would meet with a ready response, and that a determined woman could make a handsome salary and have the exclusive agency of this county. We advise some lady who is in need of employment to send to the Company her ham and address, and mention this paper, Address Queen City Suspender Company, Nos. 147 & 149 West Fourth Street, Gnacinnatu, Ohio.

Last week the Reporter briefly noticed the death of the widow of Rev. D. Gotwald, at Milton, and her burial at Aaronsburg. From the Milton Argus we copy the following: Mrs. Susan Gotwald, the subject of this notice, was born near York, Nov. 9th, 1801, and ende i her long and eventful career on the night of July 17th, 1811, at just half past eleven octock. As the last rays of the Sabbath sun were creeping slowly but surely down the horizon, so was the last rays of a beautiful and guileless life ebining away to the source from whence it came. She had at an early ago united herself with the Lutheran church by confirmation. She was the relic of the Rev. Daviel Gotwald, who preceded her to the land of promise thirty eight years. Her husband was pastor of but wo chrages during his long life in the ministry, viz: that of Petersburg, York sounty and Aaronsburg. Chambers's Encyclopædia, which forms the basis of the Library of Universal Knowledge (the last London edition of 1880 being reprinted verbatim as a portion of its contents), is the laborious product pean scholarship. It has developædia making; its various revised, in successive years, till it has come to be universal'y recognized, by those competent to judge, as standing at the very front of great aggregations of knowledge, and better adapted than any other Cyclopædia for popular use. It contains such full and important information as the ordinary reader, or the careful student, is likely to seek, upon about 25,000 subjects in every department of human knowledge. Chambers's Encyclopædia, however, is a foreign production, edited and published for a foreign market, and could not be exnence to American topics as sire. To supply these and of American ditors and writers have added important articles upon about 15,000 topics, covering the entire field of human knowledge, bringing the whole number of titles under one alphabetical arrangement to about 40,000. Thus the work is thoroughly Americanized, and the Library-of Universal Knowledge becomes at once the latest and most complete Encyclopædia in the field, at a mere fraction of the cost of any similar work which has preceded it.
