There is a serious case of smallpox near Millheim.

Among the notables at the Granger picnic, was Mayor Powell of Bellefonte. Bellefonte will feel proud of the man they have chosen for Mayor.

The Granger picnic was held at Centre Hall, Pa., on Thursday, Sept. 21. The day was cloudy and very windy, with a low temperature, which, with the exceedingly dusty roads, were the only unpleasant features of the day.

At a meeting of the Granger picnic, on Thursday, Sept. 21, a number of resolutions were adopted. The first was to elect a committee to prepare a report on the state of the Granger movement in this county.

PUTTING ATMOSPHERIC ELECTRICITY TO WORK.
(Baltimore Sun.)
It is perhaps not too much to expect that the scientific study of the identity of lightning and electricity, the scientists of the early future will devote a way of harnessing atmospheric electricity and putting it to work, either directly by gathering it from the air, or indirectly by employing the currents which flow along the ground during thunderstorms and auroral displays.

AFTER MANY YEARS ABSENCE A MAN CLAIMS HIS WIFE.
Wilmington, Del., September 15.—So-called circles here are excited over the following story: L. Patterson, brother of the late John Patterson, of Philadelphia, and John C. Patterson, of Delaware, married, fifteen years since, a daughter of Mr. E. L. Rice, a prominent citizen of this place. They went to Baltimore to live. He drank and at last left his wife and child, saying he would not return or write till he had mastered his weakness. Nine years since the body of a suicide at Erie (Pa.) hotel was positively identified as that of John C. Patterson. The body was brought hither and buried in the family vault. The widow refused several offers of marriage. Lately Patterson wrote to friends inquiring for his wife and child. He wrote his wife also. Patterson went from Baltimore to Texas, raised cattle, went to New Mexico, overcame his habit of drinking, made a fortune and wrote for his wife and child, but the letter was lost. He is now in Philadelphia, and has captured an alien who had stolen his wife. He will come next month to take her with him to the West.
