OUR RAILROAD.
Track has been laid on an extension of the Lewistown & Tyrone branch from Pennsylvania Furnace east by north to Fairbrook, five and one-half miles, and on a branch from Centre Hall, five and one-half miles, to Scotia Mine. The new extension is eleven miles in all, and makes the branch twenty-three miles long, from Tyrone to Scotia Mine.

"Knox," says in the Lewistown Chronicle of last week:
The writer has the authority to state that the Del. L. & West R. R. which terminates at Northumberland, in conjunction with the Norfolk interest in the Pennsylvania R. Co. to finish out the Spruce Creek road to Tyrone as well as the branch to Lewistown to Pittsburg, 48 1/2 miles against 44 miles via Phila. and Harrisburg, thus affording the public an outlet to the West.

The Lewistown Branch (Clothing) hall, is preparing to hold a Sale of and save money for all classes of men and boys in ready made garments. The professional man, the laborer, and the farmer, and the gentleman, can find suits or single pieces, coats, vests, over coats, underwears, hats, collars, neckties, or anything in line of wearing apparel, at better bargains than any other store in the state will offer. Mr.
Loving, from Tyrone to Scotia Mine.

—Rev. Fischer has returned with his family from his vacation in the Adirondack set country. He was surprised to find the parsonage having exterior improvements put on during his absence.
"Laugh and grow fat" is an old proverb, but the man with a torpid liver can't laugh. What shall he do? Let him take Green's No. 1 and 2 Liver Pills and he'll laugh all night.

INTERNATIONAL LESSONS.
OCTOBER 23, 1881.—The Peace-Offering.
GOLDEN TEXT:—"Offer unto God thanksgiving and pay thy vows unto the Most High."—Ps. 134.
LEV. 11-18.

Veres II.—The sacrifice of peace-offerings—the peace-offering, which followed the solemn dedication of self to God.
The burnt-offering, as a symbol of joyful communication with God, which is the actual fruit of forgiving sin and the full surrender of the soul to Him (Rom. 12).
The peace-offering was of three kinds:
(1) the thank-offering; (2) the voluntary offering; (3) the voluntary-offering. The mode of offering is described in ch. 11. The offerer laid his hands on the head of the victim, which was then slain by the slaughterer, and the fat was taken out of the victim, and was burnt on the altar, as in ch. 11, v. 13. The fat was burned on the altar, as in ch. 11, v. 13.
The fat was burnt on the altar, as in ch. 11, v. 13.

SWINDLING INSURANCE.
Judge Rittel recently, in charging a jury in a case that involved the legal validity of a speculative insurance policy, instructed them in and endorsed the law of Judge Atchison, of the U. S. District court, to the effect that an insurance policy not taken out by one of its creditors (or a person having an insurable interest) could not be collected.
Judge Rittel went further and strongly intimated, in substance, that the stealing of a policy thus illegally obtained would not constitute the legal offense of larceny, because it would not be "a valuable thing." Judge Rittel further says that the practice of the grand jury was more than other forms of gambling, as it is gambling in human life, and finishes the strongest incentives to still higher crimes.
