"Make Home Happy." More than building showy man More than dress and fine array; More than domes and lofty steenles More than station, power and sway, Make your home both neat and tasteful, Bright and pleasant, always fair, Where each heart shall rest contented, Grateful for each pleasure there.

There each heart will rest contented Seldom wishing far to roam, Or if roaming, still will ever Cherish happy thoughts of home. Such a home makes men the better, Sare and lasting the control, Home, with pure and bright surroundings, Leaves its impress on the soul.

Die when die thou must !

Day is waking, leaves are shaking,

In the grave there's sleep enough-

Men are mowing, breezes blowing,

He who will not work shall want;

Naught for naught is just-

Won't do, must do, when he can't,

HUMOR OF THE DAY.

It isn't always the flower of the family that makes the best bread.
