THE SUN.
NEW YORK, 1882.
 The SUN for 1882 will make it fifteen annual celebrations under the present management, shining as always for all, big and little, mean and graceful, scientific and unscientific, Republican and Democrat, improved and refined, intelligent and obtuse. The SUN's light is for mankind and womanhood of every sort; but its genial warmth is for the good, while it points out the blunders of the blundering and the wickedness of the wicked.

The SUN of 1882 was a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertook to report in a fresh, succinct, unconventional way all the news of the world, omitting no event of human interest, and omitting nothing of the force of the world's affairs. The success of this experiment was the success of THE SUN. It effected a permanent change in the style of American newspapers. Every important journal established in this country in the dozen years past has been modelled after THE SUN. Every important journal already existing has been modified and bettered by the force of THE SUN's example.

The SUN of 1882 will be the same outspoken, truth-telling and interesting newspaper. By a liberal use of the means which an abundant prosperity affords, we shall make it better than ever before. We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, and marking its importance, not by the traditional parallel, but by its real interest to the people. Distance from Printing House Square is not the first consideration with THE SUN. Whenever any thing happens worth reporting we get the particulars whether it happens in Brooklyn or in Bokhara. In politics we have decided opinions; and are so accustomed to express them in language that can be understood. We say what we think about men and events. That habit is the only secret of THE SUN's political course.

The WEEKLY SUN gathers into eight pages the best matter of the seven daily issues. An Agricultural Department of unequalled merit, full market reports and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific, and domestic intelligence complete THE WEEKLY SUN, and make it the best newspaper for the farmer's household that was ever printed.

The SUN does not know and read and like THE SUNDAY SUN, each number of which is a Gem of interesting literature, with the best poetry of the day, prose every line worth reading, sports, humor—matter enough to fill a good sized book, and infinitely more varied and entertaining than any book, big or little.

If our idea of what a newspaper should be pleases you, send for THE SUN.
 Our terms are as follows:
 For the daily SUN, a four page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post paid, is $10.00 a month, or $25.00 a year, or, including the Sunday paper, a six page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is $5.00 per month, or $7.75 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is always furnished separately at $1.00 a year, postage paid.
 The price of the weekly Sun, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

ETTINGER'S SUICIDE

Verdict of the Snyder Co. Jury.
 Middleberg, Pa., Nov. 30.—Since Uriah Moyer's arrival here there has been an unusual exhibition of feeling on the part of the public. This state of things has been occasioned by the circumstances attending the death of Emanuel Ettinger. On Friday last Coroner Hermann, accompanied by Drs. B. F. Wagenseil & J. O. Wagner and a jury, proceeded to Adams township and disinterred the remains of Emanuel Ettinger and removed his stomach. This was done to substantiate the poison theory. At first it was supposed there might be some trouble as Joe Moyer blustered a little. It all settled down smoothly, however. Yesterday the jury rendered the following verdict: "That the said Ettinger died from the effects of arsenic poison given to him by some party or parties unknown to the jury." The stomach has been sent to an expert in Philadelphia to be analyzed.

Adamsburg, Pa., December 1.—Detective Lyons and Officer Smith arrested Joseph Moyer last evening, at Middleberg, charged with surety of the peace, and also on the charge of being implicated in the killing and robbing of a peddler about fifteen years ago, with Uriah Moyer and other parties not arrested yet. He was committed to Middleberg jail to await his trial at the next term of court.
