Child's Hymn. Came the seed-sowing ; Fruit and grain were growing-Fruit and grain in plenty, Enough for all the living Now in cold November Comes the glad Thanksgiving.

How shall we thank Thee Low on our bended knee Sins and faults confessing Or in the sacred church, Where the bells a-ringing Call us to greet the day

Prayer and song we bring Thee; For the hungry, homeless ones Who wander through the city, And mourn that they are living, In Thy sight, Oh Lord, Is the best Thanksgiving.

To-Day,"and To-Morrow.

If there comes some joy to me, Would you have me stay, With that joy to sweeten life ! Well, then, if I have a dream Shall I wait to feel its fear ? "That will do to-morrow

If unto some loving heart I've a debt to pay 'Ah! that is a might debt; If I'm forced from bitter wrongs "Then, dear Heart, there is no haste

Keep them till to-morrow. " Duty, Kindness and Success Lose by slow delay Duty hath a double right When it claims to-day; Kindness dies if it must wait; Success will not stay-Unto them comes no to-morrov

If they lose to-day, "But for Debt and Doubt and Anger, tending within six months to return and been miscarried, and in the faith and fan writing. But, at last, and after discovto work the mill, and this had brought hem into debt. Already there was a mortgage on the mill, for the grand-laugh. "and f will but there into a joyous mortgage on the mill, for the grand-laugh." and f will but the stanger brose into a joyous mortgage on the mill, for the grand-laugh. "and f will but the stanger brose into a joyous cause it was first one from places. The florin, which has and not to kiss me."

The stranger brose into a joyous cause it was first one from places. The florin, which has and not to kiss me."

The stranger brose into a joyous cause it was first the stranger brose into a joyous cause it was fit The holder of the mortgage was a cruel, avaricious man. He had often threatavaricicus man. He had often threat-ened to turn out the little family, if his

Then she uttered a gleeful little shout interest was not paid; and two weeks before he had served a written notice, "Oh, I know!" she cried. "I replaying in the woods, but invariably returned to the noon-time meal. On this occasion, however, she did not make her appearance. Lizzie was alarmed, and would have gone to seek her; but the grandfather took it more coolly. "She has stopped at some of the neighbore" he said "she will be regishere" he said "she will be coolly." the neighbors," he said, "she will be Dossy by the hand? Could it be—no, home for supper; don't fret, dear." it was impossible—not yet the neighbors," he said, "she will be home for supper; don't fret, dear." Lizzie, thinking of the coming Satur day, had allowed herself to be persuaded that all was right, and had gone back to her work. But, as the afternoon wore on and no Dossy came. she grew seriously alarmed. At last, throwing down her needle, she came out, as we have seen. "Oh. Dossy, D "Oh, Dossy, Dossy!" she cried, when Lizzie, and came hurrying over the she had scrutinized the landscape vainly in every direction, "where are you? the stile, was over it in a bound, and If God will only spare you, dear—if he the next moment was at Lizzie's side.

To explain this we must go back to the afternoon before, and look at Dossy, as she sat in the old-fashioned garden, swaying to and fro in a grapevine swing, puzzling over the troubles of the family. She was watching a bobolink that sang in the heart of a lifac bush, and talking to herself the while.

"What a nasty, ugly old man that landlord is," she said: "and he made in many many shouldn't mention how, under other circlepted, as I discovered at last. I wouldn't mention how, under other circlepted, if the other day that the dining-room of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know his particular failing came in very hungry. The waiter told the new comer there was no room at present. Spying our absent-minded friend company to any the said in the other day that the dining-room of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know his particular failing came in very hungry. The waiter told the new comer there was no room at present. Spying our absent-minded friend company to any the said in the other day that the dining-room of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know the said. "They were intersected as a list of the other day that the dining-room of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know the life of the other day that the dining-room of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know the look of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know the look of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know the look of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know the look of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know the look of the club which he frequents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know the look of the club which he requents was quite full, when a man who chanced to know the look of the club which he reput he club which he club which he c

Just then some market carts rolled by, till, at last, in despair, I came over, beladen with produce, on their way to the fore I intended, to solve the mystery it?" neighboring little town. On the front eat of one sat an old woman, with a basket of flowers on her knees. A sudden thought flashed on Dossy, and the puckered little brow cleared np. Why couldn't she sell flowers? Her garden was full of them, especially of pansies, such pansies as were not often seen.

"Came over?" said Lizzle, faintly, and guiltily, conscious how she had misjudged him.
"To be sure," repeated Ross Devergaux, frankly. "Ah! little skeptic, you doubted me, did you?
"Indeed, indeed—" began Lizzle.

CENTRE REPORTER. HE

FRED KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1881.

TERMS: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

and make ever so much money, and was some time, and one was at New-they wouldn't have to leave the mill, and grandpa and sissie wouldn't ery any more. She fell to work arranging her bouquets for the morrow, her eyes fairly dancing with delight. She put them together quite tastefully, and by the time the summer moon stood over the pines she had a long row set up or so the postmistress came up, trembthe time the summer moon stood over the pines she had a long row set up amid the evergreens, that the dew might keep them fresh. In the morning, as soon as breakfast was over, she would set out.

Dear, innocent Dossy! She had not the least doubt that she would succeed, and she slept but little that night in her excitement. Over and over she rose from her little hed and stole on tiptee.

from her little bed and stole on tiptoe to the window to look down on her lied, could not tell me where you had

VOLUME XIV.

The morrow dawned cloudlessly, Breakfast over, Dossy ran down to the garden, crammed her posies into Lizzie's market basket, and taking it on her chubby arm trudged away, fortunately unnoticed. On she sped, past the long, long line of fences, and down into the very heart of the town. Her cheeks were crimson, her breath came in gasps, she almost stumbled with fa.

them into debt. Already there was a mortgage on the mill, for the grand-father had hever been a prosperous man, and now the interest had fallen them into debt. Already there was a mortgage on the mill, for the grand-father had hever been a prosperous man, and now the interest had fallen them into debt. Already there was a mortgage on the mill, and this had brought and not to kiss me.

The stranger brose into a joyous cause it was first coined in Florence.

The French franc took its name from you really know me, Dossy? 1 am Ross ato arrears for nearly a twelve-month. Devereaux. Why, you have sat on my

The child often spent the mornings gazing across the meadows, heart-playing in the woods, but invariably broken about Dossy's prolonged absence.

will give you back to us alive—I will never repine again at anything."

But where was Dossy? Was she really lost?

To explain this we must go back to What Lizzie would have replied, if landlord is," she said; "and he made cumstances, but you, at least, ought to poor Lizzie cry so the other day when know the whole truth. The fact is, dar-"Has Mr. A. dined yet?" he queshe was here. He says he'll drive us from our home. Why, then," with sudden consciousness, "we'll have no place to live in, and I shall never hear ways lived with us, and who, it seems, bidli and tell him he has here. you sing, birdie; nor have my flowers, wished to marry me, not, of course," he nor my kittens. Oh, me! Oh, me!" said quickly, "that she loved me, but nor my kittens. Oh, me! Oh, me!" said quickly, "that she loved me, but merely to secure the title and position. her April tears, and then fell to think- Well, to make a long story short, she ing in earnest. If they only had some money. What if she could get some? to give her your letters, so that I never puckered her brow into a frown. heard a word from you, or about you,

"Came over?" said Lizzie, faintly, was full of them, especially of pansies, such pansies as were not often seen. She jumped from the swing so quickly that she landed headforemost into the grasses below. But, nothing daunted, off the golden-hearted pansies and off the golden-hearted pansies and English daisies by handfuls. She would do it; yes, indeed, she would indeed—began indeed backed in ten mindedness the cand from this sheard stokee but had been in the sugar is added makes the roots (such that allows that allows the sum and indeed—began indeed, indeed—began indeed with a kins.

If there are any genuine perfection in the sum and the shaded in the number of the sum and the count

STIRRING ADVENTURES.

gone. All they knew, and they told it

"Tell me," he cried, earnestly, "my peccania, the term subsequently applied to money in general. Some coins have claim his bride. But from that day to this Lizzie had never heard a word about him.

At first she thought her letters had as if for some half-remembered, half.

At first she thought her letters had as if for some half-remembered, half. from the metal itself, as the cuercus, "Dossy," she answered, "Dossy Du silver. Other coins have got their upos, from the Sanserit "rupya," silver. ering the heartlessness of her father's relatives, she began to believe thateven Ross might be selfish also. "I am poor now, and he deserts me," she said "God help me! But it is, I sappose, "God help me! But it is, I sappose, "Ross might be readd."

His answer was to catch her in his eagle, the angel, testoon (from testate, a head.) Others from the head of the state, as the sovereign, the crown; and others from the monarch's proper name, as the darie (from Darius) the Phillip, Then Lately a new trouble had come upon her. Her grandfather had been failing all winter, so that a man had to no him.

the first syllable of the inscription francorum rex, king of the French. The sou, which circulates in France as the cent. does in the United States, is from the Latin "solidus," which was the name of a golden coin issued by some of the Romon emperors.

The guinea derived its name from the thst, if the arrears were not forthcoming by the next Saturday, he would be as good as his word. Every day since Lizzie had risen by candle light and worked till bedtime. "If I can only cot this embedday done for Mrs W." If I can only cot this embedday done for Mrs W." If I can only cot this embedday done for Mrs W." If I can only cot this embedday done for Mrs W. Said Cried. I remember you. Won't Lizzie be glad?
Won't she stop crying now?"

Ross Devereaux's swart cheek crim soned. "Take me to your home," he said, "to your sister. Is she here?"

were called in and succeeded by the said, "to your sister. Is she here?" get this embroidery done for Mrs. Watson," she said, "by that dreadful day, I may raise part of the money at least, and perhaps then he will wait for the rest."

said, to your sister. Is she here?"

"No," answered Dossy, "we live at grandpa's, at the old mill out of town, you know."

"Let us go at once then. No need rest."

where carred in and succeeded by the sovereign in 1817. The English pound was originally a pound of silver, which was divided into 240 pennies, by the Saxons. The shilling has been assigned a great room day." and berhaps then he will wait for the rest."

"Let us go at once then. No need to sell pansies any longer," cried Ross But, this afternoon, a new and greater trouble had come. Dossy, her little pet sister, had been missing all day.

Lizzie Dupont stood as we have said, so that shielding, finally reduced to shilling, would indicate a coin on which

A SHIP WITHOUT A MAST.

Five Pieces of News, Concerning Odd Ups near Alice Falls, Canada, in a house rence. Peter Gumblaw went courting thereabout a few days ago, but as what follows will show he had a most distressing time. The beauty of the Ausa boy says, the lover gave a wild leap from the brink. The lad was frantic with the sight, but his legs took him, like the velvet gloves of a rabbit, swiftly to the nearest man. When the latter reached the rocks by the river he caught sight of Gumblaw in the torrent far beneath, but still above the falls. It was ampeent that from the interaction and general factor and general papearance of the stuff demonstrates it denly contrived scheme. We have been hard at work upon its long time, and we latter reached the rocks by the river he caught sight of Gumblaw in the torrent far beneath, but still above the falls. It was ampeent that from the intense of the stuff demonstrates it do be a pure quality of sulphuric acid. The ground is impregnated over a large sure our success, so we believe. Capital is not wanting. An organization is project through. That organization is to take aim when the bird swooped down at him. At that moment a six year-old child, a grandson of Mrs. Hadlock, toddled out of the house, and the eagle pounced upon the little fellow. Mrs. Hadlock struck frantically at the eagle with a large roller towel. low. Mrs. Hadlock struck frantically at the eagle with a large roller towel, and, releasing the boy, it flew to a neighboring oak. Doctor Torrington put a double charge in the Hadlock shotgun and fired. The eagle flew upward and away over the sea and its district.

and fired. The eagle flew upward and away over the sea, and its flight showed that it was wounded. Doctor Torring ton's shoulder was dislocated by the recoil of his gun. Before night some fishermen found the eagle's body a half mile off shore.

How Lewis Schafer escaped death by the breadth of a pair afterward climb. he breadth of a mair, afterward climb. matter alone we shall obtain vastly suing a hundred feet perpendicularly perior strength. The new steamship with one hand, is told by the Leadville the Servia, is allowed to carry from

The New Style of Vessel to be Built-Many ew Appliances in Machinery---Wonder-ful Speed Promised. upon a hill, dwells one of the prettiest girls to be found north of the St. Law-says: A project which is likely to assume great proportions at an early date came to light in Wall street yesterday. It contemplates a sweeping revolution in ocean steamship building, and, according to information given the Times. ble gave Peter the mitten. He left the house in such a rage that it seemed a good thing to him to go straightway and leap into Ausable chasm. Unfortunately, the precipice was on his path homeward and so near the dwelling of his cruel lady-love that his anger had no time to coul. As he ray toward the proposed enterprise, as told by Mr. A. Perry Bliven, of this city, who is largely interested in the scheme, is presented by interested in the scheme, is presented is very nearly situated.

The true Times, it has the support of leading and influential capitalists, principally Massa, and leap into Ausable chasm. Unfortunately, the precipice was on his path homeward and so near the dwelling of his cruel lady-love that his anger had no time to coul. As he ray toward the rewith. Mr. Bliven talked freely had not some the dwelling of the milky way on a large scale, showing the equality of luminous intensity by means of curves. A great celestial circle, consisting of thirty-three bright masses, is apparent, and in the center of this our solar world is very nearly situated.

A most remarkable discovery has been no time to cool. As he ran toward the dangerous rocks Gumblaw met a boy, to whom he hastily handed his watch, money and keepsakes. Then, as the boy says, the lover gave a wild leap from the brink. The lad was frantic with the sight, but his leas took him.

the long long line of fence, and dever in the law year for the lowery and the lowery and the lowery and the lowery and the lower or more small parties of the lower in the lower of the lowery and the lower of the l

The inhalation of air charged with boy who had both legs cut off in another street-car accident.

wheat cakes are equal to pure white bread as regards the phosphates or SCIENTIFIC NOTES.

The kernel of the date, on the au-ordinary nutritive matters.

Luxury in New York. The luxury and perfection of detail n New York dwellings is passing into a proverb. Nowhere in the world, prob pended upon the furnishing and ornathis city. The draping of curtains has become a distinct branch of art, and every decorator and upholsterer has one or more employes whose sole business is to arrange in graceful folds the drapwith one hand, is told by the Leadville papers. Schafer worked in a mine on Little Gulch creek. The shaft is 115 feet deep. The hero of the episode, a German of the build and brawn of Hercules, was hammering his drill at the bottom of the shaft, when he heard a strange noise above. Instantly glancing upward he saw a heavy beam falling with frightful velocity down the shaft. He acted upon instinct, and pressed

FACTS AND COMMENTS.

President Garfield's memory is to be thority of M. Georges, is a very poor article of diet. He asserts that the absence of starch and the small proportion of albuminous matters do not allow it to be classed with any of the

The carrier pigeon that is valued at tion are the very sinews of nature. M. Houzeau has lately published a $500 must be a fine bird. Tet there are If conscience restrains thee to-day it representation of the milky way on a large scale, showing the equality of luminous intensity by means of curves. A great celestial circle, consisting of these birds are said to have found their three birds are said to have found their a man gets by lying is, the thirty-three bright masses, is apparent, and in the center of this our solar world of about 700 miles, in two or three days, truth.

All that a man gets by lying is, that he is not believed when he speaks the truth. stopping, too, on the way to gather food.

They have an original way in Venice of protesting against a bad tenor. A the past, gentleman in the parterre of the Teatro Malibran recently opened his umbrella and held it toward the stage, evidently to keep off the shower of false notes.

The auditorium at constant in the use of it.

Pleasure and pain glide by us like shadows; life vanishes in a moment; it is nothing in itself—its value consists in the use of it. The auditorium at once became a forest of open umbrellas. The tenor fled, the neral, after a useful, unselfish life, than curtain fell, and art was avenged.

The supreme tribunal of Mexico has just given a remarkable decision. They have determined that certain slaves were entitled to their freedom twenty or it will shrivel up or fall asleep. years ago, and that the owners of a mine in which they have been worked for those twenty years must pay them wages for all that time. This decision indicates the growing liberal sentiment of the people of Mexico.

The famous big trees of California, 350 to 400 feet high and proportionately thick, are on public land, subject to entry at $1.25 an acre, and may be bought up and destroyed by whoever wishes to make such use of them. The bark has already been peeled from the butt of one for a showman who acts it butt of one for a showman, who sets it up at fairs as an exhibition, and another has been cut down in order to make a dancing platform of the stump.

Some curious verdicts have lately been noticed in the courts of this country. Not the least singular is that recently reported in a Philadelphia court, where a woman secured a verdict of $9,000 from a street railway line for the loss of a hand by an accident to the car in which she was riding, while a few days before, in the same court, a verdict of only $4,000 was given in favor of a Doctor Torrington, who is seventy years old and by no means athletic, was hurriedly summoned to the house of a neighbor, Mrs. S. Hadlock, of Peak's Island, Maine. When he reached Mrs. Had: he found that he was expected to kil with a gun instead of with his medicine chest. An eagle of sweeping wing and flerce scream was circling about the Hadlock poultry-yard, and the good woman was protecting her turkeys by means of brickiats hurled with Amazonian courage. The doctor was amazed and amused, for he never before had heard of such boldness on the part of the bald-headed things, however big their beaks. He was about to take aim when the bird swooped down at him. At that moment a six-year-old child, a grandage of Mrs.

in Berkshire. A boy of ten, convicted of murdering his bedfellew, was unanimously pronounced by the judges as a proper subject of capital punishment, and does not appear to have been reprieved. These cases happened long before the secretary of state was in the habit of interfering in cases of murder.

A boy of ten, convicted as follows: That the circulation is guish their kinghts from those whom the two pretenders continued to invest with the old light blue ribbon. (Hence, by the way, the expression "true blue") Under these circumstances, it was originally proposed that the St. Patrick ribbon should be orange, but, as it would have savored too much of party, it was proposed that the two pretenders continued to invest. ble that this young girl may have her punishment commuted to imprisonment

And the proof is not all an estimated authors some one where the proof is a contract of a contract o

NUMBER 49.

Inclination and interest determine To indulge a consciousness of good-

Good company and good conversa The life free from care, and from any All that a man gets by lying is, that There is no sadder truth to the a grand procession and a marble mauso leum after a loveless, selfish life. A brain is a very hungry thing, in-Our condition never satisfies us; the present is always the worst Though Jupiter should grant his request to each, we would continue to importune him. The habit of fretting is one that

He who learns and makes no use of He who learns and makes no use of his learning is a beast of burden with a load of books. Comprehendeth the ass whether he carries on his back a library or a bundle of fagots?

How ho learns and makes no use of his learning is a bundle of bundle of burden with a load of books. Comprehendeth the ass whether he carries on his back a library or a bundle of fagots? or a bundle of fagots?

In this world a man is likely to get ostentations liar.

Heads and Hats. Whether the mighty sons of Anak wore Lats at all is not of so much interest as the question of the circumference of their heads. We read a great deal about the size and bulk of the giants of old but each with sudden vehemence, "I'm heart-whole on that subject."—Philadeiphia cation employed is boiling ammonia in the room where the patient is.

There is no department of the Federal about the size and bulk of the giants of cold, but such extreme stories of size are of the business, there are such opportu-looked upon with just suspension.

There is no department of the Federal about the size and bulk of the giants of cold, but such extreme stories of size are of the business, there are such opportu-looked upon with just suspension. cation employed is boiling ammonia in the room where the patient is.

The following drink for relieving sickness of the stomach was introduced by Dr. Halahan, and it is said to be very palatable and agreeable: Beat up one egg very well, say for twenty minutes, then add fresh milk, one pint; water, one pint; sugar, to make it palatable; boil and let it cool; drink when cold. If it becomes curds and whey it is useless.

A French scientist has lately been investigating the food properties of buckwheat, and gives the following as the result of his researches: Buckwheat cakes are equal to pure white bread as regards the phosphates or bone-making material and nitrogenous

The following drink for relieving of the business, there are such opportunities for frauds as in the pension divided upon with just suspicion. Very frequently, when the armor worn by the men-at-arms of the sitzenth and seven—teenth centuries is examined, the conclusion is that the knight thus protected was less in size than the man of to-day. But the bulk of the body may have increased or diminished, but what about the size of the head? Is the hat we wear to-day as by would be decreased by death, but such its useless.

A French scientist has lately been investigating the food properties of buckwheat, and gives the following as the result of his researches: Buckwheat cakes are equal to pure white bread as regards the phosphates or bone-making material and nitrogenous of the position of the suspending the exact truth. Those who wear the dandies, and ask him to lend you fifty men-at-arms of the sitzenth nd seven—teenth centuries is examined, the conclusion is that the knight thus protected was less in size than the man of to-day. But the bulk of the body may have increased or diminished, but what about the size of the head? Is the hat we wear to-day as being as the one donned by our grand-tures in 1882 for pensions is estimated at $88,000,000, and it is supposed that a between $10,000,000 and $20,000,000 of the pipilitant whole of the single of the int were the proportions: Sizes of 21 gest that the existing blue ribbons inches, none; 21 1-2, 1 hat; 22 1-2, should be changed for a green one, on should be enanged for a green one, on the ground that such an alteration to day they order and sell hats of decreased circumference: Of 21 inches, 3 hats; 211-2, 4; 22, 3; 221-2, 1, and of 231-2 inches none at all. It might be worth while to learn what has been the experience of our hatters in regard to the Awgiegn head covering the care was never head of as a national color of a nationa

Madam Filosofoff and the Czar. A correspondent in St. Petersburg records an amiable action lately performed by the czar. During the last few days

When friends depart with joy unbroken, And hand meets hand with this last token-Good night I good night I Good-Night.

How slowly said, with soft delaying, When love for yet more love is praying, And heart meets heart, while lips are saying Good night! good night

But tenderly, with what new meaning From agony and anguish gleaning, We whisper, o'er a sick-bed leaning-Good night! good night! And to the weary spirit winging,

Is Death, perchance, an angel bringing, Good night! good night

Storm is not good; but when storms pass And clouds are fled and airs grows mild And waves plash softly one by one, And weary earth, her contines o et Lies like a lovely alceping ch We feel a joy unknown before n tree and flower and rain-washed grass, A new ulcance in sun.

His cold hand has the magic keys Which unlocks treasures to our eyes Hidden in daily trivial things; And common comfort, common ease Respite from common sufferings, The morning's task, the evening's rest

Are to us riches past all price. And all the hard things are gone by, And every ache has been relieved, And softly on the ravished eye Breaks the clear dawn of Heaven's day Joy shall for grief make such amends That we shall wonder that we grieved.

—Susan Coolidge

HUMOR OF THE DAY.

The fop is only a man who thinks 'swell" of himself The phrenologist is a man who cannot do his work well unless he feels right.

The habit of fretting is one that grows rapidly unless it be sternly repressed; and the best way to overcome it is to try to look always on the bright side of things.

He who learns and makes no use of the who learns and makes no use of the sterney are a superscript of the sterney are a superscript.

Any one may do a casual act of good nature, but a continuation of them shows in part the temperament of the individual.

The most truthful and unobtrusive man in the community will, in one week after he becomes the owner of a setter dog, develop into a talented, gaudy and what he gives. Men's hearts are like a whispering gallery to you. If you speak softly a gentle whisper comes back; if you sold you get scolded. With the measure you mete it is measured to you again.

There are three prominent phases of a young woman's life all visibly connected: As a baby, she's lugged. As a young woman, she's hugged. As a wife whe's humbugged.—Springfield Sunday Ness.

sobbed, "you have b-b-broken my h-h-heart!" "If that's the case," said the c. c. h., "you will not need the new worth while to learn what has been the target that seven millions of money-orders were issued. The fees received for these orders amounted to $917,691, as gainst $659,616 as the cost of transmission, showing a net profit to the government on the business to the amount of these ordered amount of the amount of ultimately determined that it should be the old color of the Garter—light blue