

The Centre Reporter.
SUPPLEMENT.

Centre Hall, Pa., Th'rs. Dec. 15, '81

—Toys, toys, toys! for girls and boys, little and big, of horses, birds and pig, at Cedars confectionery, Bellefonte. A large assortment of toys to please the little ones, just received.

—Do not fail to carefully read the interesting announcement of Frank Blair, in this issue of the Reporter. Mr. Blair has a fine lot of silver ware and other goods for the holiday season which he offers at remarkably low prices. His goods are genuine, and all that his letter represents them to be.

—Knakakee, Indiana, has a justice who beats them all in the way of doing up a job of matrimonial splicing with neatness and dispatch. This is his formula:

"Have 'er?"
"Yes."
"Have 'im?"
"Y-s."
"Married; $2!"

—Fresh groceries, of every description received for the holiday season, also a choice stock of fine confectioneries and foreign fruits, at Sechlers. Don't let the Christmas season pass over, without seeing and purchasing of the new, fresh, and pure goods at Sechlers, all specially laid in for this happy holiday season. Sechlers, you know, is headquarters for such goods.

THE BARBER'S POLE.

Every part of the barber's pole formerly had special significance. The gilt knob at the top was once a brass basin, with a notch in the side used to fit under the chin to facilitate the lathering and washing of the customers. The barbers were formerly surgeons; at least all the venesections was performed by them. The pole represented the staff held by persons who were bled in the arm; and the two spiral ribbons painted around it were originally actual bandages—one for cording or binding the arm to cause the flow of blood, and the other for dressing the puncture afterward. The whole was significant of the barber's twin occupations—shaving and bloodletting.

Fred Furey, who formerly kept a saloon in Sunbury, has been arrested at Denver, Colorado, on the charge of robbing freight trains. Some of the stolen goods were found in the house occupied by Furey.

Some men who are too poor to take a newspaper will pay fifty dollars a year for tobacco and three times as much for whisky. It is a glorious thing that this is a free country.

Dayton, Ohio, Dec. 6.—Robert Warnock, a Virginian and veteran of 1812, died at the Soldiers' Home Hospital today, in his 105 year. His age is confirmed by the records of enlistment in 1812.

The rush for clothing at the Philad. Branch is one of the remarkable things of Bellefonte, never before was there any thing like it; persons come from adjoining counties to buy. The quality of the goods, the guarantee, and very low price asked by Lewins, are what bring the Philad. Branch its immense trade.

NO RENT IN IRELAND.

London, December 5.—The conspiracy against the payment of rent is extending in Ireland. Intimidation, Boycotting and threats are prevalent throughout a large area of territory. The Lord Mayor of London writes to the Times stating that the Property Defense Association of Ireland has failed to come under his notice as Lord Mayor, and that the Irish nation may rely on the traditional sympathies of the city of London to aid their association.

The Times, in an editorial, reproaches the English nation with apathy in not aiding the efforts to combat the action of the Land League by assisting the association. Six hundred of the Duke of Devonshire's tenants have decided not to pay their rents except with a deduction of twenty per cent.

TREMENDOUS EXPLOSION.

Bradford, Pa., Dec. 5. About noon to-day one of the Roberts Company's nitro-glycerine magazines, at King's Junction, twelve miles from Bradford, and containing 1,125 pounds of nitro glycerine, exploded with terrific force, causing the earth to tremble as if shaken by an earthquake. The shock was distinctly felt in Bradford. The explosion is said to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. This morning two of the Roberts brothers went to the magazine for four cans of nitro-glycerine and noticed that the cans on top of the heap were smoking. Fearing an explosion they left, but soon returned and saw that the tops of the cans were getting hot. Word was sent here that the magazine was about to explode, and an agent of the company arrived on the spot in time to witness the disaster caused by the explosion. The forest, covering at least three acres in the vicinity, was laid low, and houses at King's were nearly shaken from their foundations. No one was injured. It is the only known case of nitro-glycerine exploding by spontaneous combustion.
