Happiness Do you ask me, love, with fond caress, What seems to me perfect happiness And emerald earth, and you and I Roaming through woodlands green together, That's happiness in summer weather.

And say 'tis winter; outside the snow. And inside the fire's warm, cheerful glow; And we sit by it, cheek touching cheek, So I find, in summer or winter weather, Happiness means—to be together. - Philadelphia Press.

The Country Children.

- I can see the happy children As they wander through the grassos Of the fresh and dewy pastures
- Of the tangled forest-passes; I can track them as they wand
- By the trail of morning-glories: I can read their happy footsteps-I can tell their pleasant stories.
- Ob, I know the paths of children Up the hills and down the valleys; Butteroups and faded daisies

 Mark their sorties and their sallies;
- I can mark their resting places; And the wide, green, open spaces
- Where the wild white plum tree blossoms : Where the grapevine swings and tosses;
- Where the plumes of scarlet sumach Where the golden-rod in autumn Flames among the hazel-bushes There the trooping army wanders-There the scouting party pushes.
- Oh, but they are kings and nobles As they wander there together; Cloth-of-gold is all the common
- To their feet in summer weather Up and down, in field and woodland, I can see their glowing faces;

And by scarlet leaves and berries I can mark their resting-places. -Chicago Tribune.

ETHEL'S CHOICE.

Ethelyn Abbott has been spending the long summer afternoon in a pleasant desultory fashion, half the time reading desultory fashion, half the time reading the tastefully bound little volume which is now slipping from her delicate hand, have the time dreaming of—well, she could not tell exactly what she has been always at Pachara the head head. dreaming of. Perhaps she has been dreaming over her delightful three. The trio stroll towar weeks at Newport; perhaps last night's party has engrossed her thoughts. At all events thinking has been pleasant occupation, for her face is very bright and unclouded.

What a charming picture of "delee far niente" she makes lying back luxuriant.

What a charming picture of "idelec far niente" she makes, lying back luxuriantly in a hammock, her beautiful head pillowed on soft, white arms, and her hair, of that rich shade of chestnutbrown, shining in the sunlight which silps in through the thick foliage of the arbor. Very charming, indeed, is she to a pair of dark eyes, which, like sunbeams, are peeping at her through the same medium.
