main honest, though attempts at striking are occasionally detected. The annual income from this source is kept in seerce by the rulers, but it has been estimated as high as $5,000,000. "It is thought by the Gentlies," says the correspondent of the Boston Herald, "and intimated by the saints themselves, that a portion of the tithing fund has just been employed, and very effectively employed, in security favorable legislation in the National Congress. The departed Brigham was wont to speak very contemptuously of Congress, boasting that he cared nothing for it, because he could influence its votes with money whenever he deemed it desirable. And there is reason to the think that his boast was not wholly idle. The republicans have been in power 20 years, and in every national convention, in that time, declared against the "Wayin replic" hat is evapore to the independent for a state convention, in that time, declared against the "Wayin replic" hat is expected that for persons were killed and Many In increase rounds of amunition.
