The coaches took fire immediately. The shock of the collision had been terrifle. In all the forward cars of the Albany train the passengers were thrown from their seats, and many of them were injured. In the cars of the Tarrytown train the shock was also great enough to throw passengers out of their seats. One woman with a baby in her arms was hurled against a hot stove in the end of the second car from the engine, and she and her infant were both burned severely. Many other persons on the same train were badly bruised.

From both the trains the passengers rushed to look upon the wreck. A terrifle scene confronted them. A countryman who had selected a seat at the theater from which he could obtain a good view of the stage was greatly discouraged when a young lady wearing a fashionable hat sat down in front of him. He bore the affliction in silence as long as he could and then bending forward, said politely: "Please, miss, would you be so kind as to lower your umbrella?" She lowered the applause of the audience.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Age of Miracles is past, and Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will not raise the dead; will not cure you if your longs are almost wasted by consumption. It is, however, unsurpassed both as a pectoral and alterative, and will cure obstinate and severe diseases of the throat and lungs, coughs and bronchial affections. By virtue of its wonderful alterative properties it cleanses and enriches the blood, cures pimples, blotches and eruptions, and causes even great eating ulcers to heal.
