Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Division

WINTER TIME TABLE.

Table with columns for destination (e.g., Harrisburg, York, Lancaster) and departure times for various train services.

On and after MONDAY, Oct. 18, 1891, the train schedule for the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Division will be as follows:

LOCAL ITEMS.

The week opened cold and very stormy. Snow about six inches deep on Tuesday evening. You can buy an extension table for $6.00 at Camp's.

Choice barley for seed, for sale by I. J. Grenoble.

For this Pittsburg has had over 900 small-pox cases reported.

Dr. H. Hoover will sell his farm stock near Bolling Springs, March 9.

Mr. Hoppes, formerly of the Bush house, died at Harrisburg recently.

Mr. Joseph B. Miller, near Bolling Springs, will make sale of his farm stock on March 16.

Why you can buy a set of chairs for $3.00 at Camp's, and he'll deliver them besides! Did you ever!

Cheapest clothing best made, plainly marked, no shoddy, all their own makes, at the Philadelphia Store.

If you wish to save money don't fail to visit Camp's furniture rooms, at Centre Hall—stock equal to any in the country.

Mr. Love, widow of Judge Love, on Church street, sustained severe injuries by a fall on the ice Thursday of last week.

We are free to admit that the Williamsport Daily Sun and Banner news and spicy always.

Wallace Duncan will consider our hat tipped for late favor we appreciate his kindly remembrance when there's anything new.

Dress-goods all marked down at Dinges' bargain store, where you can get a dress for less than elsewhere, and goods all O. K.

Go to Doll & Mingle if you want honest goods in shoes and hats, and at fair prices. Test examine their stock and satisfy yourselves about it.

A protracted meeting is going on in the Evangelical church of this place, in charge of Rev. Hester. The service has been an unusually large number of seekers.

The cross sign arising out of the Millheim contested election case were ended by the grantee, ignoring the bill. Each party has to pay its own costs.

Just bear in mind that Dinges' goods that are not damaged, and are marked down the same as that which was damaged. Never such bargains offered in this valley.

Our neighbor, D. C. Keller, the new Treasurer, is really getting ready to do a bellefante, and makes sale, Feb. 11. He goes where there's heaps of stamps.

Do you want first-class canned or dried peaches, or other canned or dried fruit, the best the market affords, and to see Dinges' fruit, and you will be sure to get it.

Sales seem to be getting plenty this spring—we printed some 10 or 15 bills within the last week, and the season now fairly open yet, and the season now fairly open yet, and the season now fairly open yet.

Woodward has lost one of its oldest inhabitants, in the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Metz, who died on Monday night last, and is over 80 years of age. She was the mother of Mrs. Sarah Nell, of his place.

The Rebersburg congregation observed the week of prayer, out of which grew an extensive revival of religion. Already there are reports of conversions and many more are expected to follow.

Mr. Thomas Yearick, of Aaronsburg, spent an hour in pleasant chat with the Reporter the other day. Such useful and intelligent democracy as Mr. Yearick are a credit to our organization, and we are always pleased to meet them.

An eleven year old son of Ben. Hantz, living along the mountain between Middletown and Rebersburg, going home from school on Monday evening, in sliding on the ice, fell and broke both bones of his leg below the knee.

Rev. J. Benson Aker and family were quite surprised a few days ago by a handsome donation from their friends at Spring Mills. The Parson and his family appreciate most gratefully this token of appreciation and friendship, and under their sincere thanks to the donors for their kind gifts.

The Sunbury Daily has the following effort is at last to be made to obtain money to build a bridge across the Susquehanna at that place, and thereby open to Sunbury the rich farming lands of Union and Snyder counties. The Reporter, we understand, can be erected at Walnut street at a cost of $75,000, and at Market street two spans additional would be added to the company. The advantage to Sunbury would be obvious, and it would be a great benefit to the town.

Mr. Chas. Montellin, died suddenly of heart disease, at his home, in Pine City, on 18th January. From the Milling-Whitcomb we learn the following: He was sick but one day, and he died of heart trouble being the immediate cause of death. From the time of the attack to within five minutes of death he was conscious, his last words "There's my little Polly," being addressed to his little granddaughter, who was standing by his couch.

His remains were taken to Millburg for burial.

A CAREER OF CRIME.

REMARKABLE STORY OF A YOUNG MURDERER'S LIFE.

Frank Rumberger's Record as Told by Himself in a Newspaper Magazine. Attributes His Downfall to Fast Women and Dime Novel Reading. A Terrible Warning to Boys.

Frank Rumberger yesterday rehearsed to a reporter his story of the Trouman murder, as given to Rev. Holmes and published in substance in the Patriot yesterday morning. His statement was so luminous one. It is so every utterance to the minutest detail, never forgetting the grocerly line and always pure, fresh and cheap.

—Get Secher's groceries all the year around, and as far as to come to Centre Hall, Pa. Seccher's goods never kill. They are anything you want in the grocery line and always pure, fresh and cheap.

—Cheap overcoats, cheap boots and shoes, cheap underwear, far cheaper than elsewhere in Bellefonte has yet offered, at Dinges'.

—It commenced to snow on Tuesday morning, to the delight of all having colds, and as far as to come to Centre Hall, Pa. Seccher's goods never kill. They are anything you want in the grocery line and always pure, fresh and cheap.

—Well now, who thought it, you can buy a chamber suit for $25 at Camp's and he'll deliver it!

FROM PRINX TWP. We had a large crowd courting at Bellefonte last week; all got home safe, and nobody hurt; the grand old right in getting the court-suit bills. Grand old right in getting the court-suit bills.

FROM ILLINOIS. Manhatta, Jan. 19.—Landed home again on the 14th in the evening, finding all well. When I left Centre Hall, on 13 Jan. there were about six inches of snow and it was raining. On 16 we had rain all day, until I got to Indiana, where I found about 2 inches of snow and it was raining.

BRUTAL TREATMENT OF PAUPERS.

The Management of the Philadelphia Almshouse Under Ring Rule.

Philadelphia, Jan. 29.—An investigation into the management of the almshouse in progress. It has hardly begun, but the evidence of brutal treatment is conclusive. Nurses and others who have been connected with the institution have sworn that the paupers have been nearly starved. The food given them has been nearly inedible, and has been so prepared as to do them harm. They have frequently been obliged to go barefooted in the coldest weather, and have been treated with the most brutal and unchristianlike cruelty. Various charges of fraud are under investigation. The books and records of the institution have been called for, but so far have been withheld. Officials have stocked their houses with food, and have been found to have sold the same to the paupers. The books and records of the institution have been called for, but so far have been withheld.
