

FACTS AND COMMENTS.

A schoolmaster in Southern Oregon resigned his place because two of the directors would not maintain him in his efforts to stop smoking from quiting tobacco juice on the stove during school hours. The trustees evidently believed that school-boys have some rights that a teacher must respect.

Honesty is almost always rewarded. One Bennett, while purchasing a railroad ticket in St. Louis, accidentally dropped his overcoat on the floor and walked away without it. In the course of a few minutes there was a vigorous search for that overcoat, because it contained $4,500 sewed in the lining. A silver half-dollar with a hole in it.

The United States, according to a table published by the department of agriculture, has one-fourth the horses, one-fifth the cattle, one-ninth the swine and almost one-half the sheep in the civilized world. Russia has more sheep and that country has more sheep than the United States; but these are the only countries whose number of live stock is larger in any particular.

All of the good old stories about the accommodations offered by second-class railroad trains will be of date when a railroad which is to be built in West Virginia shall have been completed. Gratulations are being sent to the men for the gift of the railroad company gives the people the right to use the trains every day.

According to the British statistics the enormous number of 2,389 shipwrecks took place between 1880 and 1881, or on an average six a week. The value of the property lost is estimated at $1,000,000,000. About 1880 and 1881, or on an average six a week.

True believers are greatly agitated over the expected coming of the Mahdi or Mohammedan Messiah. The prophet himself foretold this event and prophesied that he would be the descendant of his own house. El Mahdi is expected to unite the faithful, restore Islam, and rule over the Mohammedans throughout the world.

Mutilated silver coinage is being rejected as current money all over the United States. The coinage is being sent to Washington and to the mint at Philadelphia for redemption on the basis of the amount of bullion which it contains.

United States Commercial Agent Deszyk, of St. Gall, in an article on the Swiss watch industry, reports that the American watch industry is being outdone by the Swiss. The Swiss have profited by the lessons drawn from the American watch industry.

Three women in certain New Hampshire towns form a trio not easy to parallel. One is an Amazon in strength and agility, and performs most marvelous feats of labor and endurance.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Coral Reefs. Coral reefs, said Professor Le Conte, of California, in a recent lecture, are peculiarly dangerous to navigation because of the rising abruptly, so that though the sounding line may show 6,000 feet of water within half a mile, the reef may rest its perpendicular wall on the ship's destruction.

A very widespread misunderstanding exists in the minds of the public as to the nature of the coral reefs. The idea is that they are little islands; that they build like ants and bees do, and when they are destroyed they are rebuilt.

South and West. All the prisoners that one day their way out of all at New Mexico, Texas, and occupied the country in large numbers.

Foreign News. Twenty deplorable Indians were killed by Mexican troops in Mexico. M. Rostand, the author of the play, 'The Roman Tragedy', has become insane, owing to the financial panic in Paris.

From Washington. General Robert M. Mitchell, ex-governor of New Mexico, died the other day at the national capital, aged fifty-three years.

Old Eph Sowell, who as a snake-charmer used to be one of the attractions of Barnum's Menagerie, was killed by a snake in the city of New York.

In a Boat-Constructor's Cells. Old Eph Sowell, who as a snake-charmer used to be one of the attractions of Barnum's Menagerie, was killed by a snake in the city of New York.

On the first day of January, 1881, the initial day of the nineteenth century, Iceland passed into incorporating union with Great Britain.

There are now fifteen men under sentence of death in the State of New York, and they have been convicted of willful murder.

THE ASSASSIN FOUND GUILTY.

The Jury's Verdict in the Guiteau Trial. Judge Porter concluded his three days' address to the jury by a long and eloquent speech. He was constantly interrupted by Guiteau and his friends, who were shouting and making noise.

Excitement in Rochester. The Committee Organized by the Statement of a Physician. An unusual article in the Rochester, N. Y., Democrat and Chronicle was republished in this paper recently, and has been the subject of much conversation both in professional circles and amongst the general public.

WELL, MY SON, SAID A FATHER TO HIS EIGHT-YEAR-OLD BOY.

Well, my son, said a father to his eight-year-old boy the other day, "what have you done that may be set down as a good deed?" "I gave a poor boy five cents," replied the hopeful. "Oh, that was charity, and charity is always right. He was an orphan, was he?" "I didn't stop to ask," replied the boy. "I gave him the money for looking a boy who upset my dinner basket."
