

THE CENTRE-REPORTER.

WK. KURTZ, Associate Editor.

Centre Hall, Pa., Feb. 16, 1882.

DOUBLE ACCOMMODATIONS DOUBLE STOCK!

WITMER & CO. CENTRAL SUPPLY DEPOT.

MATCH 'EM.

G. R. Spiegelmyer & Co's 'FAIR' Spring Mills, Pa.

Wikebarre and Shamokin Coal for sale.

Highest Cash Price Paid for Wheat.

LOCAL ITEMS.

You can buy an extension table for $3.00 at Camp's.

A horse in Williamsport chews tobacco—Exchange. So does a locomotive—always chews, chews to back her.

Henry Keller, farmer near this place, lost one of his best valuable horses a few days ago, from some disease.

Stove manufacturers have agreed to advance prices. Now that summer will soon be here, no stove will be needed.

The editor of the M'Vey News says he would be a saint now but when he gets well—

The Philadelphia Branch is now selling at cost to get clear of stock and prepare for spring clothing. Now that the price is only open for a few weeks. Do not miss this opportunity for a cheap overcoat or suit.

The finest goods in boots and shoes, is said to be found at Doll & Mingle's, and the lowest prices.

The commissioners of Centre and Clearfield counties were at Centre last week to confer on the necessity of building a bridge over the Meshanona.

We are informed that the probable cost would be $3,000, to be divided between the two counties.

Why can you buy a set of chairs for $3.00 at Camp's, and he'll deliver them besides? Did you ever!

The Snyder county authorities have applied to those of Lycoming county for the loan on the 10th inst. of a $1,000 such an indispensable piece of architecture in the latter county. The architect mentions with confidence the opportunity to test his merit.

If you wish to save money don't fail to visit Camp's furniture store, at Centre Hall—stock equal to any in the county.

Public sales are the order of the day now, much to the delight of the lovers of the victrola.

I have used Green's Comp. Syrup of Tar, Honey and Bloodroot in my family for several years, and can recommend it as the best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used. I found it especially nice for children. J. D. SOUBRECK, Bellefonte, Feb. 22, '82.

Myvetona has a musical convention this week, conducted by Dr. W. O. Perkins, of Boston, with Prof. W. T. Meyer, of Ansonia, as pianist and organist. Will be a most interesting and rare treat to the M'Vey veterans; he has no superior in central Pennsylvania.

Dinges still has some of those cheap goods, marked down so low as to astonish the natives. Is the place for good bargains.

There are quite a number of cases of typhoid fever in the vicinity of Farmers Mills.

Our valley may not have any aesthetic young ladies, but lots of handsome and intelligent dandies who can put up duffers that would make Oscar Wilde's mouth water.

Mr. D. M. Cowler sells the best sewing machine in the market—it is the New Singer. If you want a sewing machine don't fail to see him, you can buy him right. Prices low and on monthly installments.

Musical Entertainment.—The Penn Hall class under the instruction of Prof. E. H. Meyer, will give a concert on Saturday evening, Feb. 18th. A large amount of music are cordially invited, as the exercises will beyond any doubt be rich and entertaining.

We have had more new subscribers in the last five weeks than in any like period since the establishment of the Reporter.

When you go to Secler's grocery you seek no farther—there you find just what you want always, and the best quality too. It is a reliable grocery store in this part of the State. No customer has yet had reason to complain any dealings had with this firm. They are always honest and fair. Call and see them and examine their stock.

The following travelers have been drawn for the special term of court, to be held 2nd week in March.

College, J. M. Hoover, Milesburg, P. G. Maters, Cook Kramer, Benner, A. Koch, Boggs, D. S. Slover, J. H. C. Leathers, J. K. Leathers, Halfmoon, Geo. Wilson, Spring, Saml. Kriss, R. Cole, Gregg, S. O. Slover, M. W. Gange, W. J. Hargis, W. F. Rarich, M. H. Geise, W. J. Yoder, Jerry Miller, Fred Kurtz, David Blinshorn, H. F. Sanky, Stephen W. A. Yoder, Bellefonte, James H. Hargrove, J. Harris, B. Graham, Penn, D. B. Geary, Jas. Kestetter, Curtin, F. Robb, Hoston, R. Holt, D. Yothers, Ward, S. Gingsch, R. L. Blumberg, Haines, C. W. Wolf, G. Miller, E. Burn, T. Dunin, W. F. Win. Miles, G. Slover, Howard, D. F. Fischer.

Goods not toward by the fire will be sold off under price same as if damaged, to get rid of stock, at C. Dinges' Call and see.

Jerry Davis intends to move to Phillipsburg, and make sale March 4th.

Joseph S. Houz, late of Farmers Mills, has moved to Louisa.

Some of the current elements are remarkable for their fondness for the complex. Charles Chapman, of Topeka, Kan., was 15, but Lucy Paenott, his runaway bride, was only 13. They were arrested and separated after two days of honeymoon. Louis Badgely and Joseph Howard, who formed a clergyman to marry them at Oswego, N. Y., were only 16 and 14, but they had only a few dollars for a fee, and the marriage was unsatisfactory to the minister, fifty cents were contributed by spectators. Ben Wyman and Lizzie Karsh had poorer luck, at Temperanceville, Mich. They were 12 years old. After going from Justice Chapman all day long, they had to return to their homes unmarried.

More persons have been cured with Penna than with all other remedies put together.

Trusses are fine and spring-like, with roach mucky, Wednesday also a very fine day.

ABOUT THE BLIND.

The circular printed below is self-explanatory. The number of blind persons in Pennsylvania, by the census of 1880, is nearly 4,000. The number in each county is as follows:

Table with 3 columns: County Name, Number of Blind Persons, and Total. Counties include Adams, Lancaster, Berks, etc.

LIGHTNING-ROD SWINDLERS.

An Ohio Farmer's Costly Experience With the Sharper.

Yellow Springs, February 6.—A farmer by the name of Wilk, living three miles from the village of Yellow Springs, Ohio, had been the victim of swindlers for some time.

POLITICAL DEBTS IN ITALY.

A trial is pending in Genoa, which will, it is contended, illustrate one of the Italian manners and customs not altogether edifying.

A TUMOR WEIGHING 112 POUNDS.

Remarkable Surgical Operation at the Hospital of the Invalids.

Pale and pinched in features, a woman of large proportions was carried into the clinic room of the University Hospital, India, she is said to be nearly 40 years of age.

MISS ISABELLA HILL, ALLEGHENY CITY.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong, also farmer John Shafer, of near Madisonburg, honored the Reporter with a visit on Monday last.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong.

Another big sale of farm stock, advertised in Reporter, is that of John Gabriel, near Centre Hill.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong.

Mr. D. M. Cowler sells the best sewing machine in the market—it is the New Singer.

Musical Entertainment.

We have had more new subscribers in the last five weeks than in any like period since the establishment of the Reporter.

When you go to Secler's grocery.

The following travelers have been drawn for the special term of court, to be held 2nd week in March.

Goods not toward by the fire will be sold off under price same as if damaged, to get rid of stock, at C. Dinges' Call and see.

Jerry Davis intends to move to Phillipsburg, and make sale March 4th.

Joseph S. Houz, late of Farmers Mills, has moved to Louisa.

Some of the current elements are remarkable for their fondness for the complex.

More persons have been cured with Penna than with all other remedies put together.

Trusses are fine and spring-like, with roach mucky, Wednesday also a very fine day.

ABOUT THE BLIND.

The circular printed below is self-explanatory. The number of blind persons in Pennsylvania, by the census of 1880, is nearly 4,000.

Table with 3 columns: County Name, Number of Blind Persons, and Total. Counties include Adams, Lancaster, Berks, etc.

LIGHTNING-ROD SWINDLERS.

An Ohio Farmer's Costly Experience With the Sharper.

Yellow Springs, February 6.—A farmer by the name of Wilk, living three miles from the village of Yellow Springs, Ohio, had been the victim of swindlers for some time.

POLITICAL DEBTS IN ITALY.

A trial is pending in Genoa, which will, it is contended, illustrate one of the Italian manners and customs not altogether edifying.

A TUMOR WEIGHING 112 POUNDS.

Remarkable Surgical Operation at the Hospital of the Invalids.

MISS ISABELLA HILL, ALLEGHENY CITY.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong, also farmer John Shafer, of near Madisonburg, honored the Reporter with a visit on Monday last.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong.

Another big sale of farm stock, advertised in Reporter, is that of John Gabriel, near Centre Hill.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong.

Mr. D. M. Cowler sells the best sewing machine in the market—it is the New Singer.

Musical Entertainment.

We have had more new subscribers in the last five weeks than in any like period since the establishment of the Reporter.

When you go to Secler's grocery.

The following travelers have been drawn for the special term of court, to be held 2nd week in March.

Goods not toward by the fire will be sold off under price same as if damaged, to get rid of stock, at C. Dinges' Call and see.

Jerry Davis intends to move to Phillipsburg, and make sale March 4th.

Joseph S. Houz, late of Farmers Mills, has moved to Louisa.

Some of the current elements are remarkable for their fondness for the complex.

More persons have been cured with Penna than with all other remedies put together.

Trusses are fine and spring-like, with roach mucky, Wednesday also a very fine day.

ABOUT THE BLIND.

The circular printed below is self-explanatory. The number of blind persons in Pennsylvania, by the census of 1880, is nearly 4,000.

Table with 3 columns: County Name, Number of Blind Persons, and Total. Counties include Adams, Lancaster, Berks, etc.

LIGHTNING-ROD SWINDLERS.

An Ohio Farmer's Costly Experience With the Sharper.

Yellow Springs, February 6.—A farmer by the name of Wilk, living three miles from the village of Yellow Springs, Ohio, had been the victim of swindlers for some time.

POLITICAL DEBTS IN ITALY.

A trial is pending in Genoa, which will, it is contended, illustrate one of the Italian manners and customs not altogether edifying.

A TUMOR WEIGHING 112 POUNDS.

Remarkable Surgical Operation at the Hospital of the Invalids.

MISS ISABELLA HILL, ALLEGHENY CITY.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong, also farmer John Shafer, of near Madisonburg, honored the Reporter with a visit on Monday last.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong.

Another big sale of farm stock, advertised in Reporter, is that of John Gabriel, near Centre Hill.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong.

Mr. D. M. Cowler sells the best sewing machine in the market—it is the New Singer.

Musical Entertainment.

We have had more new subscribers in the last five weeks than in any like period since the establishment of the Reporter.

When you go to Secler's grocery.

The following travelers have been drawn for the special term of court, to be held 2nd week in March.

Goods not toward by the fire will be sold off under price same as if damaged, to get rid of stock, at C. Dinges' Call and see.

Jerry Davis intends to move to Phillipsburg, and make sale March 4th.

Joseph S. Houz, late of Farmers Mills, has moved to Louisa.

Some of the current elements are remarkable for their fondness for the complex.

More persons have been cured with Penna than with all other remedies put together.

Trusses are fine and spring-like, with roach mucky, Wednesday also a very fine day.

ABOUT THE BLIND.

The circular printed below is self-explanatory. The number of blind persons in Pennsylvania, by the census of 1880, is nearly 4,000.

Table with 3 columns: County Name, Number of Blind Persons, and Total. Counties include Adams, Lancaster, Berks, etc.

LIGHTNING-ROD SWINDLERS.

An Ohio Farmer's Costly Experience With the Sharper.

Yellow Springs, February 6.—A farmer by the name of Wilk, living three miles from the village of Yellow Springs, Ohio, had been the victim of swindlers for some time.

POLITICAL DEBTS IN ITALY.

A trial is pending in Genoa, which will, it is contended, illustrate one of the Italian manners and customs not altogether edifying.

A TUMOR WEIGHING 112 POUNDS.

Remarkable Surgical Operation at the Hospital of the Invalids.

MISS ISABELLA HILL, ALLEGHENY CITY.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong, also farmer John Shafer, of near Madisonburg, honored the Reporter with a visit on Monday last.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong.

Another big sale of farm stock, advertised in Reporter, is that of John Gabriel, near Centre Hill.

Col. Jacob Wolf, of Armstrong.

Mr. D. M. Cowler sells the best sewing machine in the market—it is the New Singer.

Musical Entertainment.

We have had more new subscribers in the last five weeks than in any like period since the establishment of the Reporter.

When you go to Secler's grocery.

The following travelers have been drawn for the special term of court, to be held 2nd week in March.

Goods not toward by the fire will be sold off under price same as if damaged, to get rid of stock, at C. Dinges' Call and see.

Jerry Davis intends to move to Phillipsburg, and make sale March 4th.

Joseph S. Houz, late of Farmers Mills, has moved to Louisa.

Some of the current elements are remarkable for their fondness for the complex.

More persons have been cured with Penna than with all other remedies put together.

Trusses are fine and spring-like, with roach mucky, Wednesday also a very fine day.

Advertisement for BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, featuring text about its benefits for blood and health, and a list of agents and distributors.

Advertisement for PARKER'S GINGER TONIC, describing it as a pure family medicine that invigorates without intoxicating.