A Farewell. Good-bye! God speed thee on thy way Across the waste of waters wide ! Fair winds and seas the ship betide, With starry night and cloudless day !

Good-bye ! from sight, but not from heart. Though half the world may intervene In love, and hope, and trust serene, ore can be apart

God keep thee in His tender care ! On the firm land or rolling deep He giveth His beloved sleep, For His strong love is everywhe -S. S. Conant, in Hasper's Magazin

What Is Life?

Eyes opening to the light, a feeble cry; A few short years, some joys, more tears Eyes closing into night; a quivering sigh;

VOLUME XV.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

mind, endurance was all that remained. Even water lilies palled, and for weary bedy and more weary mind but one desire had force—to see the low stock-ads of the Crow Wing agency, and an actual inn, where a real bed, even if as deliverance, and where one would find a metoffice and a daily stage, connecting this last outpost of civilization with St. Cloud, eighty miles below, and the first point where railroads could be roughd an' they went in an' out, an' told stories, tory years before, when New England, more especially its northern portion, seemed emptying itself into the West, the white-covered, heavily-laden wagons passing day by day through the old towns, gazed upon by the more con-servative with apprehension and dis-max. Again a broken bridge gave another

THE CENTRE REPORTER. FRED KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

TERMS: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

Which from each harp-string float But still unto his car remains A discord in the note. And still his heart, unsatisfied, Seeks, yearningly, in vain, To find the music which has died And mend the broken strain. Oh, world ! that listens, when too late,

Broken Strings.

There is no minstrel ripe in years,

But, as his song he sings,

Feels musingly across his harp To find some broken strings.

The carly songs that from his lyre His youthful fingers flung,

Have lost their first Promethean fire

Since love and life were young.

Tae world may listen to the strain

Unto the voice which sings, And loves the music, when the years Have shattered many strings, But little owes the bard to you For praises from your tongue, Who heard not when the harp was new, used. This treatment brings out every taken for a car starter.

Fashion Notes

Gold tulle trims evening dresses.

Velvet dresses need little trimming.

Yellow diamonds are in great favor.

Guipure guimps are in new dresses.

Silver gray is revived as a fashionable

Flowers on dinner tables grow more black crepe de chine are much worn.

pure white and cream will be used in

Felt skirts are very handsome this trimming bonnets.

New trains are pear-shaped.

spring color.

new praise abroad.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1882.

NUMBER 9.

find a postoffice and a daily stage, con- interposed.

morning of unloading and swearing and reloading, and when at last the rushing river was passed and the wagon ouce more under way, a treacherous and shelving mud-hole suddenly swallowed np exen and fore-wheels, dumped load owners into its very depths, and for five minutes seemed likely to hold them there. Then all struggled out together, and while Boulanger shrieked with rage and Neddo examined pole and wheels and fished out the provisio

" I will not stay in this nest of mos-quitoes and files and wait hours for this final catastrophe to unsnarl. I shall march on to Gulf Lake, where there is a beach, noless this last flood has corduroy had sunk quite out of sight, though I could feel it now and then below the black mud which held tenacicusly to each foot by turn and vielded with a long, slow suck, like a smack of may. "I hankered after home; I do it even now, once in a great while," the shad-owy woman went on; "but I ain't goin' to dwell on that. Likely's not they're folksy enough, when you given that were yen and they call are were yen and augh when I tell you the only thing. But what you hain't heerd I'm though a shade they call are the shade they are they are the shade they are the shade they are the shade they are they are the shade they are they are the shade they are they are they are the shade they are they are the shade they are they are they are they are they are the shade they are they are they are they are the shade they are the shade they are th and wheels and fished out the provision-basket, putting the contents on a damp log to dry, patience at last took flight, and like the ancient prophet in one of his very many trials and predicaments. his very many trials and predicaments, "I spake with my tongue; I opened wide my mouth." "I will not stay in this pest of mose bis bank ends of sulf Like, where there is a single drawn in Minnessel at soon for link work, and the water, and there is a soon for link work, and the water and there is a soon for link work and there was it and the sound is soon of the same name. But the will a soon of the same name. But the soon the same of soon farter is the same name of the same name of

How They Used to Travel.

"'Hiram,' I said, 'you take me along ith you.' You never saw a man look eight hours. a final one- a wade rather than a 1 had forgotten the bog and the roy had sunk quite out of sight, y the black mud which held tena-dy to each foot by turn and yielded satisfaction over my tribulations. (" Hiram,' I said, 'you take me along with you.' You never saw a man look more scared, for he thought I was goin' ot o' my mind. But I hadn't noticed a long, slow suck, like a smack of satisfaction over my tribulations. (" Hiram,' I said, 'you take me along with you.' You never saw a man look more scared, for he thought I was goin' ot o' my mind. But I hadn't noticed a long, slow suck, like a smack of satisfaction over my tribulations. (" Hiram,' I said, 'you take me along with you.' You never saw a man look more scared, for he thought I was goin' on to 'my mind. But I hadn't noticed a long, slow suck, like a smack of satisfaction over my tribulations. (" Hiram,' I said, 'you take me along performed the journey in less than forty-in 1763 the number of passengers by the coaches between London and Edin-twenty-five monthly. In 1835 the consumptive folks un into the pineries? daily. (" Hiram,' I said, 'you take me along performed the journey in less than forty-in 1763 the number of passengers by the coaches between London and Edin-twenty-five monthly. In 1835 the had so for taking appeals. the hands of the regular judicial au-thorities for collection, and of course

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Among exceptional food plants Mr. Van Buren mentions an acorn which grows on a small bush from three to our feet high; it has less sugar than isn't æsthetic.

Law Expenses.

Twenty-eight years ago a citizen of New York, who died in that city, left an march on to Gulf Lake, where there is a beach, unless this last flood has about as folksy a place as you'll find. In the sixteenth year of the reign of Charles II., of England, was established tianity. The total indebtedness reported by the Methodist churches in Philadelphia at the conference of 1881 was $542,967. It has since been reduced to perhaps $500,000. There are but ten churches free from debt. Archdeacon Macdonald, an Episcopal missionary in British America, has a field of work on the confines of the Arctic circle extending over about twenty degrees of longitude. About 1,500 natives have been baptized, and more than 100 are communicants. them the for the genes to the matering the large crushed roses and other don-ble flowers without foliage will be nsed. For medium small bonnets the cornet fronts are used; and there are some trequires 288 knife blades, each one of which must have a razor edge. The weft cloth and the blades must be set to a nicety, since the variation of the sixteenth of an inch would make There is a firm in Glasgow, Scotland,

There is a firm in Glasgow, Scotland, Hints on Calling. who manufacture for the royal houses

On leaving, never mistake a silk um-brella for your eotton cne. You may be termed eccentric. of Europe such elaborate designs as the Lord's supper, the weft-weaver, in some cases, using 400 different shuttles. be termed eccentric. Do not wear your muddy gums in the parlor, and wipe them on the carpet. It The Curious Lacquer Ware of Japan. The lacquer ware of Japan and China If you are requested to "call again" is already well 'nown to collectors of suggest that you are willing to take bric-a-brac. The lacquer ware of Burmah is not so well known, and is dis something on account. Do not attract attention by consult- tinguished by an extreme thinness and flexibility. The supreme test of excel-lence in such ware is that the sides can ng your watch. You might be misbe bent in until they touch without breaking the ware or cracking the Do not talk too much of your valuable jewelry. The hostess may think you have too much "brass." These peculiar Eastern wares Never commence a conversation by do not admit of reproduction by West-ern mechanics, owing to the peculiar character of the materials used. It was once thought that the Chinese and referring to the weather. You may be taken for a lightning rod agent. and more in fashion. Æsthetic dress grows more and more Do not ask point blank how much the paintings cost. Just casually in-cies of papier mache, but it is now known Large polka dotted the paintings cost. Just casually in-quire where the lady buys her tea. Large polks dotted Spanish lace neckthat they are made of native woods treated with the juice of the urushi that the scarfs are in high favor. Beware of making free with the dog. Lace will be as popular as

He may be capable of distinguishing tree. between a gentleman and a rogue. A Burman has furnished to an Engtrimming summer t lish paper an interesting explanation of the mysteries of the flexible Burmese Do not carry your lighted cigar into the drawing-room. The odor of cab-bage may be distasteful to the hostess. acquered ware. It seems that the a new-comer in the neighborhood. Just wait until you have made several. On entering, always let your lady pre-cede you. If the family you are visiting keep a bad dog you may find it health-ier to do so. If the baby is handed you to half the total the solution of the seven for masses the seven for masses of creamy white blossoms, with a fra-grant apple odor. These blossoms when cooled in a certain way make an acceptable dish. From the trunk of smooth, polished articles of that sort are really bamboo baskets. In Burthe costliest and most elegant wraps.

er to do so. If the baby is handed you to hold, do not stick pins in the chernb's body. that becomes jet black upon exposure It may be a little sensitive, and you to the air. The finely plaited bamboo articles are coated with may hurt its feelings. Do not open or shut doors or win-dows, or alter the arrangements of the room. When you want to get out, climb through the fan-light. Do not tattle. Do not carry gossip from one family to another. If you have a wife let out the job to her. She will do it more effectually. articles are coated with juice After-ward pastes, composed of the thit see juice and certain wood dusts are laid on. Then follow pastes of the thit-see juice and bore ashes. The surface is smoothed and polished by rub-ing, and a fine gloss is given by the a wife let out the job to her. She will do it more effectually. articles are coated with juice After-ward pastes, composed of the thit see juice and certain wood dusts are laid on the gloss is given by the awife let out the job to her. She will do it more effectually. articles are coated with juice After-ward pastes, composed of the thit see juice and certain wood dusts are laid on the gloss is given by the see of a powdered, petrified wood. Red is almost invariably the ground color, but a contions checker work is

When a lady has called who has re-

A Touching Incident.

green and yellow, applied in vegetable oils. In this way the Burmese make this with her inertia threw the woman heavily upon the floor. The railroads and the Angel Cake in the Window the large crushed roses and other do heavily upon the floor. The railroads are finding out that people have rights and can maintain them too. The German carp, the valuable food fish recently introduced in the United States, is making its way to all parts of it with great rapidity. Mr. Abel Wright, who began with two or three dozens of the carp three years ago, dozens of the carp three years ago, thinks that he now has at least a milis glad they have other Things to eat in the Restaurant Besides Oysters. Yes, they will go in, but he Wishes he had lion in his pond at Griffen, Ga He has sold more than 5,000 at twenty dollars a hundred, and cannot keep up with his orders. He bears out Mr. in peasant fashion, with the bri straight all around.—Harper's Bazar.

thought of a better Lie to tell her.-Elevated Railway Journal. with his orders. He bears out Mr. Seth Green's statement that one can WISE WORDS. almost see the carp grow, so rapidly does it increase in size. Mr. Green adoes it increase in size. Mr. Green asserts that an acre of water can be made as profitable as an acre of land, within persuades him that he is everyand it does not cost much to make the thing.

There are some people who are so quarrelsome that if they had two ideas The Botanical garden at Washington in their head at the same time they bas a curious history. It has grown up with little help from the law. When Most of us somethin Most of us know something about dress color. Buttercup yellow is a fashionable spring color. Bonnets grow larger and the poke shape prevails. American silks and satins are winning tew praise abroad. Flowers on dinner tables grow more the direction of the committee on li-brary the care of the botanical speci adapt herself to the crocked policy and mens was placed under its supervision. Of course the thing grew, till now the truth, like light, travels only in straight Botanic garden is an "institution" li which costs about $15,000 a year and lines.

Beware what you say of others, be Lace will be as popular as ever for rimming summer toilets. Kerchiefs of white, pale tinted, and black creps de chine are much worn. Black remains the choice color for the costliest and most elegant wraps. Black remains the choice color for the costliest and most elegant wraps.

other qualities. It floats between vir-tue and vice. There is scarce any Persons holding policies of life in-surance would do well to examine them for the purpose of ascertaining if any of the fine print prohibit them from bath-ing. "In Cincinnati," says the Detroit Free Press, "a company recently con-tested a death claim on the ground that the deceased came to his end while bathing, and that death was not there-

Felt skirts are very handsome this season, and come in all the new desira-ble shades of color. Bonnets, muffs, pelerines, dress trimmings and fans made of peacock feathers are much favored. Feather bands are considered more elegant than fur ones as trimmings for the peace and the the policy, that she could recover, because the proof to set up a primacy that may not be about the deceased came to his end while with too thin clothing on. Erperience always leads to modesty when wisely used. It never leads to beastful confidence or to self-idolatry. It has been too often rebaked to claim infallibility, and too often humiliated to set up a primacy that may not be challenged

Red is almost invariably the ground color, but a curious checker work is produced by rubbing down the red by rubbing down the but there is no certainty that other There is no kind of achievement you society.