Peace, fluttering heart ! Oh, soul, sit still Why should my trembling frame recoil? My letter comes from Bridget Doyle;

It is -- it is my laundry bill -San Francisco Dulletin

And two shall walk some narrow way of life, Ever so little space to left or right They needs must stand acknowledged face

And yet, with wistful eyes that never meet, With groping hands that never clasp, and lips Calling in vain to ears that never hear. And die unsatisfied: and this is fate

A Romantic Marriage.

She was certainly a lovely girl, such as any man might well be proud of knowing; at least so seemed to think her companion, Cecil Courtney, for he gazed and loved-and loving, gazed

"Cecil," she murmured, "Cecil, it seems strange, nay, almost impossible, that you should love me, poor Grace fardner, a lonely orphan, without friends or fortune, and more than all, your sister's governess."

"To Lady Powis," she replied, promptly, "though I must ask you in this one instance to excuse me from this one instance to excuse me from this cone instance to excuse me from the letter. Lady Powis is

"Yes," she replied, blushing, "until as soon as their honeymoon was ended; you have avowed to Colonel and Mrs. wishing, however, that they would Courtney your preference for my humcome on the morning of the first of Auwill only visit blossoms of primitive Who can tell what might Mrs. Courtney has been kind was to give a grand ball—the last of

"I will do as you wish, love," he relied, fondly, "though I have little hope of success, for you do not know her as well as I do. But if I fail, darling, will you promise to face poverty at once with me and become my bride?

I have a hundred a year—left me by an she.

lilies-of the-valley; but more than that, Scarcely this afternoon," replied Grace, quickly. "It is now too late to reach my friends to-day. To-morrow morning I shall have no objection to fully. "Your conscience must tell you well enough! Here, you have not been in the house two months, and you have Mrs. Courtney's heart had beaten remains. laid your snares so eleverly that you with proud triumph when she received have succeeded in entrapping my only the invitation to the ball, and above all son; and so skillfully and slyly have you to dine en famille with Lady Powis pre-

CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

TERMS: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

VOLUME XV.

un makes yon lovely landscape !"

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1882.

welfare of her son I can cheerfully ex-

"Heaven bless you for saying so, cuse your apparent harshness to me. I darling wife! Nothing on earth could add to the beauty of my beloved's face,

The haughty lady bowed her head, that is already perfect! She blushed in silent happiness, and "You overpower me with your goodfor awhile they watched the glowing scene with a joy too deep for words.

Gertrude kissed her affectionately, and then passing to the colonel, said:
"I see I need not plead here for a Presently he said, playfully: "And whom has my dear wife been Gardiner, a foncity orpinan, without friends or fortune, and more than all, your sister's governess."

"The many face beside her flushed with a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage, my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage, my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage, my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage, my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage, my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage my facing, if may be, but a loving look as he replied."

"Stanage my facing, if may be, but a love more than words can be an adversary of the look of the look and the look of the

The function of yeast is to change starch into sugar and that into alcohol. Muller asserts that certain butterflies tints.

her pretty hands.

"But you must order a ball dress, not know my love," said Cecil; "my pearl must be set in as fine gold as any other at this ball."

It has been estimated that one square foot of soil will evaporate six times as be set in as fine gold as any other at this ball."

It has been estimated that one square foot of soil will evaporate six times as be set in as fine gold as any other at this ball."

It has been estimated that one square foot of soil will evaporate six times as be set in as fine gold as any other at this ball."

"Oh, leave that to me, dear," said Cords stretched in a network near aunt—w ich my parents cannot touch or interfere with. This will keep us she. "Only you must promise me not to fall in love with Lady Gertrude."

"Is she very prefix then?"

followed him to the grave, dying of the there glittered on her neck and arms diamonds and pearls of great value.

"See," she said, approaching him, "these are Lady Powis' bridal gifts—

Several interesting archæological

Several interesting archeological "finds" in Europe are reported. Near "these are Lady Powis' bridal gifts—
"Intolerable—your insolence is intolerable!" exclaimed the lady, walking angrily up and down the room. "I tell you you shall go at once! You do not sleep another night under this roof!"
"May I be allowed to inquire the cause of so sudden and urgent a dismissal?" asked Grace, in the same cause of so sudden and urgent a dismissal?" asked Grace, in the same quiet tone.

"Ask!" said Mrs. Couriney, scornfully. "Your conscience must tell you well enough! Here, you have not been and mother!

"Be gave her his arm and descended to the drawing-room.

Who can picture his bewilderment when, in the two friends who were to dine with them, he saw his own father and mother!

"Roman glasses, mosaics, glass beads, and mother!

Bowing in Holland.

hem, saying:

"Mrs. and Colonel Courtrey, allow where they visit. I often used to amuse learned to respect and love her.

"Myself by watching behind a curtain to Again and again she left them, only

Fate.

Two shall be born the whole wide world apart, And speak in different tongues, and have no thought

Each of the other's being, and no heed.

And these o'er unknown seas to unknown lands

The and larged store, which hole—to judge by the careful manner in which it was made and arranged—had already been the receptacle of similar messages.

And bend each wandering step to this one

The and speak in different tongues, and have no thought and speak in different tongues, and have no the other's being, and no heed.

And these o'er unknown seas to unknown lands

Shall cross, escaping wreck, defying death; Shall eross, escaping wreck, include the shall necessionally, shape every act and bend each wandering step to this one

And bend each wandering step to this one

The man a slorious evening toward the shall eros, and have not to Cecil Courtney in a hole beneath to the drawing-room, to proven the recognition by any who had bend each wandering step to this one

The man a slorious evening toward the shall eros, and have no the total event and accepting the engagement. A well-built Christian.

Fride occurrency of the recognition by any who had a large store, which hole—to judge by the careful manner in which it was mide and arranged—had already been the recognition by any who had seen her in her own character.

The man a slorious evening toward the should never the engagement.

A well-built Christian.

Character is the diamond that scratenes in all his parts. No one trait shames another. He is not a pumble of inconstinct, chower, being and in the west plant the was stiplated that she should never to dear the rived declared her intention of playing the well-built christian.

A well-built Christian.

How far her plan has succeeded is seen by the fact that she is now Mrs. Cecil It was a glorious evening toward the close of July when, in a handsome room in a fashionable hotel of the Lake district, Cecil Courtney sat alone with his beauteous bride. The evening sunset was lighting up lakes, mountains and woods with silent beauty. Grace had been busy writing, but her letter was finished, and as she raised her lovely head she exclaimed:

"Oh, Cecil, how perfectly enchanting this sunset is! My darling, your love is to me what the setting sun is to nature; it fills me with a bright, rosy happiness, which changes my whole being, and makes it as bright as the setting sun makes yon lovely landscape!"

How far her plan has succeeded is seen by the fact that she is now Mrs. Cecil Sunday and break the eighth on Monday. He does not shirk an honest debt to make a huge donation. He is not in favor of temperance for other folks and a glass of toddy for himself. He does not shirk an honest debt to make a huge donation. He is not in favor of temperance for other folks and a glass of toddy for himself. He does not shirk an honest debt to make a huge donation. He is not in favor of temperance for other folks and a glass of toddy for himself. He does not shirk an honest debt to make a huge donation. He is not in favor of temperance for other folks and a glass of toddy for himself. He does not shirk an honest debt to make a huge donation. He is not in favor of temperance for other folks and a glass of toddy for himself. He does not shirk an honest debt to make a huge donation. He is not in favor of temperance for other folks and a glass of toddy for himself. He does not shirk an honest debt to make a huge donation. He is not in favor of temperance for other folks and a glass of toddy for himself. He does not shirk an honest debt to make a huge donation. He is not in favor of temperance for other folks and restricts, curling a glass of toddy for himself.

More than half of all the thats that the shie is now his hit on make have bee ment of the Church of Scotland have been held recently in Aberdeen, Edin-burgh, Glasgow and other cities of Scotland.

The population of Toronto, Canada, numbers 86,445. The churches can accommodate 49,860, and the attendance

The South India Methodist mission conference, embracing 2,040 members, raised last year 107,835 rupees, or about $53,918, which is upward of an average of twenty-six dollars per member. The gain in members was nine-ber. The gain in member of tricks that astonished every one who knew them. The closest call I ever had in my life, however. was with a royal Bengal tiger, which the show-boxes should be gotten ready for use now. Bees should be gotten ready for use nime. After that they were per-bectly tame, and I so attention is being given to the heathen. and there a most misshapen priest, somuch as the emperor scorned and ordemned him. But when he heard and considerate to me during the short time I have been here; perhaps they may not despise my dependent position, and consenting to our union all may be bright and joyous."

"There now!" said Gracie, clapping the scanning of the recommendation of the return of the niece, Lady Gertrude Gordon, from a three months' visit to a cousin in Germany.

"There are several thousand volcances known, and the number of active ones may be set down as 323.

Cast iron is said to be permeable to emperor checked his own proud thought, and made inquiry into the condition and quality of the man; and to hydrogen gas even when cold.

I have a hundred a year—lett of the dark of the particle of the manner of the lat arrived, and the morning of the lat arrived arrived heard of the affray between the cour-tier and the maiden, and of her crime and flight, he was furious, and threatened to hunt her to the very death; but so skillfully had she concealed her indentity as to baffle all his efforts to track her. After a time, as he could find no other suitable artist to complete the paintings which Onorata Rodiana the paintings which Onorata Rodiana had been been as the paintings which Onorata Rodiana had been been as the paintings which Onorata Rodiana had been been as the situation. The little four very old of some li commodate 49,860, and the attendance on a recent Sunday showed 38,706, or a percentage of worshipers of 44 92.

FOR THE FARM AND HOME.

The Philadelphia Baptist association was organized 175 years ago. It has eighty-two churches with a membership of 23,44; 104 Sanday-schools, with 2,016 teachers and 20,431 scholars.

In the first decade of the Methodist Episcopal church there was one minister to every 194 members; in ithe fifth decade the proportion was one to 284; the present proportion is one minister to 147 members, against 142 in the ninth and tenth decade.

Of the 12,142 ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church, 2,808 are not in pastoral work. Upward of 2,000 are superanuates and supernumeraries, 204 are connected with colleges, eighty.

Keep a firm grip on good tenver.

Keep a firm grip on good tenver.

serves us so faithfully as a good character.

Keep a firm grip on good temper, and don't loss your hold unless it pays. Many a man has lost his place and friend, many a lover his sweetheart, many a house is broken up, hearts that loved divided, children scattered and lives wreeked, crimes committed even to the extent of murder, just by losing

There is little if any absolute fertilizing value in coal ashes, but when mixed small, forms in itself a village in the solitude of the pastoral plain which surrounds it.

The administrador took us the rounds of the outbuildings before supper, which is served very late in the Mexical Scale of the Markey and the server of the outbuildings before supper, which is served very late in the Mexical Scale of the Markey and the server of the following by the scar.

Sometimes very young persons send in unsettled times, its corrals, outing value in coal ashes, but when mixed get the animal so tame that I could put my hand on him and rub him over; he surrounds it.

Sulphur yellow, with brown, is a stylish combination for dresses and bonnets.

Sometimes very young persons send me communications, which they want dealy, as you can see by the scar.
[Showing a deep mark on the palm of his hand.] When we want the fiercer the tiger is when captured the fiercer the tiger is when captured the fiercer the tiger is when captured the fiercer the tiger is to train him. I managed to get the animal so tame that I could put
my hand on him and rub him over; he was, however, still very treacherous, and dealy, as you can see by the scar.
[Showing a deep mark on the palm of his hand.] When we want forwarded to editors, and these young can household. We were shown the threshing-floor, a stone-paved amphi-We wers shown the theater over one hundred feet in diam-Onorata Rodiana.

Cetr., very slightly concave, sinking toward a large circular flat stone in the center. It was surrounded by a circle of low stone buildings, tile-roofed and grain. supported on stone pillars.

One at that she at once consented to become one of their number, glad of the chance afforded her to make her self acquainted with the grand mountain scenery and the careless jollity of life in its wilds. She soon showed so for a guest to sit down in any of the much daring and skill that she was chairs, instead of walking through the made an officer in the band and held a room to the sofa. As there were no post of command.

When the "Tyrant of Cremona" sit alone on the long sofa. The enand flight, he was furious, and threat. who had found shelter for the night, oc-had begun, he declared a full pardon for her if she would return to the palace boy whom we had seen on his pony came saleratus, yolks of four eggs and one son; and so skillfully and slyly have you played your part that I had not a suspicion of what was going on until that be witched youth, fascinated with your doll's face, has dared to ask our consent to his marriage with you—you, who may be the daughter of a costermonger for all we know! This comes of taking girls on a lady's recommendation, instead of applying to those who had previously engaged them! I shall take Bowing in Holland.

Everybody bows—nobody nods, and for hat is unknown. You bow to every one you may have met douling on a friend, for callers sword to resume her palette and finish her works. The news of this shyly into the room and is pony came and finish her works. The news of the wild return to the palace a boyly into the room and is pony care and nis pony came and finish her works. The news of this shyly into the room and stording out try, and when Onorate her son entering the room bearing on a friend, for callers sword to resume her palette and finish her works. The news of this shyly into the room and is pony came and is poly cane to did finish her works. The news of the struct to the palace a father's kuee. He was a charding to these will asked in a suit of leather, with a bow to every one you may have met her son entering the room bearing on a friend, for callers sword to resume her palette and finish her works. The news of this shyly into the room and is poly to the room dark of the hat is unknown. You bow to every one you may have met when calling on a friend, for callers sword to resume her palette and finish her works. The news of them is proving to those will be and finish her works. The news of them is pard on was a charding to the hat is unknown. You bow to every one when one father's knee. He was a charden of the hat is unknown. You bow to every one when the father's knee. He was a charden of the hat is unknown. You bow to every one when the works and for all we have to down the short of the hat is unknown. You bow to every one when the works. The news of them start of the palette an of the country" in store for us. At the lower end of the room a company of riously engaged them! I shall take care to let Lady Powis know what kind of a protege she has recommended!"

Mrs. and Colonel Courtney, allow me to present to you one who, until lately, was my dearly loved niece, Lady to the window, it being quite imma-life were divided between her beloved candles clustered on a table; a tribular to the window, it being quite imma-life were divided between her beloved candles clustered on a table; a violoncello, with violing a violoncello,

Farm and Garden Notes. Hens seldom pay expenses after they are three years old.

ther sheep in the flock now until after Orchard grass, though suitable for orchards, can endure more sun and drought than blue grass. The first eggs laid by a pullet or hen after molting may be slightly blood-stained, but it need not give any cause

Fine flowers require thoroughly rotted manure and wood mold mixed, and tomato or other early plants can be grown in boxes, and afterward transplanted with better results with such a mixture.

In the flowers require thoroughly rotted the succeeded in whipping them that if I succeeded in whipping them then that they would be effectually tamed. I backed up against the door, and having a policeman's club in my hand I fought them back. Three mixture. The general effect of lime is to renhighly esteemed by gardeners.

For ordinary work a horse of average size should be fed twelve pounds of oats or other grain food, and fifteen to eighteen pounds of good hay; but, if driven on the road two or three pounds. I was standing by the tiger's driven on the road two or three pounds. driven on the road, two or three pounds of hay, morning and noon, and eight or of these men, half-soldier and halfbrigand in its character, so fascinated Onorata that she at once consented to become one of their number, glad of Decome one of their number, glad of must be the care.

KENTUCKY POTATOES.—Slice the potato thin as for frying, and allow them to remain in cold water for half an sit alone on the long sofa. The ensit alone on the long sofa. The ensity alone that a pint to an ordinary pure about half a pint to an ordinary pure alone that form the size of an egg into small bits.

one lemon, one teaspoonful carbonate

AN ANIMAL TRAINER'S METHODS. The Fiercer the Animal Is the Easter It Is to Train II—An Exciting Eucounter.

A Louisville (Ky.) Court-r-Journat reporter has had an interview with Mr. Willis Gobb, who was exhibiting his troupe of animals in that city. Mr. C.bb, although yet a young man, has probably had more experience with animals than any man in the profession, having handled neary every specie with success, and trained them in a very short period.

"How did you happen to go into the business?" asked the reporter, as he took a seat on a box surrounded by the troupe of dogs.

"It have been in the business about the dear the season of the season of the profession of the season of th Separate all breeding ewes from the

at it, never sleeps. It is holy life, beating march with the heavenly tunes; ainging always the divine psalm of love.

As a man's life, so are his studies. I think it is the most beautiful and humane thing in the world so to mingle gravity with pleasure that the one may not sink into melancholy nor the other rise up into wantonness.

"I have been in the business about twenty-eight years," answered Mr. Cobb, "and first commenced with a black-and-tan dog in my father's store in Cincinnati, I tried to teach the animal several tricks, and by exercising and my warring, and we women are so crowded twenty-eight years," answered Mr. Cobb, "and first commenced with a black-and-tan dog in my father's store in Cincinnati, I tried to teach the animal several tricks, and by exercising and my warring, and we women are so crowded twenty-eight years," answered Mr. Cobb, "and first commenced with a black-and-tan dog in my father's store in Cincinnati, I tried to teach the animal several tricks, and by exercising considerable patience succeeded in tweak to live.

Nearly all kinds of trees do well on a mixture of superphosobata and more than the part of the cares and trials of life are deep and wearing, and we women are so crowded twenty-eight years," answered Mr. Cobb, "and first commenced with a black-and-tan dog in my father's store in Cincinnati, I tried to teach the animal several tricks, and by exercising considerable patience succeeded in the took up several other dogs and they are not tried to even love, un less it is our baties, whose little live animal several tricks, and by exercising considerable patience succeeded in the cares and trials of life are deep and wearing, and we women are so crowded twenty-eight years,"

Nearly all kinds of trees do well on a mixture of superphosobata and many they can be a superphosobate and trials of life are deep and wearing, and we women are so crowded twenty-eight years,"

Nearly all kinds of trees do well on a mixture of superphosobate and tried to teach the commenced with a black-a what leads it is our baties, whose little lives clung so close to our own that they are a part of it; and the songs and kisses they call out of us tend to lighten the daily task, so that the back bends under its burden, instead of breaking.

The loving and happy wife and mother is the handsome and healthy one, usually. As old age overtakes her she still keeps the lovelight in her eye, for it has become habitual to her, and the world is her family. The husband would find his daily cares lightened if he kept the thrill of affection as of old, and if husband did not forget to be the lover still it would be a better and a happier world. Just imagine the charmed life of the new-married couple, and the effect of such love and life upon the home and children perpetually.

Smiles bring dimples and roses to the face. Langhter makes work easy, and puts flesh on the bones, and unselfishten hess adds a charm to the owner that gold cannot buy or thieves rob you of. Our bodies are the houses our souls when he is away from home."

The sassyest man I ever met, "eays Josh Billings, "is a henpecked husband when he is away from home."

It is pleasant to remember that not an hour passes in the increasing march of time that there is not a half dressed man somewhere on the face of the earth calling for a shirt.—Rome Sentinel.

A dellar-store pin young man, A stand-on-the-cornery, Looking-forloon-ery, Tobacco-stained-chin young man.

— Wilde Oscar, in Norristown Herald.

"Does our talk disturb you," said one of a company of talkative ladies to an old gentlemen sitting in a railroad station the other afternoom. "No, ma'am," was the naive reply, "I've been married nigh on to forty years."—Harford Times.

"Why did you send me that almane Angustus?" asked Angelina. "Because, mixture of superphosphate and wood ashes. Lime is not suitable for straw-To make the cunning atless, tame the rude, subdue the haughty, shake the undaunted soul; yes, put a bridle in the lion's mouth and lead him forth as a domestic cur; these are the triumphs of all-powerful beauty.

Like the blackberry, the raspberry bears the fruit upon the cane of the previous year's growth, which, after fruitage, dies, the next cane coming for the next year's crop. berries but excellent around apple, peach and pear trees.

Like the blackberry, the raspberry the raspberry the blackberry the raspberry the r our little ones, then, to build wisely and well—to cultivate purity, cheerfulness, generosity, charity and love? How can we better teach these things than by first setting the glorious example?—Jewell, in Colifernia Agriculturist.

NUMBER 11.

TE LADIES.

Buff tints are revived.

In spring costumes there is a tendencege, the animal being asleep on the inside, and stooped to pick so me the place of kilt plaitings and shirrings young lorgs, but, on the whole, thought it best not to send:

DEAR SIR—You seem to be some mal was, and putting his arm through the bars, caught the animal by the collar. The tiger socked its claws into his shoulder and commenced chewing on the arm, eating it off up to the shoulder. He managed to get away, but died two days afterward. The tiger is now so tame that any one can pat him. The two baby elephants that is now so tame that any one can pat him. The two baby elephants that created so much talk I raised by hand, feeding them out of a bottle. Each of Petticoats are profusely trimmed with hand.

find a dispersion to the work high precipital precipita

Fate. Two shall be born the whole wide world apart And speak in different tongues, and have no

Each of the other's being, and no heed. And these o'er unknown seas to unknown

Shall cross, escaping wreck, defying death; And, all unconsciously, shape every act And bend each wandering step to this one

That one day out of darkness they shall meet And read life's meaning in each other's eyes. And two shall walk some narrow way of life, So nearly side by side that should one turn Ever so little space to left or right They needs must stand acknowledged face to

And yet, with wistful eyes that never meet, With groping hands that never clasp, and lips Calling in vain to ears that never hear, They seek each other all their weary days, And die unsatisfied; and this is fate,

Soon! Let it be soon! Life was not made to long. For distant hours of dim futurity.

Thy presence soothes me like some far-off Oh, where my heart has rested let it lie; Hope is the morning; love the afternoon Let it be soon !

And changes sadly to the chill of night summer reigns forever in thine eyes, And at thy touch grief stealeth out of zight, After sad years of longing love must swoon

Let it be soon! The treasured daylight dies.

-Clement Scott. HUMOR OF THE DAY.

fact, we are too tired to even love, un less it is our baties, whose little lives burglar? Window-pane.

ness adds a charm to the owner that gold cannot buy or thieves rob you of. Our bodies are the houses our souls live in, and whether it be a palace or a hovel, depends on ourselves as builders and occupants. Shall we not teach our little ones, then, to build wisely and well—to cultivate purity, cheerfulness, generosity, charity and love? How can we better teach these things than by first setting the glorious example?—

Harford Times.

"Why did you send me that almanac Augustus?" asked Angelina. "Because, darling," asked Angelina. "Because, darling, a sprout to twist the few downy sprouts upon his upper lip into a curl, "because, darling, I wished you to select a date for our—the, aw—ceremony. "Oh, I see!" she said; then, smiling a bewitching smile, she murnured: "Call it the first of April," Augustus will some day succeed in rais-Augustus will some day succeed in raising a mustache, but he goes to see Angelina no more, -Somerville Journal Buff tints are revived.

New beiges are striped.
Ombre fabrics are out of style.
Chene silks are coming into favor.
Scarf rings are now worn by ladies.
Velvet ribbon is seen on new bonets.
Silk-muslin bows are worn at the throat.

Very little jewelry is worn in the street.
Half-mantles of velvet or moire are worn.
Dark-green bonnets have pale-blue the night-latch when you go away. Ta, ta, dear." And she went out. The Steubenville Herald explains ta, dear." And she went out

Amateur Writers.

Dolly Varden lives again in a new polonaise, a novel neckerchief, and a daintily shaped dancing shoe.

persons do not always seem to have right conceptions of these same editors, and of the public and of themselves. Here is a letter I wrote to one of these young folks, but, on the whole, thought oward a large circular flat stone in the enter. It was surrounded by a circle of low stone buildings, tile-roofed and upported on stone pillars.

Potash for grape vines is being tested in France. A variety of the black must be computed on the black must be cape, my right arm going inside. Quick as a flash the french costumes imported for misses and surroung what noon, and eight of the inside, and stooped to pick so me thing up. In doing so my foot slipped and if fell against the cage, my right and if fell against the cage, my right arm going inside. Quick as a flash the French costumes imported for misses and surroung what surroung was a flash the french costumes imported for misses and little girls.

created so much talk I raised by "hand, feeding them out of a bottle. Each of milk a day, and cry for it like a child. It is remarkable to see with what accuracy animals can distinguish their keeper at a distance. As soon as I was gone. I then the circus knew it, and would rear around in their cage at a terrible rage. Trainers can say what they will about the secrets of training animals, but there is no secret about it but kindness. Any one can train an animal who has the patience and gentlements. The art of training pigeous has created much comment, and I will tell you how the thing first started. In the vear 1874 I was in the little town of Rushville, Ind., and in the hotel where I stopped were a great many rigeons. They used to fix down on my window while I was eating. I soon got on to this, and sprinkled crumbs of bread on the sill. They used to fix down every day and eat as soon as I was gone. I then