CONKING IN WHY AND WHERE-FOR. [Chicago Tribune.] "I see that Mr. Conkling is going to decline the Supreme Judgeship because he thinks his health will not allow him to perform the duties of the office."

A CONTRAST. The following statement of notorious facts we find in the columns of the St. Louis Post Dispatch: "Some twenty years ago Conkling, Blaine, Sherman, Allison, Windom, and Wilson were all Republican members of the House together..."

Garfield and Rosecrans. Was the Former Instrumental in Securing the Latter's Removal? Washington, March 9.—The alleged Garfield letter, written in 1863, but which has just been in the light in New York, and which is said to have caused the removal of General Rosecrans from the command of the Army of the Cumberland, seems likely to infuse for a short time fresh spirits into the controversy which is always overheating here.

Garfield and Rosecrans. Mr. Conkling alone of the six, with the same chances before him, concerned in the same legislation, and more conspicuous and influential than the others, is said to have been the one who went back to the law to earn an honorable livelihood.

Garfield and Rosecrans. The Chinese bill as passed the Senate on 9, provides that after the expiration of ninety days from the passage of this act and until the expiration of twenty years after its passage, the coming of Chinese laborers to the United States shall be suspended...

Garfield and Rosecrans. We have been handed the following letter, written by General Garfield, dated January 1863, which contains views differing so widely from those expressed in his famous Chase letter of 1863 that it is worth reprinting...

Garfield and Rosecrans. I have tried for some time to get hold of the article the New York Tribune alludes to, but have not yet been able to do so.

Garfield and Rosecrans. I have been told the substance by two or three persons who have seen it. I can say in absence of the article itself, that it is a charge, whether it comes from Dana or any other hand, to the effect that I was in any manner untrue to my obligations to my country.

Garfield and Rosecrans. A SINGULAR INDIAN CEREMONY. A brief but singular, and for its length and interest, a very interesting ceremony, was enacted yesterday afternoon in the woods half mile north of the city of Washington.

THE RADS REIP CANAL. The Proprietor Explains His Object—Argument in Favor of a Subsidy. Washington, March 8.—Capt. James B. Rads was asked to-day: "What is the Rads proposition?"

THE RADS REIP CANAL. "The cost of the entire work, including the locks, is estimated at $75,000,000, and it can be completed in four years from the time the work is begun."

THE RADS REIP CANAL. "Where do you propose to raise the money?" "It will depend on the action of the United States Government."

THE RADS REIP CANAL. "Why do you not get the private capital, then?" "Because I am anxious to put this transaction under the control of the United States Government for the benefit of the commerce of the United States."

THE RADS REIP CANAL. "What is the Rads proposition?" "To build a ship canal from a point about twenty-five or thirty miles above the mouth of the Chesapeake river to the Pacific ocean for the transportation of large loaded ships."
