

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

WM. KURTZ, Associate Editor.

Centre Hall, Pa., Mar. 23, 1882.

This week closes our first year of Business

—AT—

SPRING MILLS, PA.

With experience as to what is wanted

A DOUBLE STOCK!

—and—

TWO LARGE STORE ROOMS.

We hope to serve our customers better the coming year. Call and see us.

WHITMER & CO.

March 23, 1882.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Eggs are plenty.

—Sandoz is the boss tailor.

The schools of this place will close

this week.

The Lutheran conference meets at

Bellefonte next week.

—Henry Kreamer, of Millheim, is about to move to Ohio.

—Wm. Stover, near this place, is on the sick list from a cold.

—Fresh herring and mackerel for sale by Dingee's by the piece.

—Prof. Bitter, of Millerville Normal, called upon the Reporter on Monday.

—Three of Center Hill's young men left for Texas on 16 inst. Success to them.

—Mr. Michael Condo, the Constable elect, has been laid up again with a severe cold.

—Tuesday was wet and disagreeable.

Roads are muddy. Wednesday a snow storm.

—Rev. Tomlinson will administer the Lord's Supper at Millheim next

Sabbath forenoon.

—Jacob Loebe, of Madisonburg, was killed at Cresco, a few days ago, by falling from a scaffold.

—Dingee has just received a large lot of fresh fish, which he is offering at remarkably low prices.

—The Lutheran Synodical school

convention will meet at Aaronsburg,

beginning of May.

—Prof. Hesterman will have a large school this summer. He has a large already and expects a great many more.

—The best and freshest mackerel

offered in this country, full weight guaranteed,

are found at Seeliger's grocery.

—John Odenker has leased his farm to John Kline, who has a big sale at the Old Fort on April 4. Read it in another column.

—The ore bank above this place, on the Gregg farm, has been put in operation again. Work was suspended for several months.

—The Marsh furnace, at Northumb-

land, will soon go into operation

again. A party of Danville capitalists will operate it.

—Now is the time to order your clothes from Wm. Sandoe, as he has a fine lot of samples on hand. Give him a trial and you will see the quality of his work. A good fit guaranteed and money will be refunded.

—At the letting for the Moshannon

bridge by the commissioners, the Dayton

Bridge Co. was awarded the contract for

$2,775. The mason work was let to John

Hunkle, brother of the Sheriff, for $1300.

This sum is paid to the contractor.

—PERSONAL.—Our neighbor, Dr. C. K.

Geis, has made a flying visit to Chicago.

Mr. E. Conrad, of Aaronsburg, and we are pleased to say, is recovering from the injury to his nose. Mr. James Mc-

Cormick, near this place, is ill and confined to his room. Michael J. Haines

and his wife, who are in feeble health, have entered the 80s. Ira Lee and Alf

Osman left for the west on Monday.

—An exchange says it ought to be more generally known that wheat flour

is probably the best article to throw

over a fire caused by a gas stove, and to smother the flames. It ought to be known, because flour is always within convenient reach, and it is a very good article of clothing, blankets, etc., are destroyed in extinguishing such fires.

John and sons are equally as good. To this we would add that presence of mind

in such emergencies is most valuable.

—Miss J. B. Fisher, the founder of

Penn Hall, greeted the Reporter's sanction with her ever pleasant countenance

the other day. We believe the Major can boast of what no other merchant in this county can do—has done business

at the same stand for 40 years without interruption, and still retains the confidence of his customers.

—At Dingee's store is where you get the best bargains in all kinds of merchandise. Goods at cost, some below cost—in order to get rid of stock. Call and examine.

—"I wish I were you about two hours,"

she said to her husband with great earnestness. "And why, my dear?" he asked. "Because," she said, "I am not married, and I am not married to a man who is not married to me."

—The Reporter's attention was called to the fact that the Philadelphia & Erie

road that they do not, pay their debts

they must quit the road. This kind of notice we think would be healthy all around.

—On last Saturday evening about 8 o'clock, we experienced an unusual

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

WM. KURTZ, Associate Editor.

Centre Hall, Pa., Mar. 23, 1882.

This week closes our first year of

Business

—AT—

SPRING MILLS, PA.

With experience as to what is wanted

A DOUBLE STOCK!

—and—

TWO LARGE STORE ROOMS.

We hope to serve our customers

better the coming year. Call and see us.

WHITMER & CO.

March 23, 1882.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Eggs are plenty.

—Sandoz is the boss tailor.

The schools of this place will close

this week.

The Lutheran conference meets at

Bellefonte next week.

—Henry Kreamer, of Millheim, is about to move to Ohio.

—Wm. Stover, near this place, is on the sick list from a cold.

—Fresh herring and mackerel for sale by Dingee's by the piece.

—Prof. Bitter, of Millerville Normal,

called upon the Reporter on Monday.

—Three of Center Hill's young men

left for Texas on 16 inst. Success to them.

—Mr. Michael Condo, the Constable elect, has been laid up again with a severe cold.

—Tuesday was wet and disagreeable.

Roads are muddy. Wednesday a snow storm.

—Rev. Tomlinson will administer

the Lord's Supper at Millheim next

Sabbath forenoon.

—Jacob Loebe, of Madisonburg, was

killed at Cresco, a few days ago, by

falling from a scaffold.

—Dingee has just received a large

lot of fresh fish, which he is offering

at remarkably low prices.

—The Lutheran Synodical school

convention will meet at Aaronsburg,

beginning of May.

—Prof. Hesterman will have a large

school this summer. He has a large

already and expects a great many more.

—The best and freshest mackerel

offered in this country, full weight guaranteed,

are found at Seeliger's grocery.

—John Odenker has leased his

farm to John Kline, who has a big sale

at the Old Fort on April 4. Read it in another column.

—The ore bank above this place, on

the Gregg farm, has been put in operation

again. Work was suspended for several months.

—The Marsh furnace, at Northumb-

land, will soon go into operation

again. A party of Danville capitalists

will operate it.

—Now is the time to order your clothes from Wm. Sandoe, as he has a fine lot of samples on hand. Give him

a trial and you will see the quality of his work. A good fit guaranteed and

money will be refunded.

—At the letting for the Moshannon

bridge by the commissioners, the Dayton

Bridge Co. was awarded the contract for

$2,775. The mason work was let to John

Hunkle, brother of the Sheriff, for $1300.

This sum is paid to the contractor.

—PERSONAL.—Our neighbor, Dr. C. K.

Geis, has made a flying visit to Chicago.

Mr. E. Conrad, of Aaronsburg, and

we are pleased to say, is recovering from

the injury to his nose. Mr. James Mc-

Cormick, near this place, is ill and confined to his room. Michael J. Haines

and his wife, who are in feeble health,

have entered the 80s. Ira Lee and Alf

Osman left for the west on Monday.

—An exchange says it ought to be

more generally known that wheat flour

is probably the best article to throw

over a fire caused by a gas stove, and

to smother the flames. It ought to be known, because flour is always within

convenient reach, and it is a very good

article of clothing, blankets, etc., are

destroyed in extinguishing such fires.

John and sons are equally as good. To

this we would add that presence of mind

in such emergencies is most valuable.

—Miss J. B. Fisher, the founder of

Penn Hall, greeted the Reporter's sanction with her ever pleasant countenance

the other day. We believe the Major

can boast of what no other merchant in

this county can do—has done business

at the same stand for 40 years without

interruption, and still retains the confidence of his customers.

—At Dingee's store is where you get the best bargains in all kinds of merchandise. Goods at cost, some below

cost—in order to get rid of stock. Call

and examine.

—"I wish I were you about two hours,"

she said to her husband with great

earnestness. "And why, my dear?" he

asked. "Because," she said, "I am

not married, and I am not married

to a man who is not married to me."

—The Reporter's attention was called to the fact that the Philadelphia & Erie

road that they do not, pay their debts

they must quit the road. This kind of

notice we think would be healthy all

around.

—On last Saturday evening about 8

o'clock, we experienced an unusual

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

WM. KURTZ, Associate Editor.

Centre Hall, Pa., Mar. 23, 1882.

This week closes our first year of

Business

—AT—

SPRING MILLS, PA.

With experience as to what is wanted

A DOUBLE STOCK!

—and—

TWO LARGE STORE ROOMS.

We hope to serve our customers

better the coming year. Call and see us.

WHITMER & CO.

March 23, 1882.