The carpeters of New York City have demanded $5.00 per day, and will strike if it is not allowed.

There were two cabinet changes last week. Kirkwood goes out of the Interior Department, and Senator Teller of Colorado takes his place.

The following mention is made of Reading's new line of railroad, under date of Saturday, Apr. 4.

It has just been officially announced that the new line of railroad to be built by the Philadelphia and Reading railroad company, will pass through Sunbury from West Milton to Shamokin, and not by way of Danville, as at first announced.

The Chinese may come. The anti-Chinese bill vetoed by President Arthur last week, placed the veto on a dilemma. To sign it would call down upon him the displeasure of the cheap labor advocates.

From San Francisco it is telegraphed that the President's action in vetoing the Chinese bill is bitterly criticised. Dispatches are pouring in from all parts of the interior expressing a common feeling of approval and respect for the action of the President.

Here they come—send the news to Arthur and his eastern chum party friends. News comes from Washington that the House of Representatives has passed the bill, and the Senate has followed suit.

Chief Dates of the New York Fire Department, has a very smart horse. A few weeks after the Park Row fire there was an alarm to a down town district.

Some Items About Snakes. "Do you want some fish or snakes?" said an agricultural looking gentleman, the other day.

There comes a telegram from Philadelphia that Senator Mitchell is blowing a little anti-Cameron wind. Better late than never.

In New York the other day a boy was fined $10 for throwing a lighted cigar down the throat of a buffalo in Central Park.

Arthur is already planning for a second term, his appointments being mostly with a view to bringing him delegates in return. He is a shrewd politician and is trying to play his card so as to harmonize his opponents.

SPECTATORS AT A PRIZE FIGHT. It is a criminal offence to look at a prize fight? This is a question that first ruled five judges of the court for the consideration of Crown Cases reserved in England, and now divides the whole bench.

TELEPHONE ACROSS THE CONTINENT. Mr. Chincock, the electrician of the Metropolitan Telephone Company, of New York city, in an interview with the New York Evening Post, said that he had for several years been working on the problem of taking telephone long distances than have been attempted in this country.

Don Cameron was in his seat when the vote on the Chinese bill was taken, and he begged. Valiant host. He will ask a reelection soon. Gen. Beaver should feel ashamed of Don, and decide to have his boon run by him.

AN ANTI-CAMERON BLAST FROM SENATOR MITCHELL. Philadelphia, Apr. 6.—The Press prints a letter from Senator Mitchell to Walter Bates, in which he says that he has not been in the political movement much and too long practiced in Pennsylvania, and suggests a representative Convention with a view of kind of it.

IMPORTANT DECISION. Washington, April 10.—A decision was rendered by the supreme court of the United States today in a case of R. A. Hoagland vs. the City of New York.

RUSSIAN DISORDER. A dispatch from the Daily News from Vienna states that the attack upon the Jews of Southern Russia has commenced. In one city the Jewish synagogues were burnt to the ground.

INCONSTITUTIONS IN AGITATION. The Herald: Once more appropos to the Chinese veto some of the draughty inquiries of the Chinese have been made over by the press.

My husband had drunken habits he could not overcome until Parker's Gin-Tonic took away his thirst for stimulants, restored his old energy of mind and nerves, and gave him strength to attend to business.—Cincinnati Lay.

A Nihilist Murderer. St. Petersburg, April 8.—According to a telegram just received here from Kiev another nihilist has been assassinated by the nihilists.

WARM CAMPS OF SNOW. Rude but Effective Means by Which Hunters Protect Themselves in The Far North

The use of snow for heating purposes, or, more accurately, for keeping out cold, cannot be appreciated at their true value unless one has been in the far north.
