At Bethlehem iron works 200 men have struck for higher wages. These iron masters have been doing a booming business for the last 18 months, but have forgotten to get up a boom for the workmen; they only think of helping them when election day comes around, promising high wages for republican votes.

The fellow who tried to shoot the queen a short time ago, was acquitted on the ground of insanity.

Chairman Hubbell, of the Republican Congressional Committee, has failed to break the dead-lock at Richmond over Manone's three favorite measures. Twenty thousand dollars is said to have been offered to a Virginia legislator as a bribe and refused.

If this bill passes we hold in reserve for the new cabinet position our infatigable farmer friend and Master of the State Grange, Leonard Rhone.

DORSEY
From the New York Press.
Yesterday the United States court, in Washington, issued a bench warrant for the arrest of ex-Senator Dorsey. This must be a pleasing fact for the republicans to contemplate. It was only some fifteen months ago that a dinner was given to this same Dorsey, as a testimonial of the efficient manner in which he had spread the greenbacks over Indiana for the election of Garfield and Arthur. On that occasion republicans of high degree, stalwarts and half-breeds combined, vied with each other to do honor to this king among ballot-bribers. To him they owed the success of their ticket and the renewed opportunity of another four years' feast at the public crib. Why should they not have assembled to do him honor? Why should not Chester A. Arthur and J. Whitelaw Reid have raised the flowing bowl to his valor? Garfield owed his election to his work and that was enough for Reid. Arthur was raised to the vice presidency by his hand, and that was a sufficient pretext. But behind all this there was another tale. Dorsey was commended for the manner in which he had handled the republican sinews of war. Those sinews of war had been obtained from Brady and his colleagues, who now, with Dorsey, are indicted as conspirators and public plunderers. Under these circumstances it must be a pleasant reflection for Chester A. Arthur to remember that he extolled Dorsey as the man who accomplished his election, and that the money which Dorsey spent came from the people through the reguery of Brady and others of the gang. This is not the first republican who has been elected president by stolen public funds, but it is the first time that the proof has been brought home to the doors of the White House.

My husband had drunken habits he could not overcome until Parker's Gin ger Tonic took away his thirst for stimulants, restored his old energy of mind and nerves, and gave him strength to attend to business.—Cincinnati Lady.

Peruna in itself is a great physician.

are perfectly willing to concede that liberal compensation should be allowed the physicians and surgeons, a compensation in excess even of what it was possible for any of the medical attendants to have earned in ordinary practice during the time, but the sums recommended to be paid by the majority of the committee are excessive. We are of opinion there was no extraordinary medical skill exhibited in the treatment of the case, and nothing calling for extraordinary allowance for professional services. But while willing to be liberal we cannot consent to the manner of payment recommended, not to the extravagance and wanton lavishness of public funds.

We also respectfully protest against that part of the report of the majority which recommends the promotion of Surgeon General Barnes to a Major General's rank and retirement thereunder, and for the recommendation for the promotion of Dr. Woodward from Major to Lieutenant Colonel, with the rank and pay of the latter office. This committee has no jurisdiction to make any recommendations with regard to the military establishment. We were willing that the Government should assume to pay such sums for professional services as might lawfully be received from the late President, and were desirous of treating such claims as claims against the estate of deceased rather than as properly cognizable by congress. We were willing, therefore, to appropriate to the estate such portion of unearned salary of the late President as would cover all such claims, but cannot agree that excessive sums shall be appropriated for professional services. We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That at the report of the majority of the committee, together with the bill accompanying said report, be recommended, with instructions to the committee to require all persons having claims cognizable by said committee to present accounts thereof, and to require claimants in all cases to furnish proof as to the value of the services rendered or materials furnished, and in case of allowances for professional services as physicians or surgeons, to make such allowances only as would be properly chargeable to and provable against the estate of the late President, and to provide in the bill when again reported such further appropriation of unearned salary as would cover the amounts audited for such professional services.

SENATOR MITCHELL GOES TO THE INDEPENDENTS
The war on Cameron and bossism goes on, and as it gains in strength so do the chances of Beaver for an election dwindle. On Saturday the following was telegraphed from Philadelphia:—Senator Mitchell's alliance with the anti-Cameron republicans is thought to have been completed to-day, when he met twenty-four out-and-out republicans at a conference that lasted four hours. Wolfe, the leader of last year's revolt; Representative McKee, chairman of the independent committee; F. B. Beveves and many other members of the Philadelphia committee of one hundred were active participants. The burden of the talk, which at times was marked by vehemence, was that unless the republicans cease to uphold the spoils system all the thinking republicans in the state will desert it. The civil service spokesman was Henry C. Lee, but all the speeches were against any compromise with Cameron. The capture of Mitchell has been a bitter in his hatred of Cameron and itching to hit him a blow. Though Mitchell railed at spoilsmen and affected to hope for peaceful adjustment of faction troubles, his appointment of a full-fledged independent committee is generally believed to indicate his surrender to those whom he met to-day. Democrats are satisfied that by to-day's work the breach between the factions is widened.

THE FORD BOYS SURPRISED.
St. Louis, Mo., April 18, 1882.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from St. Joseph says:—"The messenger with the Governor's pardon for the Ford boys has not yet arrived as they are still in jail. To day the Sheriff of Bay county served warrants on Robert and Charles Ford for complicity in the murder of Wood Hite, one of the James gang, in Ray county. The Ford boys are disconcerted at the turn of affairs.

of the principal business houses and dwellings. Two large business blocks of two-story brick buildings in the northern part of town are torn completely to atoms and the debris scattered in every direction.

Besides those reported killed last night James Jackson had his back broken and died, C. M. Kelly leg broken; Perry Wilson, leg broken; Dick Hickman, W. H. Steers and Schoellin Chapman, severely bruised. Brownville is the oldest town in Saline county, and is situated on the Missouri Pacific Railroad, twenty-two miles from Sedalia, and not far from Sweet Springs.

The total number of persons killed or injured feet up over 150. The City Hotel block is a complete wreck, nothing being left but a pile of bricks, mortar and debris. The body of a farmer named Matt Williams was taken from the ruins at halfpast one. His head was mashed to a pulp.

At Montrose Henrie county, Mo., last night the storm entirely demolished the Baptist and Christian Churches, and did more or less damage to twenty other buildings. The Farmer's Institute school building was struck by the cyclone. The wind carried the structure entirely away, straggling the debris over the prairie for miles. Children in some instances were carried a long distance and a number of them seriously hurt. The damage will be nearly $20,000.

STABS HIS WIFE NINETEEN TIMES
A horrible murder—the result of intemperance—was committed at an early hour yesterday morning at No. 406 East Tenth street. The victim was Mary Lennon, thirty-six years old, and the murderer her husband John, thirty-five years old, a tailor by trade. Policeman Calvin, of the Houston Street Squad, forced an entrance to the house upon hearing the woman's screams. The woman was conscious, although her body was shockingly mutilated. An ambulance was called and she was removed to Bellevue Hospital, where she died at 10 o'clock. Coroner Brady took her ante-mortem statement. She said that she had been married twelve years ago and lived happily with her husband until 1877, when he began to drink heavily. He was in the habit of beating her and frequently threatened to kill her. At 8 o'clock Monday night he returned home after having been absent since Friday. He was under the influence of liquor and in bad humor. She prepared supper for him and after the usual time to sleep on a lounge. She did not care to disturb him, and about midnight she went to bed. Shortly after 2 o'clock she was awakened by a noise in the kitchen. She got up and found her husband at the hydrant drawing water. She asked him to make less noise, but he turned savagely and told her to mind her own business. She threatened to call the landlord. This further infuriated him. He opened a large clasp-knife and brandishing it aloft said he had often threatened to hack her to pieces and he would do it now. Mrs. Lennon fled into the adjoining room, followed by her husband, who seized her by the throat and plunged the knife into her abdomen repeatedly until the entrails protruded. During his struggle she was cut in the back, on the loins and thighs, and finally the knife was drawn across the back of her neck, causing a wound three inches in length. Lennon was still hacking at his wife when the policeman entered. The knife was taken from him after a furious struggle. He seemed perfectly indifferent, and when asked his reason for the murderous assault said, with brutal coolness, that he had promised to cut his wife to pieces and had simply kept his promise. At the hospital the woman was put under the care of Dr. Bull, who did all in his power to save her life. But it was a hopeless case, as any one of the wounds in the back, abdomen or neck would have caused death. Dr. Bull said that she had altogether nineteen wounds—eight in the abdomen, four in the back, two on the neck and the rest on her arms and thighs.
