boss than now, and will know how to make the rebellious stand up to the work.

This week, 10, there is to be the bosses pow-wow at Harrisburg to nominate a candidate. Cameron had the ticket fixed long ago, Beaver will be the nominee on first ballot. The convention simput under Cameron's burss. It remains to be seen what the independents are the grist to be ground has already been going to do about it, as they have all along declared they would not suppor Beaver because he is the creature Cameron and the machine.

Bob Ingersoll does not believe in a ho place on the other side of life, but he will get hot sometimes over here. He is counsel or the star-route thieves, and trying his best to clear these radical plunderers. In court, the other day, the following took place:

During the afternoon Mr. Bliss referred to Mr. Ingersol's promise to produc John W. Dorsey in court and charges that his failure was a mere measure of At this point Mr. Ingersoll sprang delay At this point Mr. Ingersol sprang to his feet and bringing his fist down upon the table exclaimed: "You are a liar sir. a liar." Considerable excitement followed, and Judge Wylie said: "Such language is intolerable and I will not endure it. Perhaps Colonel ingersoli has gone beyond the measure of retaliation, but the offense of Mr. Blies is income. cusable. I will allow this offense to pass upon this occasion but warn all the gen tlemen to avoid a repetition." Mr. Mer-rick then enered into a long explanation of the circumstances of the argument be-tween the coursel as to Dorsey's appear-ance and claimed that the statement of Col. Buss was correct.

Col. Buss was correct.

Ingersoll in answer to an inquiry from the court said he did not deny the facts.
He did deny that he had been guilty of a trick. He had acted with perfect good faith, under conviction that he would be able to produce Dessey. He was able to produce Dorsey. He supposed, free. when he made the arrangement, that he had the power to produce Dorsey and wanted to say now that he could not. Bliss then followed with a personal explanation, which the court interrupted to say that they had better get to work. I Upon the request of Merrick an extension of the hearing mill May 16th were resulted. of the hearing until May 16th was granted.

ANOTHER RESPECTABLE PAPER ON MISREPRESENTATION.

"With the consent of Mr. Wallace, why would not ex-Senator Randall make a leapital Democratic candidate for Governor? None could fill the position with more grace and ability."—Altoona Sunday Morning.

To this a very respectable, democratic organ, the Clearfield Republicau makes the following reply:

We clip the foregoing mean fling at the ex-Senator from the Belletonte Watchman If either of the editors in question are seeking correct information on this question (which evidently troubles them) why did they not address a letter to Mr. Wallace, and learn his views in a business way? Cameron's circus met at Harrisburg on Wednesday, and Gen. Beaver is Don's Jambo.

Below is the agreement signed by the Wolfe and the Cameron committees. It will be seen that the resolutions contain nothing that Cameron would not have been willing to subscribe to at any time hereafter. The "principles" are all right, but the trouble is Cameron does not care about principles and meth use since Cameron was all right.

Dan Hastings went down a day or so abead of the crowd as Beaver's right-hand men. Daniel might be Beaver's See'y of State, if Harrisburg were big enough to hold him. Still for all that matter, Cameron might have an appropriation granted to enlarge the boundaries of the state capital. Hastings would make a tip-top premier.
