Hon. C. R. Buckalew is recommended for the democratic nomination for governor. He is one of the noble men of our state, and if nominated, we would like him and Beaver to travel the state together and talk from the same stand. Buckalew's superiority over Beaver would be so apparent to the people that the latter would come out with a very small vote. A charge of dynamite was also exploded under Caldwell's drug store, but did little damage beyond the breaking of windows. A bitter war is also being carried on against the saloon men in Cedarville. A short time ago all the saloons and billiard rooms in the town were closed. The explosions shook the whole town. They are all thought to be the work of the anti-saloon party.

GEN. EEAV-R.

Again our county has a nominee for governor, but we are inclined to think that the next governor will not be from our county. Not because it is Gen. Beaver, but for the reason that the man was put upon the ticket simply because Don Cameron commanded it so and the people in general and the better protions of the town of the anti-saloon party.
