IRELAND'S $50,000 REWARD. London, May 9 -- The Government will offer a reward of £10,000 for information given within three months which will end to the conviction of Lord Cavendish and Under-Secretary Burke, and a reward of £1,000 for private information. The Government will also offer a free pardon and extend a special protection of the Crown in any part of the Queen's domin-ions to any person, other than the princi-oals in the crime, who may give any in-tormation required. The follwing additional information with regard to the assassination has come to light :--Two bicyclists, fitters in the employment of a railroad company, stated that they passed the spot where the mur-ders were committed. They saw the as-assins strike their victime, and heard Lord Frederick Cavendish ery out, "Ah1, you villani" to his assailant, who then stabbed him again.
