Uncle Sam's letter-carriers are a hard-working set of men, and are liable to con-tract rheumatism because of the constant exposure to which they are subjected. Calling at the postoffice the reporter had a pleasant conversation with Mr. J. H Mattern, one of the most popular and clever letter-carriers in Indianapolis Mr Mattern said that, while in the army de the civil war, he sprained one of his ankles, which was always worse in the spring, durwhich was always worse in the spring, during the period of the rapid changes in the weather. He did not find much relief from the several remedies he spplied But two years ago he hit upon St. Jacobs Oil, and experienced wonderful relief from its use. Several applications of the Great German Remedy relieved him entirely. The reporter talked with others among the letter-carriers and found that the Great German Remedy was popular in the postoffice. They use it for sore feet, rheumatism, etc., and praise it highly.—Indianapolis (Ind.) News. Nebraska has 129 Presbyterian
