The Czar, desirous to appease the peo ple, has decided to grant reforms. Two commissions will be instituted to consider the question of central institution and the share in the administration to be given to the people. There is a commis sion already sitting under the presidency of General Kachanoff, to examine loca institutions. General Loris Melikoff i placed as supreme head of all three com missions. A manifesto will shortly b issued stating that the Czar desires celebrate his coronation by granting reforms, but that he is compelled to postpone the ceremony for a year because of the impossibility of completing prepara tions earlier.

It looks as though there "was to be stagnation in business this summer Strikes are threatening in all quarter and thousands of working men are a ready idle at Pittsburg and other manu facturing centres, and the tramp is t make his appearance again plenty as flies. This is a gloomy outlook, and it is to be hoped that the worst fears will not be realized; it is too soon upon the late experiences of a similar kind.
