He (Bunn) informed me, among other things that Mr. Cameron had declared that the success of the regular Republicant taket rested with the great agricultural mining and commercial interests of the State; he (Cameron) had fought for a protective tariff in the Senate as his father had done in other days, but if those whead heretofore supported the Republicant ticket wanted to stab him, he was ready

A Connecticut liquor law began with these words: "Every person who shall sell liquor to a minor." This law was repealed, and a new one enacted beginning with the words, "Every licensed person who shall sell liquor to a minor," The result is that the barkeepers can sell liquor with impunity, because they sre not licensed, while the proprietors of saloous escape punishment by denying that they were aware of such sales by their employees to persons under age. It is suggested that the word "licensed" was inserted to render the new law inoperative. While she lived she was example,

The Nation,

Since its consolidation with the New York Evening Post, has increased its facilities in every department, enlarged its size to twenty-four pages, and added many able writers to its previous list. It is now pronounced by many of its readers to be better than ever before.

Established in 1865, the Nation was a pioneer in this country as a weekly jour-nal of literary and political criticism of the highest order, conducted free from the control of party or interest of any sort. Despite a precarious support during the first few years, it held persistently to its original aim until its financial suc cess was assured. Meanwhile it had be come a recognized authority at home an abroad, its editorial management has been unchanged from the first, and its projectors intend that, with their present facilities, the Nation shall become more than ever before the medium of the ables thought of the time.

The form and style of the paper ar chosen with a view to the most suitable shape for binding, and a set of the Nation preserved, bound, and indexed, makes the most complete and readable record of current events of importance in the police cal and literary world available for the American public. FROM CENTRE HALL.

This is a new house and newly furnished with everything tending to comfort and convenience of guests. The air is invigorating and perfectly free from malaria, and particularly favorable for the restoration to health of persons afflicted with pulmonary complaints, Malarial disorders and Hay Fover. The beauty of natural surrounding, the grandeur of scenery and the perfect purity of the air and water makes it one of the most delightful spots for health, rest and recreation. The soil is gravelly and the drainage perfect; the water pure, soft and cold from living springs. We call the attention of these desiring the comforts of a superior home to our new house, with its airy chambers for the invalid, and inxury for those seeking rest or pleasure. Plenty-of game, good gunning and fishing in season—a winter and summer retrent and now open for tourists and families for season or year. In the midst of a natural park of evergreen and forest trees, interspersed with grassy spots, wild flowers, moss-covered rocks, with pleasant walks extending in every direction. The drives are delightful and exceedingly varied, over good roads along the water sides of the mountains, and on the top there are rare and grand views. Near by the celebrated Penn Cayes, surpassing anything of the kind known—sailing miles under ground—and inspecting halls of great wonder of gone by gres. Carriages to the cave daily. The table is plentifully supplied with mests, milk and fresh vegetables and fruits in season, healthfully prepared and tastefully served. Good stabling accommodations.
