HE STOOD THE TEST.

"Who ever heard of such a beastly a shilling of Uncle Harvey's money. I Stephen. You know that. If it makes don't propose to be victimized merely for the gratification of an old man's of it, but—I love Lulu Welwyn with for the gratification of an old man's of it, but—I whim, and it's nothing but a whim you all my heart!" know very well—some cranky notion he's got out of his everlasting novels.

"Steady, myboy," his Cousin Stephen observed, with a quiet twinkle in his eye, "Perhaps you wouldn't consider of the cousing stephen observed, with a quiet twinkle in his eye, "Perhaps you wouldn't consider of the cousing stephen of the cousing s observed, with a quiet twinkle in his eye. "Perhaps you wouldn't consider yourself victimized if you were to see Miss Lulu. By Jove, Val, a fellow might be proud of such a wife."

"Not if he had been coerced into marrying her," was Val's hot-headed rejoinder. "That is one thing in which I will not brook interference. I shall will not brook interference.

"Exactly," replied Val, with scornful indifference. "When you go back to town you can tell him so."

"Exactly," replied Val, with scornful he could not win her for Stephen. She met him in the library, but with her old cordiality.

"No," Val answered, without hesita-"No," Val answered, without hesita-"Lulu flushed slightly, but gave a dig-no doubt Uncle Harvey would be all your perfect men. I never did."

"Stephen does not profess to be anything of the kind," he said, hastily, you know; but you, my dear Stephen,

"You know yourself that he is the soul

"Nonsense!" Val answered, enthusi-astically. "Fil help you. Nothing "Your cousin ha en shook his head. 'That's one of the things in which boy." he observed. That's what inexperience says," Val rejoined. "Fil prove the contrary.

Just let me see Miss Lulu. I'll make you the burden of my praises. I'll paint you as a little god on wheels. I'll extol you to the skies, till you present yourself to her mind as a hero of "Upon my soul, Miss Welwyn," Val ourself to her mind as a hero of mance. Young girls are very susceptible to that sort of thing, Stephen said, eagerly, "Stephen would not have lent himself to such a scheme if npaign at once."

She won't have me, Val," Stephen other reassuring arguments which won and he cried: over.
f I really thought she would marry one of the prettiest girls he had ever gular exactions. I appreciate the seen. Val was a connoisseur in beauty, honor his preference does me; but I am sorry he couldn't come."

"He hopes to get away after awhile," Val replied. "At present he is so enangled in engagements that he hasn't a passioned face.
"You do me'a great wrong," he said, am sorry he couldn't come.

gable, though I know there isn't an-own.

It was quite delightful, indeed, to ramble through Welwyn Woods with such a companion, for he felt so much at ease in her society, having already set er apart in his mind as Stephen's wife.

And there was a peculiar charm in the long afterways on the lake when he spoke. In a few moments he had written ing reviews of his wit.

Miss Lulu lirtened apparently in wide-eyed wonder, and Val wrote at la t for Stephen to come down to Redner.
Of course it was understood that after that he was to leave his cousin in full possession of the field, but somehow he was not at all pleased when Ste-phen made the very reasonable sug-gestion that he should go away from Woods altogether. In short, he went back to town in a very unamia-

Everything was exceedingly dull just then, and Val was like a fish out of water. There was nothing to do but "sit around," as he said, and when"sit around," as he said, and when"the mode teek to do that he fell to ever he undertook to do that he fell to ever he undertook to do that made him until that shone. "I will give up anything for you, my "I will give up anything f

Confound you, Val ?" he exclaimed. "I knew you'd get me into difficulty!" What's the matter?"

"Why, I followed your advice to the letter, and what was the conse-"You're engaged to Miss Lulu, 1 suppose?"
"Engaged? The deuce! She refused me on the spot. And—and some confounded meddlesome old busybody has gone and told her about Uncle

"Thank God !" This fervent exclamation rather staggered Stephen, you may suppose. He started at Val's white earnest face, as though it had been a phantom.

Harvey. I haven't the ghost of a "Well," he said, slowly, "I—must—say—you're a fine fellow!"

Val had jumped up hastily. He went toward his cousin, and laid one hand avily on his shoulder.
"I say, old fellow," he said in a provision?" Valentine Thompson was husky voice, "you're not hard hit—are saying, savagely ." I tell you, Stephen, I won't marry the girl if I never inherit wouldn't for the world go back on you,

I will not brook interference. I shall marry whom I choose. I may as well say so first as last."

Stephen whistled softly to himself for a few moments, and then said:

"You absolutely refuse compliance—is that what I am to understand? Rather than marry Uncle Harvey's protege, you will forfeit your prospective inheritance, eh?"

Exceptly, "replied Val, with scornful."

"It's all right, Val," he said cordially, "She wouldn't have me, any how. It don't make so much difference to a man of my age. God bless you, boy! Go and win her."

Val needed no second bidding. He was back at Welwyn Woods in two days' time. But he was bent upon a new purpose. He would win Lulu for himself—yes! But only on condition that She met him in the library, but not

"Don't be too hasty, my boy," Stephen remarked. "Hadn't you better see Miss Lulu before you make up your mind?"

"In have a singular errand, Miss Welwyn," he said, hurriedly, striving to conceal his emotion. "My cousin tells me you have refused his offer of "No," Val answered, without hesitation. "The conditions attending such a marriage would make it disagreeable under any circumstances. But I say, Stephen, you seem to have been quite struck with Miss Welwyn; why don't you marry her yourself?"

"May I ask," he went on earnestly, "whether you have fully considered your decision? My cousin is a man that any woman might be proud to win that any woman might be proud to win the say of the land. struck with Miss Welwyn; why don't your decision? My cousin is a main that any woman might be proud to win that any woman might be proud to win the moved uneasily in his chair.

"Oh, I'm a confirmed bachelor, Val," he said, with an awkward laugh."" You know I am not a marrying man."

"That is no reason why you shouldn't become one," Val said, stoutly, quite carried away by this new fidea. "You could bear her off in triumph, and I've no doubt Uncle Harvey would be all vour perfect men. I never did."

are a man of responsibility."

"Thanks; no, Val!" Stephen said, in his dry, humorous way. "You know I know he is, from leng acquaintance with his character. From my heart I honor him, Miss Welwyn, and, as your and I'd sooner be shot than court one!" best friend, might urge you to regard

"Your cousin has an ardent cham pion, Mr. Thorne," she said, with the same frigid calmness; "but it is quite "That's one of the things in which here can be no co-operation, my dear first place I do not love him; and, in the second, I would not marry any man who sought me as his wife only as a Just say the word, and I'll open the he had not cared for you. Nothing could have induced him."

Then, seeing the scornful smile that said, but he was obviously wavering, and his cousin came down with several leaped beyond all barriers of restraint, "You would not make that tell

"If I really thoughtshe would marry me," he said at last. "I might ask her. But I swear, Val, Fd sooner walk up to a cannon's mouth than have a woman say 'No' to me."

"Follow my advice," Val answered, confidently. "Tm an old stager, Stephen. For the present, just you go back to town, and tell Uncle Harvey that you have concluded to take the contract off my hands. By Jove! You're a brick, Stephen. You'll save me from penury, my dear fellow, for I swear I wouldn't marry Miss Welwynunder any consideration, though he threatened to disinherit me if I would not marry you. I refused; but Stephen had seen you. He knew you as I did not, and he offered to take my place. Then I came here, and without intending it, I learned to love—to worship you. For Heaven's sake, believe me! What do I care for the money? It is you I want! I you will not marry Stephen, will you marry me? My happiness depends upon it, for I love you with my whole soul."

She trembled from head to foot, but "You will go down to Redner right ray then?" Stephen inquired, when ey were parting.

"I am sorry, Mr. Thorne, but I can-they were parting.

"To-morrow," Val replied, and he kept his word.

The next day at noon he found himself in the little library at Welwyn Woods, chatting with his hostess and one of the prettiest girls he had ever gular exactions. I appreciate the must decline it. There is no necessity, "Your uncle told us," Mrs. Welwyn observed, cordially, "that your Cousin Stephen might be down with you. I moment's leisure. I never saw such vitality as his. He is perfectly indefatigable, though I know there isn't an am loved in the whole wide world. I swear it! You must believe me, for ther man in town so much sought this is God's truth. Tell me—is there after."

"It seems strange," Mrs. Welwyn remarked, "that he should never have married."

"He is not easily charmed," Val said, with a laugh and a suggestive look at Miss Lulu. "The woman who wins him will have a great triumph."

this is God's truth. Tell me—is there any way?—there must be a way in which I can prove it to you."

She paused a moment. There was something in his voice and manner which thrust conviction upon her, and her whole attitude changed. She turned toward him with sudden im—strosity.

Miss Lulu. "The woman who who will have a great triumph."

These were the entering wedges, Val said to himself, and he deliberately laid in ambush for occasions to drive them deeper in.

It was not a disagreeable task, he lowed for Miss Lulu was a charming to renounce your uncle's fortune for my sake."

"I will do it gladly," he answered, willing they hand and covering it with

It was not a disagreeable task, he found, for Miss Lulu was a charming listener; and there was something so novel in it that it was more diverting even than flirtation. He did a great many things on Stephen's account which he wouldn't have dared to do on his own.

"I will do it gladly," he answered, sizing her hand and covering it with kisses. "My darling, my sweet little darling!"

"But are you willing, Mr. Thorne," she asked, in a voice that trembled in spite of her efforts to control it, "are own.

And there was a peculiar charm in the long afternoons on the lake, when he looked so persistently at the fair face under a broad Legborn, and reflected that this was to be his cousin.

So the days went liding by, and Miss Lulu was courted, as Val said, "by proxy." He had kept his promise to Stephen, pouring into her earsthe most glowing accounts of his merits, the most piquant recital of his doings, the most winning reviews of his wit.

Spoke. In a few moment's he had written and signed this:

"I, Valentine Thorne, do hereby formally renounce all claim upon the estate, real or personal, of my uncle, Harry Thorne, and do make over, unconditionally, to my cousin, Stephen R. Thorne, any bequest or inheritance (hat may be drue to me upon the death of the aforeacid uncle. This act to go in force upon the day of my marriage with Miss Lulu Welwyn.

Lulu Welwyn.

"(Signed) VALENTINE THORNE."

He put this into her hands, saying:

"This will leave me nothing but my love to give you."

"It is quite enough," she said, softly. "It is quite enough," she said, softly.

"Go and procure a witness," he said;
"I want it perfectly legal."
She turned and went toward the door, but she paused on the threshold.
The next instant, before he knew it, she had torn the paper in pieces and thrown it at her feet.

that shone.

"I will give up anything for you, my some time before he knew what was the matter with him, and when he did he continued to oppose the conviction. It was too—too—too much like retribution that he should have fallen in love with Miss Lulu."

He went about in a very miserable frame of mind, though, haggard and petulant, cursing everything and everybody, but Fate and himself most of all. It had rather a startling effect upon him when Stephen burst into his room one day in a very ruffied state,

SUNDAY READING.

A Beptlat General Conference. The leading arrangements for a general Baptist conference or congress, to discuss social and moral topics in connection with church work, have been completed, and the gathering will be held in Brooklyn, on November 14, 15 seventeen the year before. The department of the departmen held in Brooklyn, on November 14, 15 seventeen the year before. The de and 16. This will be the first gathering ment of public instruction cons and 16. This will be the first gamering of the kind by that denomination in this country. It will follow the plan of the congresses held by the Protestant Episcopal church. It will bring together the most eminent divines in the Baptist church. Similar congresses Baptist church. Similar congresses did um of education in thrift. Baptist church. Similar congresses have been held by the Baptists in England for a number of years in each au-tumn, and have been especially devoted to the numerous religious topics which lie outside of the purely denominational themes which are usually discussed at to the numerous religious topics which lie can be used for irrigation, and the other are studied efficiently denominational little overdone. There are 870 can also in that country, measuring in the aggregate 8,400 miles. Of these 113 are used for navigation purposes as well as similar here has been under consideration. similar here has been under considera-tion for some months in various parts the country, till at a recent ascemplage of representative ministers of the denomination from the leading cities, it was decided to hold the first meeting in was decided to hold a central situ-Brooklyn, that being a central situ-ation with many strong and influential Baptist churches. It is expected that his will be the largest and most representative gathering of the Baptists in the United States ever held. The place of meeting will be the First Baptist church at Clinton and Pierrepont streets, which Rev. Dr. J. B. Thomas is of which Rev. Dr. J. B. Inchmas is pastor. This church has one of the finest and largest auditoriums in the city, where the greatest possible number can hear and see in the best manner. The best manner and India. With regard, however, to the control of the cont Among the topics already determined upon are the following: "Race and "Race and igion on the American Continent; The Economies of Missionary Effort;

The Church and the Children; Skeptical Drifts in Modern Thought; "Diversity of Opinions within the Limits of Denominational Unity;"
"Taxation of Church Property;"
"Modern Evangelism." Under the general title of Christianity and the "there are two divisions," one the Labor Question," the other, "Chari-ies." The consideration of so wide a range of topics bearing almost exclurange of topics bearing almost excell-sively upon the problems of daily life cannot fail to arouse a wide interest, and add largely to the sum of religious gaining ground in Switzerland. It is estimated that 41,000,000 of the tion, present population of India are Moham-medans.

knowledge in general.

at Calcutta during Christmas week. Walter C. Jones, a munificent Englishman, has recently given $360,-000 for missions in China and Japan.

and gold, of which to make, a communion service for the Church of the Holy Communion in St. Louis, twelve and a half pounds of silver and an ounce of gold were given, from which a paten, flagon, two chalices and large oaten, flagon, two chalices and large alms basin were made. In one immense tenement house in mington, Del., a splendid iron steam-Berlin resides 1,258 persons, and a religious census of the house shows that 1,073 of the tenants belong to the Evangelic Lutheran church, 132 to the Roman Catholic church and the Roman

FACTS AND COMMENTS.

The number of schools in France where the system of a savings bank had been adopted was 16 494 at the close of last year, against 14,372 at the beginseventeen the year before. The depart

At first glance it would appear that the canal business in Egypt has been a for irrigation alone. Of the fifty navigable canals below Cairo the most important is the one extending from the Nile near Cairo to Zagazig. This is fifty-five miles in length, and is navigable for vessels of 400 tens burden. The fresh water canal from Zagazig to Ismailia is fed mainly by this canal.

countries of the world. Of these, 480,000 are employed in Great Britain. and India. With regard, however, to the annual value of cotton goods pro-duced the United States comes second, with about half the value of Great Britain, and Germany and Russia follow, the joint product not being quite equal to that of the United States. Rabbits are playing hob with New Zealand. They commence breeding at the age of three months, and produce twelve large families a year. This prolific increase has overrun the counprolific increase has overrun the country with the pests introduced by patriotic Englishmen and Scotchmen, and millions of dollars' worth of property are being destroyed annually. Crops are feasted upon, streams are obstructed, and in some places the devastation has been so great that farmers have been driven from their farms. From 50,000,000 to 60,000,000 of the frisky inno-Harrison, the "boy preacher," is cents are killed every year, but with their reproductive capacity the living their reproductive capacity the living rabbits do not mind a little thing like that, which only amounts to a decima-

When an individual starves to death A conference of the Protestant mis-in a civilized city his fate is probably al-onary societies in India will be held t Calcutta during Christmas week. must have been the case with William Ellis, a sculptor, who lately died in Sheffield, England. Some years ago Englishman, has recently given $360, 000 for missions in China and Japan.

"I swear it upon my honor and conscience," is the form of the legal oath in France, now that the name of God has been stricken from it by a vote of $38 to 108 in the chambers.

Enils, a sculptor, who lately died in Sheffield, England. Some years ago he was engaged with Stevens in modeling the Wellington monument. On his return to Sheffield he engaged in local art trade, and executed busts in marble of John Arthur Roebuck and several local calculation.

The government is building at Wil-the Roman Cacholic duty of the Roman Cacholic du The revision of Luther's Bible, begun there in May. She is to be christened The revision of Luther's Bible, begun in 1863, has just been finished. Of the thirty original members of the revision committee but fourteen live to see the revision completed. The work is now to be printed and submitted to the university faculties, for criticism. It will probably be ready for the public in about two years.

State of the control of the problem of the problem of the control of the control

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Castern and Middle States. THE Prohibitionists of Massachusetts held a onvention at Boston and nominated a full FLORENTINE KREUTZ, nineteen years of age, ment providing for the reciprocal crossing was murdered, in a low lodging house in New York, by Katle Kolps, his mistress. She was ico in pursuit of hostile Indians. THE boiler in Weaver's mill, Eldersville, Pa., exploded, wrecking the building and official notice of an exposition to be held killing Thomas Bivington and James Phillips.

Rome, Italy, in 1888 and 1889.

JOHN BRADLEY and his sister, of Fall River,
Mass., were drowned at Stonebridge, Tiverton.
Two younger abilities. Two younger children were rescued. By the explosion of a premature blast on the vision for the establishment of cattle qua West Shore railroad at Cornwall, N. Y., four men (colored)were killed and several injured. TERRENCE MOQUADE, a New York dog catcher, shot and instantly killed James Doyle, a lad of fourteen years of age. An assault had been made upon McQuade, who retaliated by shooting into the crowd, when the boy, an innocent observer, was killed. JOHN MEANY died in Boston at the advance age of 107 years. He retained his mental facnlties to the last,

A PASSENGER train on the New York and Canada railway, running at high speed, came into collision with a "wild-cat" engine two miles north of Putnam Station, about half way between Whitehall and Ticcnderoga. Both gines were instantly and completely wrecked. The baggage and drawing-room cars were thrown from the track into Lake Champlain one of the engines careening over upon the baggage car. Edward Lequard, engineer of the wild-cat engine, was killed. His body was badly broken up in the wreck of his engine. The engineer of the passenger train was badly scalded and seriously injured internally. The firemen of both engines were injured, but not fatally. None of the passengers were killed, but a great many suffered severe injuries, which may prove fatal. The engineer of the "wild-cat" should have waited at Dresden Station and allowed the passenger train to pass him. He was found with the top of his head cut clean off, and only spoke a few words, which were 'I forgot all about it," from which it seems he had forgotten his business. The place where the engines met is one of the most narrow and precipitous on the road along Lake Champlain. CHINESE opium dens in New York are being raided by the police.

THE crops on Long Island have suffered everely through the drought.

FRANK H. SMITH, a Harvard student, who was recently shot by an army sergeant for en-tering a fort at Bath, Me., died from the ef-Rev. Joseph Bartlett, a retired Congrega tionalist minister, of Gorham, Me., seyears of age, committed suicide by drowning He had shown signs of insanity. A CIRCULAR has been prepared by the Penn Si-Centennial association, of Philadelphia different States, inviting troops to visit the Quaker city and take part in the military display on October 27, the bi-centennial anniver sary of the landing of William Penn. CAPTAIN WEBB, the English champion swin ner, defeated twenty-two competitors in a five le swimming match off Nantasket Beach Two boarding houses, a barn and outbuildigs at Rye Beach, N. H., the well-known sun ner resort, were destroyed by fire. THE Vermont Greenbackers were represent v 200 delegates at their State convention Vaterbury. The convention nominated for overnor, C. C. Martin; for lieutenant-governor, John Jenner; for treasurer, Fletcher Tarbell. The following Congressional nominations were made: First district, Dr. Kidder; Second district, H. D. Dunbar. Тик sale of Canonchet, ex-Governor William prague's famous house in Rhode Island, was attended with considerable excitement. Ex-Governor Sprague and son, armed with rifle and pistol, guarded the house and grounds and long. revented the immediate approach of specators. The property was bought by Fra D. Moulton for $62,250. Next year, probably a grand hotel and club-house the property by Delmonico, of New York, and

South and West

Congness having failed to make provision for health, all the clerks in the office have been

THE treasury department has received attention to the act of Congress making pro-antine stations, and stating that it is the desi of the department to provide proper shell for imported cattle at those ports as soon as Poreign News.

IOTE MYLES, Edward Myles, John Hughso

the upsetting of their boat, HERREN BEREL, Liebknecht and Hasen

sive abuse and insult to the federal con

bers of the German reichstag.

stated as tenants or caretakers.

St. Sauveur, Quebec.

British vessel Allan Godin.

ounty Clare, Ireland.

saults growing out of the land troubles.

present in London, to his throne.

ARRANGEMENTS are being made to resto in presence of 100,000 spectators, by Messrs.

Parnell, Dillon, Davitt and others. The procession of the various trades was three miles

England and Egypt.

At the lord mayor's banquet in London Mr. Gladstone delivered the following, justifying England's war in Egypt: "It is of vital importance that the position of Eng and should not be misunderstead. Forces have gone to Egypt in prosecution of great interests of the empire. Unless those interests exist it would not have have pressible for us to feel the contract of the contract have been possible for us to feel the contract of the contract have been possible for us to feel the contract of the Socialists, have been condemned by the Leips court to two months' imprisonment for exce

Herren Liebknecht and Hasenclever are men

OFFICIAL returns show that two hundred and thirty-one outrages, including two murders, oc-against 283 outrages, with five murders, in June. The total number of evictions during July was 321 families, representing 1,619 persons. Of the families evicted, half were rei

News and Notes for Women.

Drake university, of Des Moines, Ia. has a woman professorship in the medi lischarged with the exception of the secretar A GENERAL order has been issued from th The bride at a recent wedding at Lanheadquarters of the army containing an agre-caster, S. C., Miss Cato, was but eleven years of age. The groom had just at-tained his majority. The central committee of the suffrage party of the State of New York have issued a tract offering fifty reasons why women should vote.

An Arkansas bridegroom caught the

An Arkansas bridegroom caught the bride in his arms at the conclusion of the ceremony, and dislocated two of her ribs with a violent hug.

Granny Summerall, of Hillsbord county, Fla., is 111 years old. Her oldest son, aged ninety-two, and youngest son, aged seventy-two, are living. Some of the English ladies use an extract of cucumber for beautifying the skin. Some American ladies rub the under part of the rind on the skin to improve it. Rev. Mary Thomas Clark, of Richand Wm. Wisdom were drowned in Brewster lake, sixteen miles from Flasherton, Ont., by mond, Ind., has been for several years a regularly ordained minister in the Universalist church recognized in fall fellowship as far as the duties of the church are concerned. Parsons college, located at Fairfield,

Iowa, has had a donation of $6,000 toward establishing a new chair of natural sciences to be called the "Sally Ringland Professorship." Mrs. Ringland, the donor, was a woman of wealth The secretary of the Harvard "Annex" learns that at least two persons now preparing their wills have included in them generous bequests to help the cause of the education of women at Cambridge, and that offers of money for immediate use have also been made. Twenty houses were destroyed by a fire in A DISPATCH from Jamaica says that Westgate, Pennsylvania is now the only State the self-confessed assassin of Lord Frederick which has persistently refused women admittance to the bar. A lady in that Cavendish and Mr. Burke in Dublin, has arrived there, and that the evidence implicating State has been trying for seven or eight years to gain admittance, but the court refuses to allow her to enter under the him in the crime is strong.

The vessel conveying Lieutenant Bove and the members of the Italian Antarctic expediexisting statutes, and the legislature tion has been wrecked off Cape Horn, South America. All on board were saved by the efuses to pass a new law.-Hartford Times.

A meeting of Indian widows was TROUBLES of the most serious kind have lately held in a temple at Madras, to discuss the unhappy fate of widows in broken out in Corea, the relations of which with Japan are not altogether friendly. There that country, where they are condemned to either follow their husbands on the is also a powerful party in Corea strongly opposed to the recently concluded treaties with the United States and England.

There hundred delegates were present in Manchester at the sitting of the annual convention of the Irish land league. A resolution of sympathy was passed relative to the death of the sympathy was passed relative to the death of the remainder of their lives. It was remarked that at the present day very few widows, especially among the young, consent to be buried alive after the control of the remainder of their lives. It was remarked that at the present day very few widows, especially among the young, consent to be buried alive after the control of the remainder of their lives. It was remarked that at the present day very few widows, especially among the young, consent to be buried alive after the control of the remainder of their lives. It was remarked that at the present day very few widows, especially among the young, consent to be buried alive after the control of the remainder of their lives. It was remarked that at the present day very few widows, especially among the young, consent to be buried alive after the control of the remainder of their lives. It was remarked that at the present day very few widows, especially among the young, consent to be buried alive after the control of the remainder of their lives. of sympathy was passed relative to the death their husband's death. It was resolved of Miss Fanny Parnell. A report was presented to send a petition to the queen of Eng-ripe for land agitation. It was resolved to alter | marrying again. Labor League of Great Britian." Resolutions

Mrs. Mary Todd Lincoln, afterward the wife of Abraham Lincoln, wrote, Labor League of Great Britian.

were passed recommending to farmers in when a young girl, a letter in which were passed recommending of a pressed a determination to become expressed a determination to become the wife of a President. The story is confirmed by the production of the doc-ument, now in possession of General Preston, of Lexington, Ky. It was adpayment to Irish members of parliament for their services in the cause of the land league. THE Catholic bishop of Three Rivers, Candressed to a daughter of Governor Wickliffe, and contained a playful deen of his diocese to wear bangs or frizzes. scription of young Lincoln, to she was betrothed. She said: A FARMER has been shot dead at Crusheen, mean to make him President of the A NUMBER of persons have been sentenced in United States all the same. You will see that, as I always told you, I will yet be the President's wife." Dublin to long terms of imprisonment for as-

Fushion Notes.

Cetewayo, the deposed king of the Zul s, a Indian sleeves are most graceful for THE opening of an exhibition in Dublin simantles. multaneously with the unveiling of a statue of Hungarian braid patterns trim many Daniel O'Connell was made, the occasion for a huge procession and the delivery of addresses

Watered and shaded ribbons will again be worn. Marlborough is a new and delicate shade of copper red. White lace ruffles are still worn at the throat and in the sleeves.

Colored handkerchiefs are studies of color in combinations and designs. The favorite point of the corsage bow is the top of the left shoulder. Three flounces of equal width cover new velvet skirts from top to bottom.

FOR THE LABIES.

Persian Traditions of Eden. Take next the Persian tradition, is which we approach more nearly, even than in the Indian, to the Hebrew narrative. We have first the holy mountain of Hara-Berezaiti, from the side of which flows the sacred river, Albordj. which now the sacred river, altoring, which rises in the lake upon the summit. On the margin of this lake grew two trees, the Viepstaokha or "tree of every seed," and the Gaskerena, of tree of life." Here Meschia and Meschiaena, the first pair, were created for happiness. Before long, however, they were seduced by an evil spirit, who gave them fruits to eat, and by the eating which they forfeited 100 enjoym This evil spirit, whose name is Ahriman, is represented as a poisonous se pent,- W. W. De Hart,

"Men must work and women weep, $\beta$; runs the world away."

But they need not weep so much if they use Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," which cures all the painful maladies peculiar to women. Sold by druggists.

The first appearance of cotton as an article of commerce was a shipment of seven baldrom Charleston, S. C., in 1757. "Golden Medical Discovery has been used with signal success in consump-tion of the lungs, consumptive night-sweats spitting of blood, shortness of breath, weal spitting of blood, shortness of breath, weal lungs, coughs, brenchitis, and kindre tions of throat and chest. Sold by drug THE Chinese merchants of Portland, Or con, have formed a union to protect their bus

The huge, drastic, griping, sickening are fast being superseded by Dr. I "Purgative Pelleta." Sold by druggists THERE are 201,186 farmers in New Yorkitate who occupy and cultivate their own

"All that I Desired."

JERSEY GITY, N. J., Sept. 20, 1881.
H. H. WARNER & Co.: Sirz—I have used yo Safe Kidney and Liver Cure for kidney diseas and it certainly did for me all that could habeen expected and all that I desired.

BRNJ. F. CHAMPMEY. A GRAIN or two of salt snuffed up into the nose when that useful organ is "stuffed up" will afford relief.

Everybody is pleased with the improved Car-boline, a deodorized extract of petroleum. It is as clear and limped as spring water, intended by nature for all diseases of the scalp and skin, Kidney Disease. Pain, Irritation, Retention, Incontines Deposits, Gravel, etc., cured by "Buchupab $1. Send for pamphiet to E. S. Wells, Jer City, N. J.

City, N. J.

25 Cents Will Bay
a Preatise upon the Horse and his Disease Book of 100 pages. Valuable to every own of horses. Postage stamps taken. Sent pos paid by New York Newspaper Union, 150 Worl street, New York.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, medical work for every man-young, middle aged or old. 125 invaluable prescriptions.

A LLEN'S BRAIN FOOD: Most reliable to for the Brain and Generative Organs, positively cure Nervous bebilty and restores virile powers. Sold by druggists. $11 for t Free by mail on receipt of crites. JOHN ALLEN. Cremist. 313 First Avenue, New York 25 Cents will Buy a Treatise upon the Horse and his Diseases. Book of 100 pages. Valual to every owner of horses. Postage stamps to Sent postpaid by NEW YORK NEW SPAPER UNI 150 Worth Street, New York.

THE MARKETS. oof Cattle Good to P Com'n to Prime Veals Flour—Ex. State, good to fancy Western, good to choice Wheat—No. 2 Red..... No. 1 White ... Hay—Prime Timothy...... Straw—No. 1, Rye..... Hops—State, 1881, choice.... Pork—Mess, new, for export. Pork—Reas, Lard—City Steam.... Refined. Petroleun.—Crude.... Refined... Butter-State Creamery.

Hogs, Good to Choice Yorkers. 7 50 Flour—C'y Ground N. Process. 8 25 Wheat—No. 1. Hard Duluth.... 1 47 te-No. 2 Mix. West Beef-Extra plate and family. 18 00 @20 00

Beef—Extra quality...... Sheep—Live weight ...... Lambs .... Hogs, Northern, d. w... Hogs, Northern, d. W. 107,66 av., PHILADELPHIA.
Flour—Penn. Ex. Family, good 5 50 @ 5 50
Wheat—No. 2 Red. 114 @ 114 Wheat—No. 2 Red.
Ryo—State ...
Corn—State Yellow.
Date—Mired
Butter—Creamery Extra Pa. ...
Cheese—New York Full Cream.

Best in the world. Get the genuine package haveur trade-mark and is Prazer's. SOLD EVERYWHERE.

A ddress Rev. C. MAPLEWOOD Young Ladies the Prospectus of MAPLEWOOD Pittsfield, Mass SIX. HI WASTE MONEY! Young man or old.
CTS whiteston or heavy gowth of late on, had INTODACTE A. HARL ANYMORE ON THE MENTAL OF THE PARTY.
FOR THE STATE OF THE ST

25 CENTS, Postpaid. A TREATISE ON THE

HORSE

AND HIS DISEASES.

100-PAGE BOOK SENT POSTPAID to ANY ADDRESS IN 25 CENTS

Cannot be Disputed A. CURES Burn 81,000 REWARD for proof of the existence of a better liniment than "Merchant's Gargling Oil," or a better worm medicine than "Merchant's Worm Tablets." Manafactured by M. G. O. Co., Lock-JOHN HODGE, Sec'y. NYNU-33 PIANOS ARE USED AND INDORSED BY THE GREATEST GERSTER! PATTI LABLACHES CAMPANINI RAVELLI! GALLASSI! BRIGNOLI! ABBOTT! PEASE! CASTLE! OLE BULL! WAREROOMS NEW YORK 97 FIFTH AVENUE, For Sale by all leading Plano Houses. CATA-LOGUES MAILED FREE OF CHARGE. Payne's Automatic Engines.

Merchant's

LINIMENT

EVERYBODY WANTS IT!

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELFPRESERVATION,
Contains 300 pages, the steel engravings, is superhip bound in Freind madin, embossed, full gilt. It is made a property of the steel of the superhip made book in every sense than can be obtained alsewheng for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every hustance,—author,
THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELFPRESERVATION, THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF. PRESERVATION, PRESERVATION, Is sent by mail, securely sealed, postpaid, on receipt of price, only $1.25 (new edition). Small illustrated samples, 6c. Send now.
The author can be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience. Address Ologue of prices. S. M. Thurber, E. Worcester, N. I.

(ARD—A handsome set of cards for se, stange, officers. A. E. BASSE, TT. Rochester, N. Y.

4 Bulfineh Street, Boston, Mass

One, Two and Three-Cent Stamps received. Address HORSE BOOK COMPANY, 154 WORTH STREET, NEW YORK.

I be II waste time. Send for circular.

10 lbs. Good Black or Mixed, for $1.

10 lbs. Fine Black or Mixed, for $2.

10 lbs. Cholce Black or Mixed, for $3.

10 lbs. Cholce Black or Mixed, for $3.

Send for pound sample, 17 cts, extra for poutage.

Then get up a dub. Cholcest fes in the Largest variety —Please everybody. Orders Tes.

House in America.—No chromo.—No limming.—

Brisight business.—Value for money.

BOST WELLS, $4 Vesy $1., N. 1., P.O. Box 1287. HISTORY # U.S. BY ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS. DI ALLAMADER II. SILITATS.

II contains nearly 300 Fine Pertraits and Extravious of Battles and other Historics Scenes, and is the meet complete and valuable it tory ever published. It is sold by subscription only and Agenta saw vanted in every country. Send feirculars and extra terms to Agenta. Address.

ALTONAL PREDENIES OO., Philadelphia, Pa. NEW PROBLEM CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC & SCHOOL OF ENGLISH MUSIC BRANCHES, LANGUAGES ARTS, ELDCUTION & PHYSICAL CULTUR

HOME SPLENDIDLY-FURNISHED.
IN THE HEART OF BOSTON.
RARE ADVANTAGES, LOW RATES.
SEND FOR CIRCULAR ETOURJEE. COOD NEWS LADIES! Get up Clubs for our CELL BRATED TEAS, and secure a beautiff "Mess Ross or Gold Band Tea Set," (44 piccas,) our own importation. On of these beautiful Tea Sets and

YOUNG MEN If you want to learn Telegraphy in a few months, and be certain of

ONE MILLION COPIES SOLD EVERYBODY NEEDS IT!

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION, PRESERVATION,
Is a medical treatise on Exhausted Vitality, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline in Mans is an indiscensible treatise for every man, whether young, middle aged or old.
THE SCIENCE OF LIFE: OR, SELFPRESERVATION,
Is beyond all comparison the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single can either require or wish to know but what is fully explained.—
Toronio Gleec. THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION, nstructs those in health how to remain so, and the vialid how to become well. Contains one hundred and twenty-five invaluable prescriptions for all forms facute and chronic diseases, for each of which at-class physician would charge from $3 to $10...

PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE,

CLUB RATES.