The Trouble in Egypt.

As the Austrian gunboat Nantilus, bound from Port Said to Alexandria, passed Aboukir, the commander, seeing the white flag flying on the forts, supposed that they were in possession of the British, and sent a boat ashore with an officer and twelve men, who were made prisoners by the Egyptians.

A dispatch from Port Said says: "The British have captured Ruchdi Pasha, formerly the khedive's minister of finance, and Zulfikar Pasha, of the khedive's household, who had espoused the cause of Arabi Pasha. The military police have arrested nineten Greeks who were pillaging in the Arab quarters in Ismailia. Ten of the prisoners were shot.

THIRTEEN Indians engaged in the recent shot in the Greek Nation were cap-A dispatch from Kantara reports that the strict forces now hold the Suez canal throughout its entire length, and that they have an abundance of good water.
