Scottish Heather. It seems a long, long time ago That we two played at love together Indeed, I've half forgotten whether We meant it quite for play, you know,

I wonder why last winter's snow Should cool that warmth of weather ! It seems a long, long time ago That we two played at love together

And yet-my heart begins to glow (It then was light as any feather) Whene'er I see this Scottish heather And think of you, who loved it so ; It seems a long, long time ago. -Boston Transcript.

Come for Thy Rights !

Come, honest manhood, not ashamed to toil, Stand in the garb or cause that honors thee ! Come from the mill, the forge, or sterile soil.

We crown thee king, thou shalt our overeign be !

Come from the ocean laden-fish or pearls ; Come from the mines with all their pro-

Come not as servant, serving n ved churls But, in thy right, stand dignified before. Thou feedest kings ; they tax thee in return ; Thou clothest nobles, rich in courtly dress Thou diggest coal for them to cheerful burn. But savest little, each, thyself to bless. Thou art content, pushed by unkindly hands, Stand out, the rightful ruler of the lands !

Come for thy rights, as constant as the sun ! Stand for thy cause in eloquence of deed ! Come with thy riches, when thy toil is done, As plants give bloom to multiply their seed !

Till by thy care the fields a harvest make, That give a welcome to the living whole Nor halting here, to moan with selfish sighs That others take as freely as they choose, Thou givest all to nations in supplies.

Thou guard'st, thou honorest here with high no

Thon art her husband, toiling, royal wed ! made of green cheese.' She bears no malice, when in death deposed So it was Thon sleep'st at last within her silent bed ; sleep there. But kings and despots, ruling to devast,

Have wet her bosom deep with peasant his sisters. gore--She keeps account, to settle by at last,

When kings sleep well, but sleep as kings no more

How can a death-dethroned king relent? He lies a subject, humbled in estate ; The peasant has no carnage sown or rent, And in the grave he is a king as great : ches forth in pleasure and in hope, Nor dies debauched, a morbid misanthrope.

-C. C. Merritt, Springfield Republican.

the lawn were three young ladies in have played me a trick. Consequently, the toilets. Oh !" she added, hearing prettiest, though smallest, was reading

Assuredly! Suddenly, blended with the musical dip of oars, the still, calm air was broken by a strong, clear, manly voice

Merrily ah !--merrily ah !" "It's Tom ! It's dear old Tom !" cried the two girls who were dressed alike. "He's rowed up from Chesser-mill. Come, Georgie, come." Georgie, their cousin, appeared by no means backward, and the three eagerly Assended down to the river. Semethod to the river. Maid Lenore, when they were alone. "I'm certain of it!" coincided Geor-gie. "But he is going to show how brave he is. Why can't the silly fel-low confess and have done with it?" Tom had seen something. About mid-night, in the farthest corner of the room, he had beheld a shadowy female Semethod to the river. Semethod to the river.

the instant starting up, as a tall, elderly man passed along the terrace in front of the house. "Let us tell him Tom has come." https://www.astartic.com/ terrace in the could be no doubt; the loose grayish draperies flowed round it, drooping from the waving arms, while

VOLUME XV.

FRED KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

"Let us all go to him," said Tom. a gray mist apparently enveloped the They rose and the sisters went on head. fore; but Tom somenow managed It repeated the same evolutions as on o drop a little behind with his cousin. the previous occasion, only its moans Georgie," he said, "you and tokens of grief were more earn-wouldn't marry a man who was a estly expressed; but, after all, this coward. I hope you meant that for night was destined to be materially me, because you 'might marry me if I were not. Oh, dear coz, you know how I love you! I'd face all the ghosts in Christendom if you would only say you would by my wife!" "Yet you will ot face a probable in white, and, standing behind the

"Yet you will not face a probable first, frantically waved its long arms

"I will without demur, if you would only say 'yes,' Georgie," he whispered, "Ghosts wouldn't frighten | companion, for, perceiving it, earnestly. ringing shrick it fled toward the bed,

"I'd like to have that proved. I am crying: "I'd like to have that proved, saucily," Oh! Tom-Tom, save me! There

s they came up to the rest. "Well, Tom," exclaimed Mr. Harri-But no Tom sprang to her rescue. son, "these stupid girls tell me they want you to sleep in the haunted room, for our old house is respectable claiming, in a very earthly voice and

That others take as freely as they choose, Thou gives all to nations in supplies, And rarely break'st thy serving to abuse; Brom gravely break'st thy serving the abuse; Brom gravely break's objection." "None in the least, my boy, only I'll "Tom!" gasped Georgie, the smaller repute; Thom plant'st the seed—art generous with the fruit. Earth bears no blighting curse by thee imposed; "None in the least, my boy, only I'll make this proviso—I'll have no fire-arms used. Should anything appear it no more believe than that the moon is no more believe than that the moon is "Only gasped theorgie, the unit of a specter, plucking the gray gauge from about her head, "is it you? Oh! what "Only that I've discovered the about her head, "is it you?"

ghost," laughed Tom. "The second So it was agreed that Tom should night I suspected the unsubstantiality sep there. "I hope he will see nothing," said as sisters. "I hope he will see nothing," said day in minutely examining my room, which led to the discovery of a secret

his sisters. "I hope he will," said Georgie, "and prove his courage." "I shan't sleep a wink to-night," remarked Rosie, as they saw Tom dis-appear down the long corridor. "I doe't think L shall much" agreed "I doe't think L shall much" agreed "Oh Tom" she murmured half

"Oh, Tom," she murmured, half 'I don't think I shall much," agreed Georgia, very thoughtfully. The next morning Tom's appearance at the breakfast-table was anxiously really thought you a specter. Yes—I expected. When he came his expres- own it-I wanted to test your courage

THE TABLES TURNED. A large, old-fashioned, quaint gray stone house, with a green, close-clipped lawn, extending down to a very pictur-esque portion of the Avon. Seated on the large more the large more large lar summer toilets with broad straw hats. Two were at work; while the darkest, "Sleep there again." ejaculated the added, imploringly, as she fled through the panel. But the secret did creep out next day

Tom's account but half satisfied his -and the laugh-as the tables were eminine hearers. "I am sure he has seen something," turned on Georgie, who, trying to frighten Tom, had been awfully fright-

HOW THE CZAR IS CROWNED. Holy Ghost." And after each holy

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

The submarine vessel now being An Interesting Description of the Ceremony unction the metropolitan of Novgorod wipes away the traces. The ancient constructed at Bucharest it is channed will accomplish what no other sub-marine craft has been equal to. The plan contemplates a vessel capable of moving under water for twelve hours without any renewal of air. The Kremlin, with its high walls of moving under water for twelve hours without any renewal of air. The Kremlin, with its high walls of the parts of their basis with battlements cut out in the form of Tartar arrowheads, its eighteen green towers and its five rose colored gates, is quite a town in itself, ecataining three cathedrals, seven

In Europe electric railways are grow-ing rapidly in public estimation, not only on the continent, but in Great Britain. Already 100 miles of electric Britain. Already 100 miles of electric Britain. Already 100 miles of electric transit are in operation, and there is every probability of the total mileage being considerably increased before the end of the present year. One by one the more precious metals are found deposited in this country, and in some cases, as in nickel, the un-suspected supplies prove greater in suspected supplies prove greater in suspected supplies prove greater in the target of the three most venerable sanctuaries, the cathedrals of Archangel St. Michael, grouped in a single cluster like a sheaf with golden ears, inclosed by an iron railing that shows upon the white walls its great, in the Assumption is the cathedral at ancient palace by the red staircase.

SCIENTIFIC NOTES.

are found deposited in this country, and in some cases, as in nickel, the un-suspected supplies prove greater in volume than the previous yield of all tother countries combined. The latest of these discoveries is that of vana-dium, which has been taken from an Arizona mine in larger paying quan-tities than ever before known. A commission of British scientists are investigating the question of the existence of earth tides, or oscillations of the earth's crust corresponding to those produced on the sea by the construction of the case by the case by the dishes that the assent the superior of the case by the chief marshal and es-corted by officers of the guard with the dishes that the metropolitan blesses one after the other court is assent by the court case and walls of this scientists are investigating the question of the existence of earth tides, or oscillations of the search 's crust corresponding to those produced on the sea by the court case and singers in gala cos-cxistence of earth takes, or oscinations of the earth's crust corresponding to those produced on the sea by the moon's attraction. A pendulum is so suspended that its slightest motion turns a mirror and causes the point of light reflected by it upon a distant screen to move every percentibly. It is not be accessed on the low of the search of the search of the low of the search of the search turns a mirror and causes the point of light reflected by it upon a distant screen to move very perceptibly. It is found that the pendulum is in con-tinual change of position, for the mo-tion of the reflected light is incessant, and so irregular that it is handly possi-ble to determine its mean position on the screen within five or six inches.

of a tube through a hole previously made (not a difficult thing in Chinese houses with paper windows and doors.) The inmates are thus anæs-thetized or at least deprived of the power of speech and locomotion, and the thieves enter and do their work. In vain does the proprietor being robbed see the burglars. He cannot move limb or tonzue. It is said that the total to solve the chair of the Patriarch, and the thieves enter and do their work.

In vain does the proprietor being robbed see the burglars. He cannot move limb or tongue. It is said that water absorbs this poison, and so for this purpose it is not uncommon for wealthy people to sleep with a basin of water at their heads. It is called men hsiang or hsiun hisany, to suffo-cate or asphyxiate with incense. HEALTH HINTS. Hard corns can be quickly removed Hard corns can be quickly removed

 d) of one since s is made by adding two drains of quince seed to two pints of water, boiled down to one pint, filtered hot and allowed to cool. Whatever be the plan of treatment Whatever be the plan of treatment Whatever be the plan of treatment decided upon, rest is the first principle to inculcate in every severe headache. Rest, which the busy man and the blue or black gowns fringed in gold, deputations from Asiatic peoples allied then the great hunter, who had killed by the girls, fell upon the bridegroom's that they them anxious mother cannot obtain so long as they can manage to keep about, is one of the first remedies for every to or subjects of the emperor, Chinese, Mongolians, Tartars, Baskirs, Kal-Southern California, thanked God for selves would soon be married, and Molgonans, Tartars, Baskirs, Kar-suns, Georgians, Mingrelians, Lap-landers, Esquimaux, Persians, Turco-mans—a strange and wild mixture of different races, half clad and armed, some with bows or lances, others with some with bows or lances, others with just number of the brush was very dense at the bot-tom of the ravine, and he though the door and makers the bot-tom of the ravine, and he though the door and makers the bot-tom of the ravine, and he though the door and walking into the house in which he day. The largest of the two dead of guards of honor, with cuirases of red very term and the matter of the would dear, for the brush was very dense at the bot-tom of the ravine, and he though the door and walking into the house in which he day. The largest of the two dead bears would weigh over 1,500 pounds. It was all two strong horses could do to drag it to a tree near by. The imperial arms, borne by high func-tion arise, are placed at the law. The langest of the was quite poor, would weigh about 700 pounds. From Ra-mon, who was in town this week save is obvious that the chances of shortenried out effectually. It is a practical lesson to be kept steadily in view, in that there may lurk behind a simple headache some lesson of unknown magnitude which may remain stationary if quietude can be maintained. There is a point worth attending to in the treatment of all headaches. See that the head is elevated at night and the pillow hard: for, if it be soft, the

TERMS: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1882. FOR THE LADIES.

bias. It makes particularly pretty children's suits, and is better suited to the purpose than broche goods. The cuffs for these costumes are of black or From the earliest times no event in man life has been associated with a colored velvet. In the latter case ruby human life has been associated with a more extensive folk-lore than marriage. Beginning with love-divinations, these are of every conceivable kind, the anxious maiden apparently having left no stone unturned in her anxiety to ascertain her lot in the marriage state. Some cut the common brake or fern just above the root to ascertain the initials of her future husband's name. Again, nuts and apples are very favor-Again, nuts and apples are very favor-ite love tests. The mode of procedure is for a girl to place on the bars of a

NUMBER 41.

If he hates me, live and die. Great is the dismay if the anxious face of the inquirer gradually perceives Handsome and costly buttons are a great feature of walking dresses and traveling costumes, and as they can be gold, enameled buttons in Mauresque or Florentine styles, are effective and backward, add singers in gala costume, with swords by their sides, advance and execute, during the rest of the repast, different pieces of the old Russian repertoire.—Journal de Rome.

Three Bears Killed and a Boy Saved. Robert Lyon, of Cliff Glen, Ventura county, Cal., communicates the following to the Ventura Signal: The timber-clad hills at the head of the Ma-sure sign that he would be married to Hon. G. W. Griffin, United States ble to determine its mean position on the screen within five or six inches. The North China Herald mentions a novelity in the way of applied science, which is said to exist among thieves in China. They prepare a composition of some medicated ingredient, supposed to be aconite, and lighting it, blow it into the room to be robbed by means of a tube through a hole previously made (not a difficult thing in Chines whow is ware of the weeks of flowers. The miracul-houses with maper windows and constallated of the miracul-to use aconite, and lighting it, blow it into the room to be robbed by means of a tube through a hole previously made (not a difficult thing in Chines will ware and matter and the source windows and the week for low of goild, topazes, sapphires, emeralds and rubies display marvelous phouses with maper windows and houses with maper windows and house the married to house and house the married house the married house houses with maper windows and house the married house the married house the married house houses with maper windows and house the married house houses with maper windows and the life and the fact that it the house the married house the

To-night, to-night is Friday night, Lay me down in dirty white; Dream who my husband is to be, And lay my children by my side, If I'm to live to be his bride. In selecting the time for the marriage ceremony precautions of every kind have generally been taken to avoid "The law of muru is so complicated in its nature, and subject to so many refinements and so varied in its appli-cations, that it would be about as diffian unlucky month and day for the knot to be tied. Indeed, the old Ro cult to tell what it is as to tell what it is not.

"The word muru, in its literal sense, means to rob or to plunder, and for means to rob or to plunder, and for this reason Europeans have come to regard the term as a sort of legalized system of robbery. This view of the subject is, however, very far from being a just one. The law of muru is so broad and general in its applica-tion that no human being, whatever mere being reading to the first is

The Pasture Bars. If all the skies, I do beli Had all the year withholden Their gala tints to guild that eve It would na been more golden ; The wee birds would na sing so fine If they had been invited The cows came proudly in a line. As if they were delighted.

We linger'd by the pasture bars Till sunset changed to gloaming. Till twilight clustered into stars, And through the clouds went ro And when the moon glowed up the sky It found us still belating : Yet none but my own Joe and I Knew why the cows were waiting. -James Judson Lord.

HUMOR OF THE DAY.

A man is known by the company he keeps away from.—Picayune. Pretty new ballad by the house-ceeper, dedicated to the grocer: "Take Back the Flour." "Something left over from the fight of yesterday," was the Duke of Wel-ington's definition of hash.

Albert Schwill is an Indianapolis nan who has had nineteen fights because somebody said: "Give him to the ogs."-Boston Post. What is the difference between reight and cargo? A horse-car conductor says the parsengers make the freight and the horses make the car

It has been ungaliantly said that the telephone does what society rules have always been unequal to—compels women who use it to talk one at a

Yesterday we saw a man with a black eye, a skun nose and arm in a sling. He had a revolver and wanted to know who invented hammocks.— Boston Post.

When a man kums to me for advice I find out the kind of advice he wants and I give it to him; this satisfys him and 1 give it to min; this satisfy min that he and I are two az smart men az there is living—Josh Billings. A sad-hearted poetess asks in the columns of the Philadelphia Bulletin: "Why do we sing?" Perhaps it's be-cause you don't know what the public column is in word that a naichbar. eeling is in your immediate neighbor-

When Hood wrote "There is a happi-ness that makes the heart afraid," he was probably thinking of one evening when he sat up very late with his girl and did not know what minute the old man might come thumping downstairs.

In some of the mountainous sections of Pennsylvania real estate has taken a sudden downward tendency. About two hundred acres slid down into the valley the other day. It will be some time before it goes up to its former height .- Siftings.

height.—Syttings. An easy time of it—"I don't want any man's advice," said the man with the big bump of self-esteem. "I do my own thinking." "Yes," mur-mured Fogg, "I should think you might and not be greatly overworked either."—Boston Transcript.

The title of the lesson was: "The Rich Youg Man," and the golden text was: "One thing thou lackest." A teacher in the primary class asked a little tot to repeat the two, and looking earnestly into the young lady's face the child said: "One thing thou lack-est-a rich young man." "Where are you going, anyhow?" asked an irate conductor on the Central Pacific the other day to a "beat" whom he had kicked off five or six times, but who always managed to get grate a nut, repeating this incantation: lessly as possible on these cloud-like toilets. If he loves me, pop and fly; If he hates me, live and die.

the nut, instead of making the hoped-for pop, die and make no sign. One means of divination is to throw a lady bird into the air, repeating meanwhile the subjoined couplet :

Fly away east and fly away west. Show me where lives the one I like best. Should this little insect chance to are in the direction of the house where red men of America are now little more than traditions among the Indians girls, Georgie loudest.

pose. "Yes, here you are, singing as much out of tune as ever," said Georgie, roguishly. "Now, please don't begin your spar-ring," laughed Rosie, the youngest sis-ter. "We are so glad you've come, Tom, whether in tune or not. We have something to tell you and some-thing for you to do." Abruptly, however, remembering Georgie's words, he cared for nothing place and being partially dressed, leaped up and advanced toward the ghost. For a second there was no al-teration. Then it rapidly melted away —there was a click—and when Tom reached the corner—it "as empty ! Can there really be ghosts, he thought, grouping his way back to bed. Imposthing for you to do." "Really? Prithee, fair sister, expound," he rejoined, walking up the hawn, a sister on either side of him, though his eyes oftenest sought out

"But first," asked Lenore, the elder, "how long are you going to stay here?" sighed and moaned and wrung its "how long are you going to stay here?" sighed and moaned and wrung its "how long are you going to stay here?"

"Whitehall has given me a week. y luggage comes by road." y luggage comes by road." "Capital ! Now, let us sit down and e will tell you." The girls sat in a kind of semi-circle; the meditated, striking a light and sit-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-a comparative delaward by the semi-a comparative delaward by the semi-ting on the side of his bed. Then taking a comparative delaward by the semi-a comparative delaward by the semi-a comparative delaward by the semi-a comparative delaward by the semi-ting of the se My luggage comes by road." we will tell you.

while Tom laid his whole length before the candle he carefully examined the what resemble almonds; it is from them, his elbow on the grass, his cheek apartment. on his hand.

"Now," he asked, " what is the matter?"

"Well," said Lenore, who by general room, when, he had laughed, the ghosts large knife; the mass of pulp and seed acclaim was nominated spokeswoman, would have a happy time of it. "you must know, Tom, that there is a certain room in this old house papa has just bought which is said to be human. The door was locked as he had left it; the windows securely fast-it is then dried for from one to three and. "It's confoundedly singular!" he re-tad facily it the sun, and is then ready for market. A "tipici" is a tube of wick-

"Nonsense." "But it is true. Papa would not let peated, finally throwing himself on to erwork, about eight feet long, with a us know when he bought the place, the bed.

us know when he bought the place, but we soon heard it from the people the next morning he told exactly is open, and at each end there is a what had occurred. but we soon heard it from the people about here. He, however—as you— says it's all nonsense." "Being a sensible, practical man," interpolated Tom. "Ch. still he gives us full leave to "Ch. still he gives us full leave to

"And are you going to?" Georgie, the place is haunted!" "We wish to, therefore want you to sleep there one night, Tom." Want me "Yes ; so that you may inform us." sistency:

stency: "I don't and I won't believe there aromatic, and possesses a flavor especially its own. Unfortunately, it soon feremarked Georgie, very gravely, whether there is a ghost or not." remarked hether there is a ghost or not." "Really I feel exceedingly obliged," ughed Tom, "but I don't quite see ""Well, Tom is going to give it anlaughed Tom, "but I don't quite see the joke. I am not anxious for a other trial," laughed the young fellow. checked, but all the delicate aroma of "Oh, no, don't do that!" exclaimed the wine is lost. It is almost worth a ghostly acquaintance." "Oh, Tom !" exclaimed Georgie, Georgie, quickly. "We've had enough trip across the Atlantic to drink with a glance that sent the blood to of it! with a glance that sent the blood to of It." her cousin's cheek. "I didn't think you were a coward !" "Coward ! Come now, Georgie, "And if it comes a third time I'll the wine of cocoa in its freshness. "I don't think so," rejoined Tom, delighted at this involuntary interest. "And if it comes a third time I'll the wine of cocoa in its freshness. This drink is very healthy, and one can consume an im-mensequantity. A superior white vine-take it for a sign--" that's too bad," he cried. "Well, I think it cowardly," re- "Of what?"

sponded the young lady, pursing her pretty mouth. "I don't believe in ghosts any more than uncle does; and ward for facing a ghost." "Interface is also bound unwithing a sauce which in color and taste much resembles Shaker apple-sauce; and a most delicious amber-colored jelly, far

"There are no ghosts," persisted superior to guava jelly, is made from I want to sleep there, only he will not

"I should think not," said Tom, "Then you do not believe me?" letme

"I should think hot, said 10m, with quick approval. "But what kind of ghost is it? What is the story?" "Why, they say years and years ago the heiress of this large estate-for it her entreaties. They fancied that he nually destroyed by monkeys and parwas a large estate then-was one night had been more frightened than he rots, which are very fond of the seed.

cruelly murdered in that room by her cared to confess, for he had been re- -American Garden cousin, who, on her death, inherited markably quiet and thoughtful all the property ; ever since which period day, had kept aloof from them, and the lady's ghost, attired in white, pays wandered about the house like a ghost There was an eager and excited, as the apartment a visit regularly at 12 himself. o'clock midnight," and as Lenore ended But Tom was firm. He said he was ered in the mansion of an old French there was a tremor in her voice.

"Bosh!" laughed Tom, contempt-masty "Why Lenny, you look ab-ghost appeared a third time. "Why, Lenny, you look ab- ghost appeared a third time.

nously. "Why, Lenny, you look ab-solutely pale!" "But suppose the may not come "They will not even pass the door after dark," remarked Georgie, with a toss of the head. "But don't you quiz them, Master Tom, for you, also, are too tricktored to face it! What covariate down as nervous bosh and optical down as nervous bosh and optical frightened to face it! What coward-ice!" with a little shrug. "I declare, if any man loved me and I found he was a coward, I'd never, never marry vas a coward, l'd never, never marry girls crept along to theirs. im!" Scarcely had midnight chimed—for the key to the doctor. He unlocked the chest and opened it. The sunlight fell upon its glistening contents, conwas intentional, but Georgie's dark though not in Mr. Harrison's house— sisting of the unopened bottles of medicine which he had prescribed for eyes rested on Tom as she spoke. There goes papa!" cried Rosie, at paneled apartment again appeared the her the previous twenty years.

-it wouldn't do ! The second night the same thing oc-curred—only this time the specter had index of a bright orange yellow, with a hard

these seeds that the cocoa and chocorison proposed to turn it into a ball- hand, and broken transversely by a But is taken out, and is either left for a day

"There," cried the sisters, "you see, runs out through the interstices.

The juice running from the "tipici Georgie, the place is haunted." The juice running from the "tipici" For a second Georgie appeared de-feated; she pouted, glanced at her cup, cocoa," and is a most refreshing and then exclaimed, with charming con- delicious drink ; it is slightly acid, the wine of cocoa in its freshness.

gar is also prepared from the cocoa. The juice is also boiled down into a

the wine, from which also a strong and very high-flavored brandy is distill

Joke on the Doctor.

well as anxious, throng of heirs gathresolved to believe his eyes and brain lady recently deceased. She had left the pinow hard; for, if it be soit, the head sinks and becomes hot, which with some is enough to provoke an under the noted dramed with a cover of gold. Grouped in front of the church of his friends tells us, in speaking of with some is enough to provoke an attack in the morning if sleep has been under the portal draped with velvet, his bear adventures, that in one win-the clergy with crosses and mitres are ter, on the Sespe rancho, Ortega cap-

Magazine.

the clergy with crosses and mitres are resplendent in their chasubles and dal-matics sparkling with gems. The metropolitans, led by the metropolitan amateur branch of the humane so-of Kiew, holding censers await the ar-the clergy with crosses and mitres are resplendent in their chasubles and dal-metropolitans, led by the metropolitan of Kiew, holding censers await the ar-The following pleasing anecdote of ciety, for the especial benefit of poor rival of the emperor.

the power of music is related by the Puss. A curious legacy was some enlarge the permanent income of the cadi, on condition of his nourishing and cherishing all the unclaimed care, one morning.

and cherishing all the unclaimed cats in Cairo. Like most Mohammedans, he general of division, with red trousers, and he walks under a large canopy that seek for coolness and fresh air on one must have shared the feeling which puts over his head a flock of golden of the lofty mountains which surround must have shared the recently which made the Prophet cut off the wide sleeve of his robe, sooner than disturb The metropolitan of Moscow pre-Having reached the middle of the a favorite cat which had fallen asleep thereon. Consequently a large court-yard has been devoted to their especial sents him the cross to kiss, while the metropolitan of Novgorod sprinkles him with holy water. The princes of were displayed under our feet in the thereon. Consequently a large court-yard has been devoted to their especial benefit, and here the "nice, soft, furry creatures" lie and bask in the sun, and are fed at stated intervals, and alto-gether have a very good time of it. It is a curious fact, however, that al-though daily additions are made to this benefit, and here the "nice, soft, furry creatures" lie and bask in the sun, and alto-gether have a very good time of it. It is a curious fact, however, that al-though daily additions are made to this benefit a daily additions are made to this band upon the guard of his sword. large feline home, the inmates rarely hand upon the guard of his sword. it out of his pocket. He began to large feline home, the inmates rarely amount to more than fifty. This (in the absence of sausage machines) is a very remarkable problem. I suppose that a candidate for the office of cadi has to produce a medical certificate to has to produce a medical certificate to the super super

 Magazine.
 Finally, the czar arises majestic and superb, dressed in his mantle of bro-cade linen with ermine, and, taking of Prince Feramorz's harem in Turkey Two wonderfully ugly black eunuchs
 Finally, the czar arises majestic and superb, dressed in his mantle of bro-cade linen with ermine, and, taking with dramonds, he places it with his own hands upon his head. At this moment the empersa advances and kneels before the rangest spouse, who, taking off his tened with motionless attention. He ceased playing and the sheep did not stir.

Among the billowy cushions and va-porous veilings rose the young face. Oh! what a revelation of beauty! up-lifted in a curious, questioning way to see what manner of women these are who come from the ends of the earth with unveiled faces and go about the with unveiled faces, and go about the approach the emperor and inform him that all is ready for the annointment. world alone, and have to think for that all is ready for the almonithment. strument. themselves—poor things! The ex-pression was that of a lovely child waking from summer slumber in the door of the sanctuary, the threshold of which no summer scale for play. A happiest humor, ready for play. A of which no woman can cross. The sensitive, exquisite face, fair as the metropolitan of Moscow then dips in whole day, and concluded that physfirst of women while the angel was yet the vase that contains the holy oil the ical pleasure is the basis of all inte unfallen. A perfect oval, the lips a golden branch that he holds in his in music. scarlet thread, and oh! those wonderful hand, and anoints the temples, the eye-Asiatic eyes!—lustrous, coal black, long lids, the nostrils, the lips, the breast and Last year Great Britain made nearly joined eyebrows.

even the house in which he lives. The great principle is to keep property in circulation. The oftener it changes hands the better. A man's relations have the first claim to it. His friends and neighbors come next. however, would dare think of asserting And If the bridegroom's stockings, thrown a claim to the property of another, except in accordance with the strictest principles of the law of muru, which alone can determine the right of ownership. Should a great misfortune overtake a man, such as the death

y criminals. A pretty dress stuff for children's greater the honor. If everything he There is very little fight in them, and tian" pens, clasps, jeweled bands and buckles, made in the United States, are a prominent feature of millinery and ing nets, mats, canvas, loak garniture this season. his earthly provisions ; and in order to

The proper colors for elegant wrap-pers are cream white, pale blue, pale rose, shrimp pink, mauve, terra cotta, hussar blue, dark reds, dark blues, gray and black. The trimmings should ever, against the law of muru to kill be embroidery, ribbons, velvet and lace. The center parting of the hair is now made as inconspicuous as possible, and many ladies obliterate it altogether by cross partings taken above the form parting at all. Seriel experience of white experience of the law. The center parting of the hair is now made as inconspicuous as possible, and many ladies obliterate it altogether by cross partings taken above the form parting at all. The center parting of the hair is now made as inconspicuous as possible, and many ladies obliterate it altogether by cross partings taken above the form parting at all. Seriel experience of the law. The center parting of the hair is now made as inconspicuous as possible, and many ladies obliterate it altogether by cross partings taken above the form parting at all. Seriel experience of white experience of the law. The parting taken above the form parting at all. Seriel experience of the law. The part of the serience of the law. The part of the part of the process of the law. The part of the Small capotes of white or tinted muru. If he is told that it is a satin, completely covered with soft great muru he is beside himself satin, completely covered with soft fluffy white ostrich tips, are worn. They are very pretty and becoming to youthful ladies. For their elders the same fashion in black, bronze, brown. garnet and dark green is much followed.

The European custom of carrying infants on lace-trimmed pillows is adopted by American mothers; and the narse wears an Alsace cap with a bow of ribbon a fourth of a yard wide, with nearest, and the contest is exciting in the extreme. One often admires his courage. The contest is unequal. He is battling with fate. Like Macbeth, he knows that he is doomed; but untermined resistance, and is terribly in ends that hang behind nearly to her like Macbeth, he does not wish it The nurse's dress is of the color otherwise, for to be victorious would feet.

used for lining the lace of the baby's be against the law of muru. pillow. Stuffed birds are again in request, and are shown in almost numberless varieties. These embrace not only the manner of stuffing, are sufficient alone

Among the fabrics intended for them around with a plank fence. If it with wood-colored and green stripes, trimmed with bows in the same color. Woolen and silk plaids are also to be used. The goods are generally cut stripes two or three feet from the ground it will answer, as turtles can't climb. If they are not in the ponds already they can easily be kept stripe method.—Southern Stock Journal.

no trouble from the natives, except in the early part of winter they would come and stand about our doors and windows and get in our way generally, so that they became a nuisance. the frost gathered on our windows they No one, kept peepholes open by licking off the frost with their tongues. This we finally got rid of by making a strong iecoction of cayenne pepper, and painting the outside of the glass, so that licking was not at all comfortable. overtake a man, such as the death of a favorite child, his relatives are allowed, according to the law of these did not behave themselves we A pretty dress stuff for children's suits is a crape-finished serge in broken Scottish plaids. Carnations, marsh-mallows, poppies and ox-eye daisies are the most fash-ionable flowers for trimming fall round hats of dark straw. Unardenee "Doman" and "Furn indeed, all never dream of washing any part of their bodies. The men wear a large pair of bone buttons like shirt studs in their under lips, and it gives them any thing but a pleasant appearance. The women tattoo their chins, which they consider a great mark of beauty, but I is said, with the intention of cleaning out the whole kabloonas (whites), but as he came accompanied by his wife, his intentions were not of a very des-perate character. At all events he came and had a "big talk," loitered about for a couple of days and finally took his departure for home, and sent us down a deer as a present. That was the nearest approach to trouble we have had.

The fight between Goss and Hill, at Jackson, Miss., was with new, heavy, long-lashed whips. Two lines were drawn eight feet apart, and these were toed by the combatants, who were stripped to the waist. The victor was to be the one who stood longest at the scratch. A great crowd witnessed the Rev. J. W. McNeil found one carp in his The doctors lately assembled in con-Birds for millinery trimmings are now stuffed softly, and when applied hug the headdress very closely. Cer-tain of the large birds in the present the biggest fools tain of the large birds, in the present among the finny tribe. If the weather the distinction to Geneva, where the turns cool they stick their heads into annual death-rate is only seventeen

Scotch capital. The metropolitan board of works in London controls an area of 122 square

Carp and Turtles. Judge Bridewell, at Beauregard, had small birds of the American forests and the highly-colored South American and East Indian birds, appropriated to millinery purposes, but certain of the aquatic birds—sea-gulls and ducks, for instance carp was found to have been devoured.

Birds for millinery trimmings are for the garniture of a hat; and a bird the mud and a turtle comes along and per 1,000, one less than that of the frequently completes the ornamenta-tion, with drapery of velvet as the objective trimming.

prove that he is not troubled with that upon his shoulders. Then he bows be-unconquerable aversion to dear old fore the metropolitan of Moscow, who Puss with which so many of the mas-places his hands over him and recites noise proceeded. They gradually Puss with which so many of the mass culine genus are afflicted.—Gentleman's a prayer. Finally, the czar arises majestic and the musician and tened with motionless attention. flocked around the musician and lis-

Two wonderfully ugly black ennuchs met the visitor at the iron gate of a beautiful garden and conducted her to a large room rather barren of furni-ture but hung with fine Eastern dra-peries. Here she found the prince's latest acquisition, whom she thus de-scribes in the Independent: Among the billowy cushions and va-porous veilings rose the young face.