The only “FAIR” in Centre Co. is at SPRING MILLS. Wonders from all parts of the World and the handiwork of all nations now open. Bring the Family along.

LOCAL ITEMS.

—Graham & Son have the best seat leather, kine and calf skins in Beliefonte. —Brockerhoff has the latest styles and cheapest ladies dress goods in the county.

—Jack Grove intends to retire from his farm, and will leave Centre Hall in about a week.

—New goods received every few days at Brockerhoff's, they keep up with the styles and times.

—Dr. Alexander has his new house on the site, and has completed it to a credit to our town.

—Best stock of ladies' and childrens' dress shoes, and cheap, just received at Brockerhoff's store.

—Take a look at the comet, after 4 o'clock in the morning in the south-western sky—it's a grand sight.

—The Bradford Ewe makes the present estimated production of the various oil fields at 7,200 barrels per day.

—A woman up in York state, the other day, at 69 pills. The measure for her coffin took place three hours after.

—Cheesemakers are making their appearance among our boys, and there is every appearance of a big crop.

—Low prices, bargains, fair dealing at Brockerhoff's, Centre Hall, headquarters for farmers and all other well-to-do stores.

—Some of our farmers in this vicinity are losing their hogs from a disease of the throat, which causes a swelling about the neck.

—Dr. Lee, of Madisonburg, popped in to see the Reporter on Tuesday. Since he has a wife he looks the full picture of a man.

—Miss M. Elanche Holmes, of Nittany, gave the Reporter a call, and assisted her in cranking the paper last Wednesday.

—Mr. Geo. Blaney, of this place, lost two fine cows within a few days of each other about a week ago. They seemed to have been bloated and eating new clover or some other food.

—In sweet potatoes there will be found a big difference in quality and flavor as in apples or other fruits. No. 1 sweet potatoes are the best and cheapest, and it is rarely any other groceries keep them but Secbler's.

—The fog has prevented a sight of the grand new comet, and a sad event on our horizon, but it cannot prevent house-keepers going to Secbler's where they get the best groceries, including the best kinds of country produce, and allow the highest prices for it.

—If you want new furniture, for parlor, bed-room, sitting room, or office, go to headquarters, and see the new and clear like Brackbill, at Bellefonte, the oldest establishment in the county. You get warranted goods and a perfect gentleman in his dealings.

—Dan Condon on Ocker & Royer's sawmill in Brushyville got his hand caught by the edge, and the saw cut his index finger off, the middle finger so badly lacerated that Dr. Lee had to amputate it on Tuesday night, and other fingers of the hand badly bruised.

—By reference to the Sheriff's proclamation it will be seen that at this election, on Nov. 7, the people of Centre county shall vote whether they wish to adopt the sheep law. Would the people of this county vote for the sheep law?

—Phillipsburg, on Tuesday night of last week, had the first shine from its electric lights, and the town was in a success. Many business houses there have adopted it also. Phillipsburg is ahead of all other Pennsylvania towns in this respect, and is a very lively town generally.

—The Reformed Synod is in session at Bellefonte this week.

—The dedication of the new Bellefonte Reformed church which had been held for Oct. 8, has been postponed on account of the fact that the building committee has refused to accept the pews manufactured for the church because of some mistake in the making of them.

—The funeral of James M. Cormick, of near this place, whose death was mentioned in last week's issue, was conducted under the masonic rite, at Centre Hill. The attendance was larger than at any funeral we have witnessed here in the last 15 years. The masonic lodge of this place, attended in large force, with appropriate badges.

—By the powers, go to Powers & Son and get the most powerful boots for every day wear, for fall and winter. Nothing like the Powers' boots, and cheap too. A large assortment of boys boots, a specialty. For the ladies the finest and most complete assortment in the state. Powers & Son lead in boots and shoes.

—Dinges was in the city and gets the first new goods in the valley, which puts the great bargain store in the enterprise. Piles of new goods now fill his store, dry-goods, notions, latest styles of ladies' dress goods, groceries, hats, boots, shoes—not a fall and most complete assortment of everything. Call and see and don't miss bargains.

—The west knows better how to appreciate good school teachers than some localities in the east. A correspondent from Davis, Ill., writes to the Freeport Bulletin: “The board of education has done wisely by augmenting Mr. R. J. Ely's salary five dollars per month, so that his services may be retained in the school.” Mr. Ely is a native of Potter township, and only recently west.

—Hontadale is a spiritually inclined town. The Observer says: “In this immediate neighborhood there are about thirty licensed bar-rooms, each one of which takes in an average $20 per day for liquor. This doesn't look much for first place, but it aggregates $600 per day, or $20,000 per year, exclusive of Sunday, and at least half that much is sold on Sunday as on other days. It brings the grand total up to $305,100 a year.”

—A sale of high-priced cattle took place in New York the other day, of which it is reported that the sale of imported Jersey cattle, the property of T. S. Cooper, of Linden Grove, Coopersburg, Pa., took place a few days ago. The attendance of dealers was large, the bidding spirit and fair prices were extraordinary. The cow “Blanca” brought $2,000; “Jolie of Linden” a year old cow, $1,700; cow “Porter,” $600; cow “Lady of Linden,” $300; cow “Bonny of Linden,” $200; heifer “Byron,” $100; and bull “Cicero,” $50.

—It's not a pleasant subject, but I'll make it plain appear. That nothing in this wide world, of love, can compare with the love of the stomach. Purns is doing wonders for me. John Donabue.

Your Purns for Indigestion and liver troubles helps me. W. P. Brandon, East Liverpool, O. I was suffering with pain in the chest, palpitation of the heart, with great swelling of the stomach. Purns is doing wonders for me. John Donabue.

—The annual caravan with the sacred carpet for Mexico started from Carlo's on Arabi Pacha demands a trial by Englishmen, as he surrendered to them.

—The French and English directors of the canal, are said to have come to a complete agreement in favor of the completion and enlargement of the canal.

—“Hannah” said a landlady to her servant, when there's any bad news, always let boarders know it before dinner. Such little things make a big difference in the course of a year.

—The comet is large and splendid—just so is the first stock of new goods in this valley, at Dinges. It exceeds any heretofore in these parts.

RAGGED THOUGH WELL TO DO.

Philadelphia's Miser who Cured Two Score Houses and Lived in a Hoop.

Philadelphia, Sept. 28. The Rev. John Smith had Eddy in bed. He leaves a fortune of upward $100,000. Eddy was a colored man, and lived on 611 South street, a shanty that leans as if it would topple over, and contains hardly a whole window pane. People who visited it, say they found there a broken table and two or three rickety chairs for furniture and a heap of rags for a bed. Everything was filthy. Although worth his fortune, Eddy despised himself as comfort. He dressed in rags and made his meals of garbage. His history is remarkable. He was born in 1778. In Virginia, of slave parents. A 20 he ran away from his master, and was placed over his own shop in New York, and was there a barber's trade. Then he travelled about as a preacher. With the sanction of the then famous Bishop Allen of the African Church he became an elder in New York, and was there all parties interested in the circuit from Elizabeth to Mount Holly, N. J. During this time he became enamored of and married Bishop Allen's daughter. His discovery of his wife's infidelity, and how she had wrecked his life. It was then that his passion for hoarding asserted itself. He worked hard at the barber's chair, and put his money into houses and lands until at the time of his death he had become the owner of thirty-seven houses in different parts of Philadelphia, and nine in Camden, of two farms in New Jersey, property in Frankfort, and more in London, Maryland, and more in the States. Every man, woman and child for miles around his shanty knew him, but he had not a friend among them. Eddy got holed about the year 1850, when he was about 70 years of age. He was very ill and lying upon his bed for many days. He had a brother living on Vine street, and he had a brother-in-law living on Chestnut street. He had been known to work only once. That was when, a few years ago, the wife of his youth died. He looked into the coffin, and tears rolled down his cheeks. He had not lived with her for forty years.
