TERMS: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1882.

NUMBER 42.

The Spirit Ideal.

[Posthumous poem attributed to Edgar A. Poe. This poem was not published until many years after Mr. Poe's death. It is written in the style of his "Raven," which fact will be readily recognized by all admirate the poet of From the throne of life eternal,
From the home of love supernal,
Where angel feet make music over all the Section—the heart of the Black mountains and looked in her white evening dress.

Presently she seemed laughingly to dismiss her little court, and came out alone upon the veranda. Max stepped starry floor.

ortals, I have come to meet you Come with words of peace to greet you, And to tell you of the glory that is mine for-Once before I found a mortal

Waiting at the heavenly portal-Waiting but to catch some echo from that ever opening door,
Then I seized his quickened being, And through all his inward seeming, Caused my burning inspiration in a flery flood to pour.

Now I come more meekly human, With the weak lips of a woman Touched with fire from off the altar, not with burning as of yore, But in holy love ascending, With her chastened being blending, I would fill your souls with music from the bright celestial shore.

As one heart yearns for another, As a child turns to its mother, From the golden gates of glory turn I to the earth once more, Where I drained the cup of sadness Where my soul was stung to madness, And life's bitter burning billows swept my burdened being o'er. Here the harpies and the ravens, Human vampires, sordid cravens, Preyed upon my soul and substance writhed with anguish sore. Life and I seemed then mismated, For I felt accursed and fated, the Stygian shore. Tortured by a nameless yearning, Did the purple pulsing life-tide through its Till the "golden bowl," life's token-

And my chafed and chafing spirit leaped from out its prison door. But while living, striving, dying, Never did my soul cease crying, "Ye who guide the fates and furies, give, oh! give me, I implore! From the myriad hosts of nations,

One pure spirit that can love me-one that I, Through this fervent aspiration, quickened spirit soar; Not too saintly to be real-Burst more brightly on my vision than the fancy-formed Lenore.

'Mid the surging seas she found me, and my saddened sinking spirit in her arms Like a lone one weak and weary, Wandering in the midnight dreary, On her sinless, saintly bosom, brought me to the heavenly shore. Like the prayers of saints ascending, our souls forevermore.

thly love and lust enslaved me. But divinest love hath saved me, And I know now first and only how to lov Oh my mortal friends and brothers, e are each and all another's! And the soul that gives most freely from its Would you lose your life you find it; And in giving love, you bind it, Like an amulet of safety to your heart forev-

MARRIED IN HASTE.

"I demand this, because I consider marriage with such a girl as I know Violet Du Hayne to be, the only hope left of reclaiming you from a life of dissipation. On no other condition will I advance the large sum for which have no alternative—I accept your not prize it very highly conditions on these terms: First, that "I do not prize it at a the young lady be told that I am marrying as my only means of obtain- half of my kingdom for it." ing a sum of money which is a matter of life and death to me. Secondly, that looks like an heirloom?" atternoon. I will run down to Arden on the 3 o'clock train. You can have a clergyman weiting in the cannot take it." atternoon. I will run down to Arden on the 3 o'clock train. You can have a clergyman waiting in the grand was only jesting.

The other, as he leaned over the seast operating rooms," and, entering a door the other, as he leaned over the seast operating rooms," and, entering a door the profits of the other, as he leaned over the seast operating rooms, and, entering a door the season dred printing offices in all Europe—to guard against frost. Cranberry the professor led me through a suit of scarcely more than are now found in picking is made the holiday of the close of the season operating rooms, and, entering a door the season dred printing offices in all Europe—to guard against frost. Cranberry the professor led me through a suit of scarcely more than are now found in picking is made the holiday of the close of the season operating rooms, and entering a door the season operating rooms.

a wide-awake pushed back from his good-looking, sunburnt face, a gun over his shoulder, but little thought of shooting in his mind. He was peering through the boughs at what? Only a girl whom he had once seen in town, and of late watched many times from his leafy covert, feeling, as Olivia says, the said as he had not seen her for so long. "Only a week," she answered, cheerfully. "It is my mother who was ill; but she has recovered now, thank you." his leafy covert, feeling, as Olivia says, her "perfections with an invisible and subtle stealth to creep in at his eyes,"

She sat on the other side of the he could not represe.

into the little stream. In a second he had sprung after it, right? Because I love you."
"So soon?"—incredulously. fished it out, and was presenting it with a low bow, saying: "May I not claim acquaintance by virtue of this happy chance and our last meeting?"

"Our last meeting!" The young lady shrank from him in undisguised

"Good heaven, Miss Harding! how have I alarmed you? Do I look like a tramp in my shooting-clothes? Indeed I am respectable. My name is Arden—Max Arden. I had the honor of an introduction at Mrs. Montfort's reception, last winter."

A sight freely the head to be a sight for a moment. Then, in soft, vibrating tones:

"No, I cannot jest. I have something serious to say to you, Mr. Arden.

A sigh of relief, then hesitatingly: then, and I-I-your decision, bitterly as I regret it." Then he lifted his hat and left her. Now which of his wild doings had one should come. Do get up. come to those dainty ears and brought this blow upon him? for blow it was, this blow upon him? for blow it was. He was surprised to find how severe a one. For, after all, what did he know at once."

"Well, in that case"—with pretended reluctance—"I had better forgive you at once." intensity, he longed to look into her face once more, perhaps inquire the reason of the soft, regretful gaze that had followed him as he turned away.

Patter! Patter! Big drops broke in upon his meditations. A true pelting, linding, mountain storm was coming Found my fainting soul salvation, umbrella, a slim serge-clad figure pre-for from out its blackened fire-crypts did my umbrella, a slim serge-clad figure pre-all along under the house, and is sented themselves to his view. He reigned over by a big black bear, weigh-scarcely knew what I said."

"Miss Harding-"

"And I would give-even unto the "Would you give that ring which Instantly it lay in her hand.

horse saddled, Stevens? I return to randa of the Mountain house listening town to-night. In the future, as in to strains of music from the ballroom the past, our paths lie separate.

HB

FRED KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

* * * * * * time for queen among them moved the Scene—the heart of the Black moun-

So we are going to-morrow."
"Going where?" with an eagerness "Why should I tell you, Mr. Arden?" mountain brook, busily sketching; and as he watched, her sketch-book fell with cold surprise.

"That I may follow you. By what "Ay; 'even so quickly one may catch the plague,'" he quoted, with a bitter laugh. "And the pursuit of happiness is one of the unalienable rights of man, you know." "But when man fancies his happi-ness to be a woman and she does not like pursuit, has she no unalienable thing serious to say to you, Mr. Arden "Oh, yes, I remember you quite band who casts me off. Hush, and well, Mr. Arden; but I—I—you must listen. I was persuaded into a hasty excuse me—I have heard of you since marriage, partly by love of mother marriage, partly by love of marriage, partl nen, and 1-1

"You have heard of me; nothing to which she had educated me to feel." my credit, I fear," he said, slowly, Besides, I met him accidentally in so-after waiting in vain for her to finish, "and you wish to decline knowing me. Max, take your arm away. Believe For I reit accursed and race,

"and you wish to decline the submit to me, I was not told by what means he is it not so? Well, I must submit to me, I was not told by what means he was forced into marriage! What! kneeling to me, Max? Suppose so "Not till you forgive me

> It is not five years since Max married in haste, but he has not yet re-

Battle With a Bear. Montreal has a noted character called up. Arden hastened to take refuge in a small cave he knew of. Was it kind chance or irony of fate? The cave was occupied. A sketch-book, an was occupied. A sketch-book, an analysis of the cave was occupied. A sketch-book, an analysis of the cave was occupied. A sketch-book, an occupied forward for the cave was occupied. ented themselves to be a comparation of the compara "I would not force my company among his domestic pets. One afterupon you," he returned, stiffly.
"Pray, pray, don't let me drive you out into this pouring rain," she entreated; "you are punishing me severely for my late rudeness. I was so surprised and frightened then—I—I while Joe went into the barroom, his carcely knew what I said."

She put out her hand to detain him. little boy, six years old, went too near the edge and fell into the den. The old Like a flash Arden's mind went bears were in a dark corner, but one of back to the last time soft fingers had the cubs at once ran toward the child, cook laid down on the floor, and, reach-"If you grant me shelter, it is equiva-lent to accepting my friendship," he said, allowing himself to be drawn into the cave and seating himself so as to shield her from the rain which now began to beat in.

"Now, you might almost as well be outside as do that," said the girl, reproachfully. "What a deluge it is!" peering out over his shoulder.

"Now, you might almost as well be outside as do that," said the girl, represented by the claws of the she bear. Joe, hearing the noise, came to the door and safety his ability in it was in the control of the claws of the she bear. ering out over his shoulder.

The damp air heightened her color the jaws of death, did not hesitate for and sent little rings of golden brown hair curling madly over her pretty forehead, her violet eyes shone, and her face—it was the fairest that e'er the managed by a frantie effort to tear his child from the mun shone on.

Max Arden thought so as he anIn another instant he handed swered dreamily:

"I wish it could last forty days!"

"What a good conscience you must have!" gayly; "now, I should be too afraid of being drowned with the rest of the sinners."

"Miss Harding..."

In another listant he handed the little fellow up among the almost paralyzed spectators. The moment the child was out of the pit the she bear growled fiercely and sprang on Joe, who had no arms to defend himself. The savage brute seized him handed. "Miss Harding—"
"Who told you my name was Miss back. Her teeth were driven fully will I advance the large sum for which you ask. In spite of all that has passed, your still affectionate mother, "Eugenia Arden."

The written page looked as hard and unchanging to Max's fancy as its author.

There was that bill which Hardy had indorsed for him falling due within three days. It would be total ruin to see a lady."

"Who told you my hame was Miss had say. Is back. Her teeth were driven fully half an inch into his flesh. He was then completely at the mercy of the animal, whose tameness had disappeared, it being enraged at having the child taken away. Joe did not lose presence of mind, but seized a brick which lay near him and struck the bear on the nose with all his might. The brute let go her hold and Joe scrope up and down the room, biting his long, fair mustache.

Marriage! He had never seen his mother's ward. She had arrived at Arden after the estrangement between mother and son; but, at all events, there was no one else he wanted to marry.

We were running through South had made him feel like echolong Geraint's, "There, by God's grace, stands the one maid for me!"

"This will she had telbed to make the condition of the condition of the low with a retrible eye and a shoulders" "A man could not be in low with girl he had telbed to many stronging his broad shoulders" "A man could not be in low with girl he had telbed to many stronging his broad shoulders" "A man could not be in low with girl he had telbed to many stronging his broad shoulders" "A man could not be in low with girl he had telbed to make the condulation of the could not be in provided at an and ungrammatical, "and a saviet great of the could be dangerous to again to the condition of the could not be in low with a ferrible eye and a voice fellow. The more perfectly this is small station. I think most of the could not be in low with a terrible eye and a voice fellow. The more perfectly this is done the less limping you will be small station. I think most of the part of the date of the totally renewed every feet the status with his doubt. The close of the feats with him the totally renewed every feet the totally renewed every feet first to from the feed like swith him the doubt of the totally renewed every feet f "You—you are quite mistaken in—
in any conclusions you may draw,"
but one course open to him to save Hardy's honor and his own.

He sat down, and dashed off in heavy black letters:

"Mother You are using the power given you by my father's will—as you have always done—tyrannically. But I have no alternative—I accept your

"You—you are quite mistaken in—
in any conclusions you may draw,"
in any conclusions you may draw,"
in any conclusions you may draw,"
in any conclusions you may draw, in any conclusions, there was been though they are already tolerably well supplied in those essentials. We use real hair and to be them, who died in 1468; Johann Faust, or Fust, of Mentz, who died in 1468; Johann Faust, or Fust,
of Mentz, who died in 1468; Johann Faust, or Fust, of Mentz, who died in 1468; Johann Hausterd at the condied in 1468; Johann Faust, or Fust, of Mentz, who died in 1468; Johann Hausterd at the condied in 1468; Johann Faust, or Fust, of Mentz, who died in 1468; Johann Hausterd at the for Johann Gutenberg, of Mentz, who died in 1468; The Dutch place the date of in the Mentz alarged to them, who dea

A STRANGE OCCUPATION.

CENTRE

A New York "Professor" Who Renews Lost Noses, Ears, Eyelashes, Etc. On Fourteenth street, not far from On Fourteenth street, not far from Broadway, New York, is a certain show window, in front of which not less than ten thousand people stop every day. The window is rather larger than usual, projects outward in bay form, and is lined inside with plate-glass mirrors. Suspended in the center of the window by fine, almost invisible wires, are two cork legs which, operated by clock-work, move in an up-and-down motion as in walking. On shelves of thick glass, supported by depending wires, is the curious collection that attracts the thousands of passers-by. Noses, eyes, ears, joints and limbs, all arranged in perfecting," he continued, pointing to of more ancient kings than he. That the curious-looking thing he had been it should have been thought worth us. As for the few horses that were it should have been thought worth. eyeing through the magnifying glass.

Legs, Arms, Noses, Eyelashes, Etc., Made and Renewed.
Prof. R. W. Weighton, Proprietor.

"This nose is almost in a state of coming experiment in his laboratory a few

I was ordered to prepare a wax substitute."

"Do you mean by 'natural meat substitution' a real nose of flesh?" I asked.

script—revised and printer, about twenty years copies were in circulation. But it was not until the close of the thirteenth century that most of the literature of former ages, which had also existed only as writing upon manals of the latest fashion plates. The wildest also existed only as writing upon manals of Sardinia are past, with their Nose?' Well, it may be exaggerated but there is a great deal of truth in it. Miss B could never live in a very hot climate. Her nose might melt, giant rubbed along to where the young man sat and growled out:

"Stranger, what may be the first cost of such a hat as yours?"

The young man looked up with a flash in his big blue eyes and then turned to his paper without replying.

"Hey! Did you hear me!" roared the young man look was first practiced in England, in 1474; in Spain, in 1475. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year. In 1500 there were only about two hunting of the year.

great city of Babylon, which owed its chief greatness to Nebuchadnezzar, who died five hundred and sixty-one Pushing through the crowd that was ollected around, says a correspondent, entered and asked for Professor Veighton.

West of the Alleghanies, in Cincinnati, in 1793.

West of the Mississippi, at St. Louis, in 1808.—Washington Star. A gentleman behind the glass case and an enormous jewelers' magnifying glass that was screwed in his right eye, scanned me carefully, and not detecting the absence of a nose, or ear, or arm, or leg, finally said:

"I am Professor Weighton—what can I do for you, sir?"

"I wish to know, professor, by what process you renew legs, eyebrows and noses. It seems to me a rather odd and difficult profession."

"I to fine a professor, by what process you renew legs, eyebrows and noses. It seems to me a rather odd and difficult profession."

"I to fine a professor weighton—what can I do for you, sir?"

"I wish to know, professor, by what process you renew legs, eyebrows and noses. It seems to me a rather odd and difficult profession."

"I to fine a professor weighton—what can I do for you, sir?"

"I wish to know, professor, by what process you renew legs, eyebrows and noses. It seems to me a rather odd and difficult profession."

"I to kase eleven hours from Terrance and monotonous. Nothing but black hills on each side, which the railroad seems to cut in two. A stone wall lines each side of the way, surmounted with the remains of a square structure, the walls of which are composed of burnt brick of a pale yellow color, of excellent quality, bound together with lime cement and stamped with the name of Nebuchadnezzar. 3. The women of the Roman empire incova to Cagliari. Up to Macomer the seenery is dull and monotonous. Nothing but black hills on each side, which the railroad seems to cut in two. A stone wall lines each side of the way to protect the line of rail from what the procession."

"I wish to know, professor, by what processor, by what process you renew legs, eyebrows and nose, or early for the days at the processor of the done with a die of the way to fit take eleven hours from Terrance and excent yelloged in all sorts of luxuries and exc

There is reason to believe that print- are occasionally caught sight of with meeks ago she stooped over to examine the eccentric of a cog-wheel. Being short-sighted she incautiously bent too low. The wheel was revolving rapidly—a siz and a whiz! and the nose from the bridge down was shaved clean off. The family physician was sent for and wanted to make a nose from the arm of the many thing of the polymers. The same seem that the make a nose from the sixth century, though we with lamb-skins. Greasy streams of water and stagnant ditches intersect the landscape. At Macomer are seen the first houses. They are all small, less that we are told that in 932 Fung low and covered with red roofs. There asked.

"Certainly. The skin is removed from a certain portion of the arm, the proper preparations made, and the arm then bound tightly over the missing nose. The flesh soon adheres to the face, then the arm is detached and the nose is shaped. The advantage of this style of nose, while it may not be so shapely as its predecessor, is its durability. It will never come off. Now, a wax nose will look very pretty, and when her friends see Miss B—they will probably be more than ever in love with her beauty; but it doesn't last and will need constant repairing. It is scarcely so good as a celluloid. Have you ever read Poe's 'Story of the Wax Nose?' Well, it may be exaggerated, the flerature of former ages, which man also existed only as writing upon manalaso existed only as writing upon Spain and Sicily for designs on fabrics of silk and cotton, which were printed in ink, as early as the last years of the town was in holiday attire—a saint's twelfth century.

The next obvious advance was the four days. We reached Cagliari on the and would certainly soften."

"This is very interesting, professor," I remarked, "but is not your business small? I do not recollect seeing many people with artificial Zingara type, with olive complexions moses."

"This branch of my business is not large. We have, however, a good deal of repairing on old noses. The demand for legs and arms is steady and pays well. In addition to the number of people needing cork limbs, the limbs must be totally received avery for the fourteenth century. And again the printing of the Bible in Latin, a folio volume of 637 leaves, printed on vellum—a fine kind of parchment made from the skins of calves, kids or lambs cannot take it."

You named your mark a clergyman waiting in the grand drawing-room, who can unite the happy pair at once. Your son,

"Max Ardnex."

There never was a gloomier weeding. A heavy fall of snow had impeded the train, so that the early winter twilings and the best of the but never two as a little as he gazed at the safe of his yelled bride.

The clergyman hurriedly repeated the solemn service. The responses were duly made, and it was done.

"Embrace your wife, my son," said, dwarferd, with a vain attempt at fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a fash in his young lady no '-leardands the term, ing himself up to his frull height, with a flat had no 'no young man, drawning a done method-ally and the proposed; and the proposed can from young of the proposed and the term of the proposed the same and the proposed the special state of young words may proposed the toth the toth the toth the toth the theight of which I had not every word words may proposed the tables were noses in different stages of completion—some indifferent stages of completion—some indifferent

"THE ART PRESERVATIVE."

Some Interesting Facts Connected With the History of Printing.

Bell tittle alteration, continued in use 150 years. The press upon which Benjamin Franklin worked in London in 1725, and is preserved in the patent office in this city, is of clumsy construction.

In Lima in 1586. In Cambridge, Mass., in 1639. In New London, Conn., in 1709 In Charleston, S. C., in 1730. In Newport, R. I., in 1732. West of the Alleghanies, in Cincin-

The family physician was sent for and wanted to make a nose from the arm, but, aside from the pain of that operation, the uncertainty of turning out a well-shaped nose raised objections, and well-shaped nose raised objections, and such as the control of the family physician was sent for a wine, low and covered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. The low and covered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the wallthy wears a suit something like this: Rose-colored under robes, and if we althy wears a suit something like this: Rose-colored under robes, and if we all the discovered with red roots. There is a point of the discovered with red roots. The low and covered with red roots. The low and

A great deal of red will be worn by Street costumes are either very gay or very sober. little girls' wear.

Plush is as frequently used for child-ren's dressy wraps as for larger people. Little girls wear pelisses similar to those of their mothers and older sis-tures in the world, knew nothing of

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.

A Glance at the Belles of Early Ages Undoubtedly there is much idle talk about the wonderful extravagance of ladies of the present day, their pursu of constantly changing styles, and the luxuries demanded by those who can, or think they can, afford the expense One would be led to suppose, in the absence of knowledge to the contrary, that these were things of modern growth. But just look at the "style" they used to put on in early ages, and pearls and coins, and enveloped in a black serge pelisse. She uses paint on her face profusely, and her taste runs to cherry lips and cheeks and jet black eyebrows strongly drawn. An Albanian bride discards paint for a while, and bride discards paint for a while.

tunics and trousers of woolen stuff, with large boots, partly of leather, partly of blanket, which come up to the knee, and which they are fond of taking off at any time. In order to get greater warmth they often put a the third act, of the "Block Crock" get greater warmth they often put a the third act of the "Black Crook," are the first favorites of fashion.

ers.

Little girls' dresses are even more war and contention, but lived in unity and peace. At last the father suddenly the place of the wistaria, holding its bloom longer and being more hardy.

Mongols, plenty of room; their chartie. There can be no doubt that the acteristic is restlessness. The youngest theory is correct.—Beston Post. bloom longer and being more hardy.

Close toques and English hats, that have been worn for driving all summer abroad, are now heralded in New York.

Copper shades with electric blue; strawberry red with rifle green, and brown with green, are the contrasts of color favored for autumn toilets.

their enormous extravagance.

We are told that the ladies of Lesbos

Velvet round hats with high, square crowns and straight brims, square slept on roses whose perfume had been artificially heightened. And in those times court maidens powdered their hair with gold. Marc Antony's daughter did not thrust in the band.

Marc Antony's daughter did not change her dress half a dozen times a day, as do the Saratoga' graces, but she made the lampreys in her fish-pond wear earrings.

The dresses of Lollia Paulina, the rival of Aggripina, were valued at $2,664,480. This did not include her $2,664,480. This did not include her the seams are sewed up and bound to the edges. A surplice drapery of the seams are sewed up and bound to the edges. A surplice drapery of the seams are sewed up and bound to the edges.

citizen's supper. The luxury of Poppaea, beloved by Nero, was equal to a plaited scarf at the wrist if she be or it is difficult—you are perfectly right as to that—but I cannot agree with you that the business is at all odd. It is the simplest thing in the world. Look, for instance, at this nose I am perfecting. The continued, pointing to the entire inscribed with the names of Nebuchadnezzar. 3. A mound now called Amran, of irrequired triangular shape, and supposed to be the ruins of a palace older than Nebuchadnezzar's, for bricks have been found there inscribed with the names of Nebuchadnezzar. 3. A mound now called Amran, of irrequired, of triangular shape, and supposed to be the ruins of a palace older than Nebuchadnezzar's, for bricks have been found there inscribed with the names of Nebuchadnezzar. 3. A mound now called Amran, of irrequired, of fern, poor and thin; a stray ox looks a the train as it passes, or a saddleless rider gallops along the plain with his cap bag flying of more ancient times were fished. The beauties of ancient times were fished as your as modern belles, and spent to fern, poor and thin; a stray ox looks a look at the train as it passes, or a saddleless rider gallops along the plain with his cap bag flying found there inscribed with the name of Nebuchadnezzar. 3. A mound now called Amran, of irrequired. The beauties of ancient times were just as vain as modern belles, and spent to fern, poor and thin; a stray ox looks a look at the train as it passes, or a saddleless rider gallops. The use of cosmetics was universal among them. Aspasia and along the plain with his cap bag flying in the wind. Occasionally, also, a look at the train as it passes, or a saddleless rider gallops. The wind there inscribed with the names bushes of ancient times were just as vain as modern belles, and spent the graph of the day at their to get the day at t paint, and each wrote a treatise on cos- brothers, now playing at Pope's with it should have been thought worth while to print inscriptions upon material destined to be built into their dwellings, argues that the process was not only not an uncommon one, but the process was neither plant nor beast.

Seen, they were skeletons. An east wind blows from the hills, but it stirs neither plant nor beast.

Seen, they were skeletons. An east wind blows from the hills, but it stirs neither plant nor beast.

Seen, they were skeletons. An east wind blows from the hills, but it stirs neither plant nor beast.

the face.

An Albanian belle of the day presents a rather striking appearance.

She is, as a rule, gayly coifed with seed time he was able to do "easy kicking," inted, and in place. We are suddenly thrown in the place. We are suddenly thrown in the tuntil the close by that most of are villas and parks and bronze gates, that will make the joints limber with-

Africa is thus described: "Her skin otherwise putting the joints to an unwas leathery, coarse and wrinkled; her natural strain. While the gyrations was leathery, coarse and wrinkled; her figure was tottering and knock-kneed; her thin hair hung in greasy locks; on her wrists and ankles she had almost an arsenal of metal links of iron, brass work is very exhausting in its nature. and copper, strong enough to bind a prisoner in his cell. About her neck were hanging chains of iron, strips of leather, strings of wooden balls, and heaven knows what humber reces."

The fishwife's poke is the novelty for or tents, but led a migratory life, with-out being troubled with the cares of ex-Arabi red is the newest and liveliest istence, for the land was not then destan-colored, long-wristed loose gloves re the first favorites of fashion.

ert, or poor, or cold. Trees were growing which afforded choice fruits, rice flourished without man having to labor Plush artificial flowers and leaves are striking, elegant novelties in millinery.
Plush is as frequently used for child-uaint and picturesque than in sum- died. Each of his sons wanted his Castellated edges make a tasteful finish for basques and skirt-front breadths of cloth and cashmere dresses.

The old story is revived concerning the baptismal silver bowl of the Central Control of the Central Control

Students' caps of velvet with a soft crown, a shirred band, a large bow in front, and a bird's wing on the left side, are worn by young ladies, and are chosen to match the color of the ostume with which they are worn. Silk squares for the neck are doubled and pointed low in front, and the open space filled in with two frills of lace Sky blue, crushed strawberry and crevette squares are used, edges scalloped or trimmed with lace or hemstitched.

Velvet round hats with high, square feel where he is, he gets smashed flat! An exchange contains an article on "Young Women Who Die Early." This itly occurs; but the cases of old jewels. She wore at one supper $1,562,-surah over the bosom is added, and the 500 worth of jewels, and it was a plain sleeves are trimmed to match, with a Boston Post,

How to Become a Contortionist,

The St. Louis Chronicle says : Jesse, "This nose is almost in a state of completion, yet I'll venture to say you couldn't tell me what sort of a nose it will be, Grecian, Roman or retrouses!"

I admitted that I would not have known it was a nose if he had not kindly informed me.

The professor smiled proudly.

"I thought so," he said. "By tomorrow morning this will be one of the prettiest Grecian noses you ever saw. See what a handsome flesh tint I am giving it. It is for a lady on Fifty-segond street."

"How on earth did a lady lose her "How on earth did a lady lose her almost rendered her inconsolable. Her father is a well-known scientist and inventor. While watching an interest-in gexperiment in his laboratory a few works are so that there process was not only not an uncommon one, but all destined to be built into their works, and the hills, but it stirs not hill but it is tirs and short. It koks almost the earth of a first-class contortion act. The mether plant nor beast.

After a conple of hours of this dull ride we begin to see a few green, however, is pale and dusty-looking and the grass thin and short. It koks almost ashamed to be there. The sky is gray and colorless. A few solitary huts, with red roofs, are dotted over the landscape. At one of the stations there is a square meter of garden, which looks like a spot of brocaded salmost trendered her inconsolable. Her father is a well-known scientist and inventor. While watching an interest-in gexperiment in his laboratory a few works are only an ordinary boy. The professor sampled provided with some clearacters from a die to any substance, or, in the father is a well-known scientist and inventor. While watching an interest-in gexperiment in his laboratory a few works are only any ordinary boy. The professor sampled the professor suite and the professor suite and professor suite plant and stamped the began to have began to see a few green. The sky is gray and colorless. A few solitary huts, with red roofs, are dotted over the landscape. At one of the stations there is a square meter of garden

The Tartars despise prominent nasal appendages, and the woman who has the smallest nose is esteemed the most charming, but to outside barbarians she is a perfect fright.

The women of Spiti, in India, wear tunics and trousers of woolen stuff, with large boots, partly of leather, with large boots, partly of leather. quantity of flour into these boots.

Their taste in regard to ornaments runs much to all sorts of rings, including nose-rings.

A typical woman in the interior of Africa, is, thus, described. "Here here performers named appear, most of what is done is called "easy kicking"—that is, kicking over heads. "Hard kicking" consists in throwing the leg along the back, and

The Thibetan legend of the origin of the people is that in the beginning ne man and his three sons lived on the table-land. They had no houses Fashionable women wear laced shoes, but the button boot is by no means discorded.

This was the first dispute. The corpse lay for some days on a large rock, and lay for some days on a large rock, and the sons avoided one another. At last Combinations of materials in contrasting colors appear in Paris imported costumes.

A skirt of bright plaid worn with a jacket of imperial blue makes a very attractive costume.

The sons avoided one another. At last the sons avoided one another. The last the sons avoided one another. The last the sons avoided one another. At last the sons avoided one another. Jersey waists in new forms will be worn by little children, and to a limited extent by ladies.

English walking hats are trimmed with birds and bows of velvet and avelong streamers of ribbon at the ack. English walking hats are trimmed with birds and bows of velvet and have great skill in trade.

The second son was satisfied with his dead father's limbs. He also left his home and settled where the great forward for a knife and blindly rush forward for a fray? He did arise from the bed. And he crawled under the form the bed. And he crawled under the form the bed. The second son was satisfied with his home and settled where the great forward for a fray? He did arise from the bed. And he crawled under the form the bed. The second son was particularly the form the bed. The second son was particularly the form the bed. And he crawled under the form the bed. The second son was particularly the form the bed. The second son was particularly the form the bed. The second son was particularly the form the bed. The second son was particularly the form the bed. The second son was particularly the form the bed. And he crawled under the second son was particularly the second son was partic Origin of a Present to a Church. They are made more effective by being welted with a cord or fold of bias silk.

New basques are single-breasted. When ornamental bust drapery is added it takes the form of a long guimpe, or a short plastron, either square or oval, and made very full by gathers and folds.

Corded silks outnumber satins in im-Corded silks outnumber satins in im- nails the keg was full of silver dollars, ported dresses. These are to make a long, slender overdress, with skirts of rich brocaded silks that have the figures of plush or velvet thrown up on a corded silk surface.

nalls the keg was full of silver dollars, and it was out of these dollars the bowl was made. The late Leonard Bacon discredited the story, and perhaps the truth will never get into print.

Ah! it will matter by and by Lifted me skyward, helped to gain,

By and By.

Under a gray or a golden sky, When I look back on it by and by?

What will it matter by and by Whether unhelped I tolled alone,
Dashed my foot against a stone,
Missing the charge of the angel nigh,
Bidding me think of the by and by?

Whether with laughing joy I went Down through the years with a glad content, Never believing, nay, not I, Toars would be sweeter by and by?

What will it matter by and by

What will it matter by and by

Close by the pallid angel, Pain, Soothing myself through sob and sigh, "All will be elsewise by and by."

What will it matter? Naught, if X Only am sure the way I've trod, Gloomy or gladdened, leads to God— Questioning not of the how, the why,

If I but reach him by and by.

ven-home-all in all, by and by -Margaret J. Freston

HUMOR OF THE DAY. There's very little or no opposition to a red-hot poker. A boy is never so happy as when the family is moving and he walks through the streets to the new house wearing a table on his head.—Texas Siftings. Asks a humanitarian: "Do you not feel for the poor fly, as cold weather approaches?" We do? And if we nen who die early are very few A Chinaman has written a poem on a grain of rice. Let American poets follow his example. Grains of rice won't fill up a waste basket very fast.—

An easy job: Robinson (after a long whist bout at the club)—"It is awfully late, Brown. What will you say to your wife?" Brown (in a whisper)—"Oh Taban" your wife?" Brown (in a whisper)—
"Oh, I shan't say much, you know.
'Good-morning, dear,' or something of that sort. She'll say the rest."—Quiz. "Well, how are you making it now?"

for another year I will be able to retire on a very handsome incompetency."— She can work a fancy screen, Just the nicest ever seen, a style that all her "culchahed" set en-we asked of a former merchant, who had abandoned a lucrative business to chants;

But, my friend, 'twixt you and me,
It would chill a man to see w she stitched a patch upon her old man's pants.

—The Judge. "I don't believe a word of it!" ex-claimed Brown. "This theory that man descended from a monkey is all onsense. The two races are no more alike than nothing at all. You can't tell me—" "Oh, yes, I can," interrupted Fogg; "the monkeys don't wear clothes."—Boston Transcript.

"See, here, my dear, how beautifully the sun brings out the dewdrops this morning. They glisten like—like—"
"Like diamonds, pa. They remind me ever so much of some I saw yesterday." The old gentleman turned the conversation immediately, but the liamonds have got to be bought .-Boston Globe. According to the veraci Orleans Picayune the king of Holland sometimes walks all night in the populous part of the Hague. When he reaches home he personally supervises the frying of his potatoes, which he takes with several glasses of beer.

He has a heap more fun than the czar A traveler was leaning at nigh

"Bill Nye" Accepts a Postmastership. Among recent commissions issued by Acting Postmaster-General Hat-ton is one to "Bill Nye," lately appointed postmaster at Laramic City W. T. Nye is the editor of a paper called the Doily Boomerang. In accepting the nomination he says:
TO MY DEAR GENERAL: I have To My Dear General: I have received the news by telegraph of my nomination and confirmation as postmaster at Laramie, and wish to extend my thanks for the same. I have ordered an entirely new set of boxes and postoffice outfit, including new corrugated cuspidores for use of clerks. I look upon the appointment myself as a triumph of eternal truth over error and wrong. It is one of the epochs, as I may say, in the nation's onward march toward political purity and perfection. I don't know when I have noticed any stride in the affairs of state which so thoroughly impressed me with its wisdom. Now that we are coworkers in the same department, I trust that you will not feel shy or backward in consulting me at any time relative to matters concerning postoffice department affairs. Be perfectly frank with me, and feel perfectly free just to bring anything of that kind right to me. Do not feel reluctant because I may appear at times cold and right to me. Do not feel reluctant because I may appear at times cold and reserved. Perhaps you think I do not know the difference between a general delivery window and a three-em quad, but that is a mistake. My general information is far beyond those of my years. With profoundest regards, I remain sincerely yours,

BILL NYE, P. M.

by a dream. We recently experimented with this theory and found it worked

"And you say that you are innocent of the charge of stealing a rooster from Mr. Jones?" asked an Arkansas judge of a meek-looking prisoner.
"Yes, sir, I am innocent; as inno "You are confident that you did not

"Yes, sir, I can prove it."
"How can you prove it?"
"I can prove that I didn't steal Mr.
Jones' rooster, judge, because I stole two hens from Mr. Graston the same steal the rooster from Mr. Jones?"

"The proof is conclusive," said the judge. "Discharge the prisoner."—Arkansaw Traveler.

A watermelon vine 990 feet in length