Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.—The associations of Bellefonte, State College, Centre Hall, and other places, met at the Centre Hall on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The first meeting on Friday evening was a step reception to young men held in the hall. There was a large attendance, over 40 young men being present. The exercises were informal. The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. orchestra was present and directed a concert of excellent music. Refreshments were served through the kindness of some of the Centre Hall ladies. On Saturday a conference of special pleasure was held in the hall in the forenoon and afternoon, when J. W. Gehepelt, of Bellefonte, very forcibly presented the work for boys. In the evening a meeting was held in the Lutheran church, and was addressed by Messrs. Gehepelt, of State College; J. W. Miller, general secretary of Bellefonte, and State Secy Taggart. On Sunday morning a conference meeting was held in the hall in the afternoon at same place a deeply impressive meeting for young men. At the same hour in the M. E. church a meeting for ladies was held, and the work they could do in co-operation with the association was explained, and much interest was manifested. In the evening the Reformed church was the scene of a very interesting heart, Taggart and others spoke on the claims of the association upon the people in general, for which the convention adjourned.

This being the week of prayer for the young men, the M. E. church, therefore, will have meetings held in the Y. M. C. A. hall every evening this week, Wednesday excepted.

NECROMANCY. (Pittsburg Post.) The grand jury has found a true bill against Peter Ammon, of the South Side, charged with being a witch doctor. Mrs. M. Donald, of Lawrenceville, is the possessor. Ammon was called to attend a sick woman, who died, and the doctor was accused of witchcraft. Ammon was called to attend a sick woman, who died, and the doctor was accused of witchcraft. Ammon was called to attend a sick woman, who died, and the doctor was accused of witchcraft.
