THE WEEK'S NEWS.

Eastern and Middle States.

WHILE in a state of mental aberratio Mrs. Margaret Seguin, wife of Dr. Edward C. Seguin, a prominent New York physician, killed her three children and then committed suicide. She took the children to a room on the top floor of her house, in West Twentieth street, locked the door, blindfolded the children-two boys and one girl-and tied their hands behind their backs, and then shot them. Then she shot herself. No cause is known for the crime except that Mrs. Seguin had become temporarily insane. The family consisted of Dr. Seguin, Mrs. Margaret Seguin and their three little children, Edward D., John Van Duyn and Jeannette, a bright little girl of four years, and the special pet of her father. The two boys returns indicated that the Republicans nate gained one or two Congressmen, although the vote in some instances was very close.

New Hampshire elected a governor, and three railroad commissioners, a legislature (which will choose a United States Senators) and 2 Representatives—a loss of 1. It gave Garfield 3,34 majority. Its present Representatives are Republicans. On the evening after election William E. Chandler telegraphed to President Arthur as follows: We have elected two Congressmen and the legislature by a large majority. Hale (Republican candidate for governor) will probably be elected by a small majority.

New Jersey elected six State senators, a full assembly and seven Representatives, of its present Representatives 4 are Republicans and 3 Democratis. The next legislature will elect a United States Senator. Robeson, Republican candidate for Congress, was defeated. Sufficient gains were reported made by the Democratis in the election of candidates for the legislature to insure a Democratic legislature in joint ballot.

A Tunislan Court.

In Tunis, the bighest judge in the land is the bey himself. The subordinate judges are the commanders of towns and the governors of provinces. If a person is dissatisfied with their judgment he may appeal to the bey. If two persons wish a dispute decided, and are unwilling to trust the town cadi, they may travel to Tunis and bring their case before the bey.

Strange as it may seem, the Tunisians prefer a single judge to several, as they have only to bribe one instead of two or more. The ambition of government of the service of the servi
