A Lecture to Young Men ON THE LOSS OF MANHOOD

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Seminal Weakness, or Syphilis, Impotency, Nervous Debility and Impediments to Marriage generally, Consumption, Kidney and Piles, Mercurial and Physical Impairment, etc., by ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., and author of the "Gross Book," etc.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed, without dangerous surgical operations, bleedings, instruments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps. Address of the universal success of Brown's Iron Bitters is simply this: It is the best Iron preparation ever made; is compounded on thoroughly scientific, chemical and medicinal principles, and does just what is claimed for it—no more and no less.

By thorough and rapid assimilation with the blood, it reaches every part of the system, healing, purifying and strengthening. Commencing at the foundation it builds up and restores lost health—in no other way can lasting benefit be obtained.

27 Dearborn Ave., Chicago, Nov. 7. I have been a great sufferer from a very weak stomach, heartburn, and dyspepsia in its worst form. Nearly everything I ate gave me distress, and I could eat but little. I have tried everything recommended, and none of the old remedies, and am a new man. I am getting much stronger, and feel first-rate. I am a railroad engineer, and now make my trips regularly. I can not say too much in praise of your wonderful medicine. D. C. MACK.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not contain whiskey or alcohol, and will not blacken the teeth, or cause headache and constipation. It will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, sleeplessness, dizziness, nervous debility, weakness, &c.

Use only Brown's Iron Bitters made by Brown Chemical Co., Baltimore. Crossed red lines and trade-mark on wrapper.

New York Weekly Herald.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

The circulation of this popular newspaper is constantly increasing. It contains all the leading news of the Daily Herald and is arranged in a handy department.

Foreign News embraces special dispatches from all quarters of the globe. Under the head of American News are given the telegraphic Despatches of the week from all parts of the United States. This feature alone makes

The Weekly Herald the most valuable chronicle in the world, as it is the cheapest. Every week is given a faithful report of Political News embracing complete and comprehensive despatches from Washington, including full reports of the speeches of eminent politicians on the questions of the hour.

The Farm Department of the Weekly Herald gives the latest as well as the most practical suggestions and discoveries relating to the duties of the farmer, hints for raising cattle, grains, trees, vegetables, etc., with suggestions for keeping buildings and farming utensils in repair. This is supplemented by a weekly department, widely copied, under the head of

The Home, giving receipts for practical dishes, hints for making clothing and for keeping up with the latest fashions at the lowest prices. Every item of cooking or household economy in this department is practically tested before publication. Letters from our readers and householders on the very latest in housekeeping are found in the specially reported prices and conditions of the Produce Market. Sporting news, horse and circus, together with a literary, musical, dramatic, personal and local news column, are given in the latest issue of the "Weekly Herald," which is sent, postpaid, free, for One Dollar. You can subscribe at any time.

CENTRE HALL, PA. Jan. 11, 1883.

The Largest Paper in Centre County.

For the Family Scrap Book.

A handful of flour bound on a cut will immediately stop the bleeding.

Let clothes that fade soak over night in one ounce of lead in a pail of water.

All stains should be removed from white goods before they are wet or put into the wash.

To temper a glass jar so that it can be at once filled with anything hot, put into it a silver spoon.

An excellent furniture polish is of equal parts of shellac varnish, linseed oil and spirits of wine.

After washing cut-glass articles let them dry thoroughly and then rub with prepared chalk and a soft brush.

To prevent discoloration from bruises apply a cloth rung out in very hot water, and renew frequently until the pain ceases.

To remove ink-stains from linen, put the stained part in pure melted tallow; then wash out the tallow, and the ink will disappear.

Do not put glass articles that have held milk into hot water, as this causes the milk to penetrate the glass, and it can never be removed.

The best and easiest way to clean white paint is to use enough spirits of ammonia to soften the water, and ordinary hard soap, and rub well.

A little powdered resin sprinkled on to a cut will prevent inflammation; put a soft cloth around the finger and wet it with water frequently.

To clean copper tea-kettles, use turpentine and fine brick-dust, and rub hard with a flannel, and polish with a leather and dry brick-dust.

To clean hair-brushes, use ammonia and hot water; after washing well, shake the water out and dry on coarse towel, and they will look as good as new.

One tablespoonful of bromo-chloralum to eight of soft water makes an excellent deodorizer, and will purify the sick room of any offensive smells.

Silver should never be washed with soap if you wish it to retain its original luster. When it requires polishing use a piece of soft leather and whiting and rub hard.

An excellent polish for zinc or tin is made of three parts of water, one ounce of nitric acid, two ounces of emery, and eight ounces pumice-stone shaken well together.

To ew a rusty and discolored chandelier, apply a mixture of bronze powder and copal varnish. The druggist where they are purchased will tell you in what proportion they should be mixed.

To remove claret stains, spread a little salt over the stain while fresh; if the stain is an old one, wet it and rub on the spot pulverized chalk and salt, and lay it in the sun. Repeat this process, keeping it damp, until it is all out.

To destroy bed-bugs, moths and other vermin, make a strong solution of alum and hot water, and apply with a paint brush to the furniture or cracks in the wall; or if moths have lodged in the borders of carpets, wet the edges thoroughly.

To wash a carpet, spread it where you can use a brush, and scrub as you would a floor. Scrape one peck of Irish potatoes into two pails of water and let them stand over night; when ready to use add more water and two ounces of beef gall. When dry brush hard with a broom.

To clean marble, dissolve in water which has been added one teaspoonful of washing soda, a large lump of Spanish whiting, making a paste; apply to the marble with a flannel cloth, rubbing well, and leave it on for some time and, if necessary, repeat the process. Wash off thoroughly with soap and water, then dry and polish with a soft duster.

To clean black silk in a simple way, brush the silk thoroughly and wipe with a cloth. Then stretch flat on a table and sponge with hot coffee that has been strained through muslin, on the side intended to show; when it is partially dry, iron on the wrong side. This will restore the brilliancy of the silk and give it a thickened appearance.

PERUNA.

This medicine was introduced to the medical profession and to the public at large by S. B. Hartman, M. D., in 1877 after he had prescribed it to over 40,000 patients in almost every disease to which flesh is heir.

It is wholly composed of numerous vegetable ingredients, each one of which is acknowledged by the medical profession to be the most potent of all the herbal remedies known to medical science.

But its great virtue is mainly attributable to the new and peculiar proportions in which the harmonious ingredients are combined, and to the extreme care exercised in its manufacture, using only the pure, active principles, and excluding all that is crude or irritating. No one should be without Peruna.

At Reading, Pa., a cannon loaded with powder and stones was discharged at a church while watch meeting services were being held inside.

A shock of earthquake was felt at Rock and Me., and vicinity on Sunday night, 31st

F. Townsel, Wrightville, Pa., says: I am sure Brown's Iron Bitters cures in every case where directions are followed.

ENCOURAGING.

Having been encouraged by the steady increase of business, I have remodelled, and added to the external as well as to the internal appearance of my DRUG HOUSE, thereby making it more attractive to my customers. I would now bank my customers for their liberal patronage in the past, and solicit a continuation of the same. My stock is as neat as possible. I am in complete communication with the principal Drug Houses of New York and Philadelphia and am supplied with cuts and price lists, and anything in my line not kept in stock, will be sent for at once and delivered at the same price that it could be bought at if you went or sent yourself. I buy my drugs for cash, pay no discounts, which enables me to sell just as cheap as any other drug store in the county. All business between dealer and customer strictly confidential. J. D. 1883. THE SUN. 1883.

More people read THE SUN during the year just now passed than ever before since it was first printed. And then to the public at large, the interest of the earth has been brought and read by so many men.

We are credibly informed that people buy, read, and like THE SUN for the following reasons, among others:

Because its news columns present in attractive form and in the most interesting and instructive manner all the news of the day, the events, the deaths and marriages, the wisdom, the philosophy, the notable facts of the world, the interesting news—all the news of the business world at present.

Because people have learned that in its remarks concerning persons and affairs, THE SUN makes a practice of telling them the exact truth to the best of its ability three hundred and sixty days in the year, and that it is not a party paper, but a paper for the whole world.

Because it is everybody's newspaper. No man is so humble as to read THE SUN, and no man is so vain as to refuse to read it. No man is so rich that he can afford to be without it, and no man is so poor that he cannot afford to read it. It is a paper for all people, and it is a paper for all times.

Because in politics it has fought for a dozen years, without intermission, and sometimes almost alone among newspapers, the right has resulted in the recent overwhelming popular verdict against the Republican and for honest government. No matter what party is in power, THE SUN stands and will continue to stand for the interests of the people against the ambition of houses, the servile sycophancy of politicians, and the dishonest schemes of public robbers.

All this is what we are told almost daily by our friends. One man holds that it is the best religious newspaper ever published, because its Christianity is unfeignedly and unreservedly proclaimed.

Another holds that it is the best Republican newspaper printed, because it has always been and is now, in every respect, the best magazine of general literature in existence, because the readers miss nothing worthy of notice which is current in the world of thought. No every friend of THE SUN discovers one of its many ideas that apply with particular force to his individual situation.

Another already knows THE SUN, you will observe that it is not a bit better than here before, if you do not already know THE SUN, you will find it to be a mirror of all a man's activity, a storehouse of the choicest products of common sense and imagination, a mainstay for the eyes of honest government, a sentinel for genuine Jeffersonian Democracy, a source for wisdom and of every sports, and an uncommonly good investment for the coming year.

PE-RU-NA

Is a new remedy, originally compounded and introduced to the medical profession, and then to the public at large, by S. B. Hartman, M. D. He has prescribed it to over 40,000 patients, and with the most extraordinary results.

In effect upon the system it entirely removes all that is
