LOCAL ITEMS.

—Weather chilly and damp.

The sale of the Love farm has been postponed to January 20.

—Had about three inches of snow, on 5th, which afforded a taste of sleighing.

—Jos. L. Neff, of R-land, advertises his card as Auctioneer in REFORMATORY. He ranks among the best.

—Read public sales advertised in REFORMATORY by Ph. Stover, Aaronsburg, also by F. A. Yearick, near Madisonburg.

—The farm of Dan'l Mosser, dec'd, near Bualsburg, 112 acres, was knocked off to Mrs. Dr. Fisher, of Bualsburg, at $4000. Very cheap.

—For a good, cheap overcoat or a nice suit of cloth for man or boy, go to Dinges, where you can purchase clothing, or any other goods, cheaper than elsewhere.

—Mr. Louis Showalter, of Woodward, died after a lingering illness on December 27, at Laureton.

—Small profits and quick sales, is the motto at the Pennsylvania bargain store. All goods sold upon that principle only.

—Lewis Rosenan, of near this place with two horses and wagon, hauled 6, 300 pounds of ice, to this town on one load. Distance about one mile.

—The sale of the farm of Joseph Shirk, dec'd, has been postponed to January 8.

—John Kligie, of Frankintown, York county, purchased a large bull. His 300-pound boar and the bull got into a fight, and it ended in the bull dropping dead.

For low prices in job work, sale bills etc., call at the Reporter office, or send your orders by mail. Try us.

—The Clinton Democrat has cutered its 43 year. It is always full of freshness and vigor, and we place it among our most valued exchanges.

J. N. LEITZEL, Auctioneer, Spring Mills—satisfaction guaranteed, and charges moderate. 11Jan31

—Notwithstanding the Co. Commissioners have been active in having old tax delinquents settled up, there are still some $60,000 of outstanding taxes.

—We call the attention of any of our readers who are in want of a salaried situation, and who can fill the bill, to the advertisement in another column of B. G. Chase & Co., headed "Wanted." Write to them for particulars. 4Jan31

—We omitted to state, last week that the farm of John Hess, deceased, in Haines twp., was knocked off at $125 per acre, as mentioned then to Michael F. Hess.

—Big hogs are not things of the past. John F. Kreis informs us he witnessed the weighing of three dressed hogs, at Milton, last week, with the following score: 719, 773 and 957.

—For general assortment of goods, late styles and low prices, Dinges, of the Pennsylvania bargain store, stands prominent above all others. Its place where it does money buys much goods.

—Mr. David A. Ruhl, about 25 years ago a prominent merchant at Milton, died recently in his house in Illinois. Mr. Ruhl was in on a visit and spent the greater part of last fall among his relatives in Union county being in ill health.

—The original "Chatterbox," with its full-page pictures and interlarded descriptions, still maintains its high place as a deliverer of children who can read. Published monthly by Estes & Lauriat, Boston, Mass., at $1 per annum, or 10 cts. a copy.

—Lewistown is agog with excitement over the rumor that a large ship, to hold sixteen engines, is to be built at the junction in the spring, and that the local freight now running between Mifflin, Altoona, Huntingdon and Harrisburg, will start from Lewistown junction.

—The new grocery of Harry Teats, opposite the Bush house, is stocked with a full assortment of any thing wanted for the table, including dishes, glass and China-ware, pure molasses, all kinds of dried meats, fish, canned and dried fruits. All kinds of country produce wanted.

—Lock Haven market: Butter 25 to 32c per pound, eggs 28c per dozen, potatoes 75c per bushel, chickens 50 to 80c per pair, lard 17c per pound, apple butter 75c per gallon, corn 75c, oats 50c, turnips 40c, celery 5 to 8c per stock, cabbage 5 to 10c per head, apples 75c to $1.25 per bu., chestnuts 15c per quart, ducks 70c per pair, honey 20c per pound, turkeys $1 to $1.25 each, by the pound 15c, geese 70c each, sourkraut 5c per qt.

—When the United States census is finished it will show that the amount of ready-made clothing sold in the United States by the Philadelphia Branch, exceeds that of 6,000 other houses. People all buy overcoats and suits of Lewis, because they know from $5 to $15 is saved on each purchase.

A DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT.

Public Installation of Officers Given by Progress Grange, P. of H.

Progress Grange, at Centre Hall, gave a public installation and entertainment at their hall on Wednesday afternoon, 3rd instant, which reflected great credit upon themselves and the community at large.

At 2 o'clock p. m. the members and their families and invited guests began to arrive, until 2 p. m. every available seat and space in their hall was crowded to its full capacity.

As soon as all could be comfortably seated the Master's gavel fell and the meeting opened with the appropriate installation ceremonies of the Order.

The assemblage was then greeted by two little girls coming out upon the platform holding between them the motto and pronouncing the word "Welcome" to the assembled guests; then stepping forward were seated on the front steps of the stage, when seven little boys and girls came forward, and each in turn recited a verse ending with each alternate letter of the word "Welcome" at the same time turning a card exposing the letter assigned to them, at the close the entire class pronounced the word "Welcome" and recited the closing verse together.

This was a novel but appropriate greeting to the assemblage and was heartily applauded.

The Master of the State Grange was then introduced and installed the officers for the ensuing year in accordance with the beautiful and appropriate ceremonies of the Order.

Officers installed: James A. Keller, Master; Joshua Putter, Overseer; Mrs. M. S. Rhone, Lecturer; Levi Stump, Steward; W. H. Kohler, Asst. Steward; John Emerick, Chaplain; Dan'l Fleisher, Treasurer; W. Neff, Secretary; James Rubie, Gate-keeper; Miss M. V. Rhone, Pomona; Miss Belle Keller, Flora; Miss Hallie Stump, Celina; Miss Mattie Boal, Lad; Asst. Steward.

At the close of the installation, several young ladies were introduced who recited a very appropriate dialogue entitled "Perseverance"—it was short but very naturally played and merited the hearty applause it received.

Then was given a tableau—"Santa Clause," and a real one it was too; for when the curtain was drawn one of the characters appeared and asked the children all to separate themselves to one side of the house, when he was challenged by them to "come on." He, not to be out done, went into their midst and distributed lots of good things to their surprise.

Speeches were also made by farmers on the importance of the course of studies in our common schools being so arranged as to teach the natural sciences of Botany, Entomology, etc. instead of the higher mathematics of Algebra, Geometry, etc., which are of but little use in the ordinary vocations of life.

The unjust and unequal burdens of taxation upon agriculture as compared with other property were discussed. Altogether it was a most delightful and profitable entertainment participated in by parents and children. It will evidently be only a few years until all this vexed concourse of little folks will be in the Order as they can now scarcely be restrained from joining with their parents, and as they arrive at the age of 14 years one after the other is being enrolled in its membership. MORON.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Elias Klinger, of Illinois, is in on a visit to his former home. He tells us times are good out there and money plenty.

John Wise and T. A. Yearick, of near Madisonburg, favored us with a call. Mr. Yearick has advertised his sale in the Reporter, and intends going to Missouri in the spring.

John F. Kreis and lady, of Pine Grove Mills, spent a few hours with us on their return from a visit to Northumberland county.

Our jolly friend, Frank Bowersox, of Rock Springs, and his lady, paid us a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sankay visited this office last week—the latter, to witness the operation of printing newspapers, which was quite a novelty to Mrs. S.

Our old friend and democrat, Daniel Bonn, of Harris twp., was also a caller at the Reporter office, the other day.

We also had a call from John Mersinger, of Towsyville.

Mr. R. T. Criss, of Pinegrove, favored our section with a call on Monday.

Messrs. Condo and Bartges of the Penn Hall coach shops gave the Reporter a call.

Mr. L. E. Fraas, of Rebersburg, illuminated our sanctum with his pleasant conversation, on Monday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, nee Alexander, formerly of this place, now of Kansas, is here on a visit, and gave us several calls together with interesting narratives of Kansas life.

At the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, held December 23d, the following officers were elected: D. F. Lusk, President; W. P. Hosterman, Vice Pres't; C. Dinges, Ex. Sec'y; J. S. Dersine, Asst. Sec'y; M. Dersine, Sr., Treasurer; J. W. Conley, J. H. Lohr, Librarians. The President appointed the following committees: W. P. Hosterman, M. Dersine, J. Lohr, Devisional; C. Dinges, D. Fleisher, J. W. Conley, J. T. Lee and D. Booser, Visiting; Wm. Lohr, M. S. Dersine, J. Smith, Missionary; M. Dersine, C. Dinges and Wm. Wolf, Entertainment.

Chances still open for good at cost, at Brockerhoff's store, Centre Hall. Stock comprises everything usually found in a general store. Dry goods, ladies' dress goods, notions, boots, shoes, hats, canned goods, glassware, queensware, salt, brushes, soap, and other articles. Remember these goods are all of first quality and offered at cost to close out stock. Come and get what you want, and first cost is all that will be asked of purchasers. Stock must be closed out, hence offered at a sacrifice.

Nittany valley has again had an accident almost as terrible as the one the Reporter recently chronicled of the Yocum boy, who was dragged to death by a horse. As Mr. Shilling was riding on horse-back near Cedar Springs, the balling of the snow on the horse's feet caused it to slip and fall; Mr. Shilling was thrown off, but one of his feet kept fast to the stirrup; the horse started off dragging the man quite a distance, and from which he sustained such heavy bruises that his life is despaired of.

A two-year-old child of David Woods, of Meartha, this county, drank the contents of a bottle containing crocodile and died soon afterwards.

A GRAND MASONIC BANQUET AT CENTRE HALL.

The Masons of "Old Fort Lodge," located at Centre Hall, gave a grand banquet and entertainment to their friends at the "Centre Hall House," on New Year's evening, the members generally bringing their wives and many invited guests. The annual installation of officers for the ensuing year took place in their hall at 7 p. m.—ceremonies being conducted by Dr. Hasle, W. G. Deputy, of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, assisted by a number of members of the Bellefonte Lodge. Officers installed are, J. T. Lee, W. M.; Wm. Shoop, S. W.; M. Risher, J. W.; J. J. Arney, L., after which the entire lodge repaired to the parlor of the hotel; the members and invited guests waiting upon their wives and ladies, conducting them to the banqueting hall. The supper would have done credit to the best conducted city hotel and reflected great credit upon Mr. Meyer the proprietor and his assistants. The dining hall and tables were richly festooned with floral wreaths and arches of evergreens. On the tables were handsomely arranged pyramids of fruit and everything the most fastidious epicure could crave in sufficient abundance to satisfy all the invited guests. If this was a sample of Mr. Meyer's entertainments and Masonic hospitality of the "Old Fort Lodge" we want to share their kindness again.

The entire evening was heartily enjoyed by all in attendance, a general sociability pervading the entire company—managed with sufficient promenade, charades, etc., to keep up a friendly intermingling among the guests and a hearty social glee. Not a profane word was heard or a drunken debauch present. The whole affair done credit to the Order and the town.

SPECTATOR.

PENN HALL ITEMS.

Rev. D. M. Wolf preached a practical and interesting sermon on Sunday evening at the Salem Ref. church. Preaching will be continued during the week, by Revs. Yearick and Landis. A class of catechumens will be received in the church—communion next Sunday.

Our young ladies who attended the musical convention at Rebersburg, speak very highly of the people of that town and vicinity for their sociability and kindness during the convention.

Miss Emma C. Heckman has returned home from the west after an absence of over one year. Her sister, Amanda, has also returned from Nittany valley. We are glad to see their smiling faces again.

J. C. Condo is rapidly disposing of his fine sleighs; no wonder, that artist J. W. Bartges has been doing the painting on them.

Business brisk at Fred's Meyer's shop; he is dispatching some of his handsome sleighs. His son has taken up the art of painting stock to it, you will become master of the art.

J. E. Fisher is feeding 20 head of western cattle at his Auctioneerie farm, and it does one good to see them—they are beauties. News Box.

The Civil Service Reform bill having passed both houses, let all turn to inaugurate a little reform in their own houses by getting pure and wholesome groceries at Sechler's. Let the reform movement not stop with the offices, but let it be carried into the purchase of groceries, by discarding old, stale trash, in sugar, coffee, teas, syrups, canned and dried fruits, ham, dried beef, cheese, and spices, and buy these articles pure and fresh of Sechler's. Every one in favor of reform buys groceries at Sechler's; it is the surest test.

Coburn station still keeps booming up, and will have a new enterprise for the next week, a new grocery by R. T. Vonada, one of the enterprising young men of that section. Read Mr. Vonada's advertisement in this paper.

A little son of Dr. Alexander, of our town, aged about two years, while staying with his grandmother at Millheim, died there of croup and was interred at Millheim on Monday.

The largest, plumpest and freshest grocery, always to be had at Sechler's grocery, where is the largest and best line of table groceries to be found anywhere. On this Sechler's have built up their enormous trade, reaching into adjoining counties.

CHEAP SLEIGHTS.—J. C. Condo, at Penn Hall, has a number of handsomely finished sleighs, finely cushioned, well ironed, and guaranteed in every respect, which he now offers at near cost. If you want a real bargain in sleighs, call at the shops of Mr. Condo. 11Jan31

The Co. Commissioners have unanimously elected Mr. L. B. Frank, of Rebersburg, Mercantile Appraiser. This is a good selection, as Mr. Frank is eminently qualified for this important position.

John S. Forster's farm, in College twp., was sold to John Homan, of Ferguson, at $48 per acre.

For the cheapest sugars, coffees, canned goods, vegetables, meats, crackers, cheese, spices, go to Brown's new grocery, on Bishop street; take your produce there too, farmers, anything you have, and Brown will give you the highest market price for it. Try Brown's new grocery.

J. Ross Bell, of Aaronsburg, of whose illness we made mention in last week's issue, died on last Saturday. He was one of the oldest residents of that town.

There will be a meeting of Centre Co. Pomona Grange, at Centre Hall, on Thursday, January 18.

Services in the Lutheran church of this place, by Rev. Fischer, at 10 a. m., next Sunday, instead of at 2 p. m.

Another inch of snow Wednesday.

WANTED!

Two reliable men to solicit orders for our Nursery Stock in this and adjoining counties, on a salary. We will give a month's trial (and advance money for the expenses of the same), and, if successful, steady employment and good pay. Address, R. G. CHASE & Co., (Enclose stamp) 4Jan31

The foundations in Germany and Austria are taking the form of a great public catastrophe. At Ludwigschafen, where the great Rhine dam gave way, 8,000 persons are homeless, at Mannheim, 2,000, and at Worms, 2,000.

FROM ILLINOIS.

BISHOP, Illinois, Jan. 1, 1883.

EDITOR REPORTER:

Thinking a few lines from Illinois would be favorably received, I will embrace the opportunity of forwarding them. We have been enjoying a Florida winter, with but few exceptions. This we suppose is on account of the "tidal wave" which swept over the country last fall. We had hoped against hope, for lo! these many years, but finally our most cherished hope was realized; we began to think that Democracy was a myth that had lived in the imaginations of the dead past, and we were almost tempted to have our names struck from the subscription list of the "Looker-up," as it was an aggravation to look upon that word "Democracy" and realize that we were "near, and yet so far," but now after the smoke of battle and the heat of conflict has passed away, and the "old love" has returned to power, we feel that common ties which ever bound us shall not be broken; and to-day—first day of the new year—we remain true to the principles that have guided us from infancy—principles that may be envied, but can never die. You would naturally think that after a resident of this splendid state for sixteen years we would lose all interest in the naive one. Such is not the case however, we watched with untiring interest for the result of the revolt against "Bossism," and we now send such congratulations as can spring from the heart of one of the guild.

It was rumored that General Beaver would be the next republican presidential nominee if he pulled through in Penna., but he did not "get there" and if he now becomes said nominee, we'll knock the other leg from under him—politically speaking.

Noting that all old friends, regardless of party affiliation, are on the high road to health and happiness, I am yours Democratically and otherwise.

SOLOMON KOCH.

Any one who saw the big piles of overcoats and other ready-made clothing in the famous Philad. Branch, the week before the holidays, and afterwards that the counters and shelves looked thinned out, will wonder what has become of it. Well, the lanes of Lewins for selling clothing low is almost world-wide, and his goods go to Clearfield, Union, Mifflin, Blair and Huntingdon counties, and to almost every house in our own county. It's of Lewins you get cheap suits.
