We regret to learn of the death of an esteemed friend, Mr. S. M. Winter, of Rebersburg.

—Col. Neff and lady, of Centre Hill, made the REPORTER a call. The Colonel has not been in good health for some weeks, and having retired from farming his sale will be found advertised in auother column.

- In making the announcement that all kinds of store-goods are offered at cost at Brockerhoff's stand, Centre Hall, this is not a draw, but a fact, as the stock is to be closed out by 1st April, next. Don't miss this excellent chance for bargains. ----Any of our readers wanting some

-On Wednesday of this week Uriah Moyer paid the penalty for his share in the murder of the Kintzlers, in Snyder county. An account of the execution will be given in the next issue of the REPORTER from the pen of Wm. Kurtz, who was present at the execution to report for the press.

-A correspondent at Linden Hall writes: I noticed in last week's issue Sam'l M'Clintick being the newly elected school director and S. T. Ishler assists ant assessor which is not correct, as Wm. McFarland is the newly elected school director and Shannon Boal the asst. assessor.

-The Bellefontes bridge question has come to another temporary halt. Some would have its width 40 feet while others contend it should be 60. The Commissioners, we think, will give this matter due consideration and have the new bridge of such width as will insure safety to property near it in case of a sudden flood. It should be made of sufficient width to offer no obstruction to the free passage of high water and drift, as any resulting damage from want of proper precaution in this respect might in the end prove costly.

---From the Philipsburg Journal we notice that the people of that place and section held a meeting one day last week for the formation of a new county out of parts of Clearfield and Centre, with Philipsburg for the county seat. This would, no doubt, be a convenient thing for the people of that section, and a saving of time now lost in getting to the county seat. We do not know that there should be any special reason for us over here to object to our neighbors away out there cutting loose, as it has often been a source of complaint that a large portion of court costs are from that secion. Philipsburg would certainly be a very credible county seat. -For an outfit for man or boy, complete from head to foot, for Sunday, Monday, wedding-day, or any other occasion or day, the best place for genuine goods and real low prices, is the Philad. Branch, with the largest and best assort-ment outside of Philadelphia. Go and examine for yourself. -A musical conference was held at Sunbury on Tuesday, 6th, composed of delegates from musical societies, with a view to the formation of a permanent Central Penn'a Musical Association. It is intended to hold a grand musical jubilee in June, under the instruction of Prof. W.O. Perkins. The rehearsals for this occasion will be held by each society in its own locality, to be visited by Prof. Perkins, when all will join in one grand festival at the place to be designated by the delegates at Sunbury, on Tuesday. J. W. Wolf represented the singers of Centre Hall in the above named conference.

MIGRATION OF PENNSYLVANIANS.

A colony of one hundred and twelve families is coming to Custer county in the month of April. This colony is composed of persons from Centre, Blair, Clarion and Cameron counties, Pennsylvania, and every member of the association is worth from $1,000 and upwards. An advance committee will arrive here thirty days before the colony and lay off a tract for the large assembly to sojourn in. Most of these people who contemplate sojourning in our midst are Germans and, as it is well known, the Germans are

THE SIXTY-NINTH SUNDAY SCHOOL YEAR.

Another year, the 69th of the American Sunday-school Union, the society I serve in Northern Pennsylvania, begins to-day. I now write briefly with reference to the work yet to be done.

After all that has been thus far accomplished, without rapidly increasing population, it is within the bounds of truth to say that there are thousands of precious souls "in the regions round about" who are still with Sunday-school privileges, most if not all the time, as well as without a hope in the Savior. It is also certain that these thousands will not embrace the Christian religion or hardly lead a strictly moral life until they first become interested in Gospel truth which is "the power of God unto salvation." To provide this Bible school instruction in the word of life for all the needy with-Jacob Bame, of Spring Mills, ad-vertises his farm stock for sale in anoth-gelical literature are among the prime objects for which we labor. A volume of interesting particulars on this subject might be written. The gratitude I feel cannot be expressed in words to the many friends who, in many ways, have encouraged me during the past year, darkly clouded in the death of my faithful wife on the day after Christmas. Entering upon the work another year, we trustfully hope for the continued kindly coperation of pastors and friends, expectng always as hitherto the blessings of God upon all we endeavor faithfully to do "in the name of the Lord" for the eternal welfare of immortal souls.
