A Lecture to the Young Men ON THE LOSS OF MANHOOD

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhea induced by Self-abuse, Irregularities, Intemperance, Impotency, Nervous Debility and Impediments to Marriage generally, Consumption, Epilepsy and all the Mental and Physical Disorders, etc., by ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., and author of the "Green Book," etc.
The world renowned author, in his admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-abuse may be effectually removed without dangerous surgical operations, blisters, leeches, rings or cauterizations, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
This lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
Sent under seal in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of 50 cents or two postage stamps. Address

ALMOST AS BAD
What the Perplexed Physicians do in Cases of Emergency.
"I'll tell you the honest truth," answered the doctor. "Bright's Disease bothers the medical men almost as badly as cancer does. Having passed a certain stage, both point straight to eternity. It may be unprofessional to let out the secret, but whenever a patient comes to me with Bright's Disease, or any kidney trouble acting like it, I tell him to put on a CAPSINE POISON PLASTER without delay." The doctor spoke by the card. The Capsine goes right to the spot. If you can be helped, the Capsine will do it. Look out for frauds. Is the word CAPSINE cut in the middle of the plaster? If so, you are all right. Price 25 cents. Seabury est awards.

NEW DEPARTURE.

Believing it to be the best for both merchant and customer that all dealings should be in cash, and following the example of most prominent 1882. After this date the books will be closed and I will sell only Thankful to my customers for their past patronage, I hope to meet them in the future at my old stand, termined to give my customers the benefit of the new system.

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA. MAR. 15, 1883.

The Largest Paper in Centre County.

As we predicted, Millheim's Jumbo collapsed—the net business he will go into might have been gotten weather prophet as he proved himself such a perfect weather-cock, turning with the wind already he promised, for eight weeks, a storm would strike the Reporter, and not a ripple came to disturb the Reporter's smiling countenance. Yet non-loss is quite a blow over his own doings, which we would not, in our charitable nature object to, for if he did not blow over his "giving more presents than he gets," no one would—the gives children sample cards, that are sent to all printing offices free, and then mentions himself dozens of times in the non-hoss organ as "a dispenser of presents," and on the strength of it begs from the parents sausage, non-hoss, apples and other trunk.

He is jealous and crusty because the Reporter owns a few acres; hints it
honestly earned, but afraid to say so—he judges others by himself; we do not put out stationery packages which come back minus our honor. The Reporter did not get up a fraudulent account and swear to it, on the publication of the new Constitution. The Reporter did not barter off its columns to advocate the election of a senator in opposition to the regular democratic nominee; should it the Reporter make out a bill for a mercantile appraisement which was not published according to law. Further, if the files of the paper down there are furnished us, for some years back, we think we can show from those files that a considerable sum of money was drawn from the county for which no value was given at all.

In his collapse he shows to have clipped items from the Reporter for years, and every one relating to trimmers in politics, popping from one party to another for office, and the like, which he takes as meant for himself—what a guilty conscience will do! even follows the Reporter to a church conference, and says it favored submitting the temperance question to a vote of the people.

How awful! And in this collapse he cries out that the Reporter must be quiet about such disreputable practices because it always touches Jumbo's spots?
But the Reporter will do so still.

He follows the Reporter to the state capital, and awful to tell, finds it had the weakness to favor a law that required, before wild lands could be sold to sharks and speculators for taxes, publication should be given in all the county papers so owners in all political parties and all interested could not be cut out of their rights without due notice given. This Jumbo says is our great sin. Awful in indeed, and we stick to it yet. But most wonderful to tell, the most greedy one and the first to run for an advertising job out of this was Jumbo, and his sheepskin, but the court, Judge Mayer on the bench, stopped him on complaint from land-owners and decided his sheet did not come under the head of papers.
We could not help that—this is no paper, because being a jack-of-all-trades, he understands none, least of all how to run a paper. The reason of the decision was justly upon these grounds: This greedy jack-of-all-trades printed a little of his sheet in German and a little in English, and with this he greedily set up a claim to gobble up both the German and English advertising in a paper that scarce any one read. This the court decided did not bring his apple-butter affair under the head of papers and our greedy jack-of-all-trades was left in the fix of the pup that stole a hunk of meat and as he was about to cross a brook he saw the vision of it in the water and in his greed snapped for that too and lost all.

He began last January to write a History of Centre county, and started out with the K's and broke down, after putting out a bragging program. The K's are a bad letter to begin with. Now he says he made a fool himself and is sorry he disgraced himself by his wild going on.

We told the poor fellow so all along and so did his neighbors—but he never takes good advice. He only took our advice once, that was when we told him not to start Meek. We can't tell why he is so mad—perhaps because he knows nothing else but "Kurtz" for his history, consequently wrote himself to death on one interesting topic. Two columns of Kurtz in one paper, and columns of Kurtz every week for eight weeks would break down any history, when the only variation is self-laudation as a "present giver" and other nothingness.

We have to say that Rowell did not bother us over the population of Centre Hall, which Jumbo seems to have on the brain, but that it was on our private business affairs which a "certain party professed to know all about." Here is where the impudence lies—although we have nothing to hide in our affairs —yet Jumbo is not competent to understand ours, when he has made a fool and failure of himself in all his doings. We quote here an epiphany for him, from a stone marked with a name spelled like his.

"Reader, look a me,
What I am,
You soon will BEE."

There is honey in that, sure—it's years ago when he was a school teacher on which he now prints so much of his disgusting self-praise.

A charter was issued a few days ago to the Clearfield, Chest Creek and Western railroad, a new line thirty miles in length, running from Clearfield, along Little Clearfield creek to New Millport, thence to the Susquehanna river and Chest Creek post office. The capital stock is $300,000. Mr.
Wm. W. Seaman, of Altoona, is president;
C. La Rue Munson, Addison Candor, D.
H. Merriam, Hugh L. White, Robert H.
Munson and Dolos S. Mehaffy, all of Williamsport, the board of directors.

—Goods, of all kinds, still going at all at the Brockerhoff store. Don't miss this chance for a bargain. The stock must be sold to close business.

After twenty-nine years' imprisonment an innocent man has been pardoned in Michigan.

Fulton county does not have a foot of railroad within her borders. Nor does she have a county bridge, she has no alms house. There is not a distillery in the county. She has only six licensed houses and three of these are in McCon-nellsburg. She has no county debt and has a cash balance in the hands of her county treasurer. Part of it is a good grain producing country. A couple of years ago Major George Chestnut raised 2,763 bushels of wheat on 105 acres of land. The ridges and mountains are covered with good timber and are underlaid with rich deposits of iron ore.

Well, all good enough, but then it has no Sechler's grocery, that's in Centre county.

—William Lyons, a Cleveland & Jones; shot his divorced wife and killed himself at her residence.

—Have you been to the great bargain sale at the Bee Hive? If not, get there as soon as you can!

The remains of Henry Seybert a wealthy Philadelphian, were cremated at Washington, Pa. He leaves an estate of over $1,000,000 to charitable and educational institutions.

—If you want to see the spring styles and new patterns in body and tapestry brussels carpets, call at the Bee Hive one price store. We have just received a very large assortment.

A careless land speculator allowed himself to be robbed in a Philadelphia depot of his valise containing $7,000 in gold.

—Any man or boy can be suited in suits, capped with a hat, or get any other needed wearing apparel at the Philad.
Branch for less than elsewhere in this state. Stock always largest and most complete of any in the county. Never fail to call on Lewins when in Bellefonte.

Two small children were burned in a stable which one of them set on fire, at Lawrence, Ohio.

—Every thing in the line of country produce wanted at Dinges' Penna Valley Bargain store, and the highest market prices paid for it. Farmers will consult their own interest by keeping this fact in mind and acting upon it.

We make the following liberal offer, good until May 1st: Any of our subscribers who will send us four new names with the Cash, we will give each new name two months extra credit, and the name two of the club the Reporter one year free. Or for two names half the extra credit and the Reporter 6 months free to the sender of the names.

What mortal can withstand?
Insatiable Ill—naught can appease, It roams throughout the land!
How few, indeed, escape its pains,
And yet there's simple cure,
The only one that now remains—Peruna, pleasant, sure!

PE-RU-NA

is a new remedy, originally compounded and introduced to the medical profession, and then to the public at large, by Dr. J. C.
Hartman, M. D. He has prescribed it to over 40,000 patients with the most gratifying results.

Its effect upon the system is entirely unique that of any other remedy, and is the only medicine needed in almost every disease to which flesh is heir. (In Constipation, Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, MAKALIN should be given with it.) PE-RU-NA is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, each one, according to medical authors, a great remedy in itself. Dr.
Hartman has succeeded in extracting and combining the active principles of these ingredients into one simple compound, which perfectly coincides with the Vital Principles of Nature, and, therefore, and a cure necessarily follows. There is not an organ it will not reach nor a disease it will not cure.

Ask your druggist for Dr. Hartman's complete on the "First Life," by Dr. J. C.
