LOCAL ITEMS.

-All new styles of laces at Lyon & Co's. -Had about two inches of snow on Friday, last.

—The John Motz homestead, at Woodward, was sold to David Krape. ---- Mann's axe works have suspended work for a short period, in order to brush up the establishment generally.

-It is reported now that the Altoons parlor prize fight was a boax. The joker should have his ears boxed.

-"One Word from the Loved Ones at Home," by Mrs. Eva J. R. White-the great Boston song-being sung every-where-written by one of Boston's popular vocalists. To be had at music stores everywhere. Price, 35 cents.

The new stock of boots and shoes at Doll & Mingle's exceeds anything yet opened in Bellefonte, in that line. Gennine goods, and prices low. If you want to make an honest deal in boots or shoes, Doll & Mingle's is the place to go to-in the Brockerhoff house block.

-Wiggins' failure as a weather prophet gives the people all the greater confidence in the Philad. Branch, where no one has yet been deceived in getting good clothing at low prices. Lewins & Co. have opened a fine stock of new clothing for the spring trade, and they intend to sell 20 per cent. lower than any others. This is no mere blow but a fact that will be carried out to the letter-only try them, if you need any clothing.

-On Wednesday of last week Hon, S. Gilliland, of College twp., passed through here with nine head of as fine steers as any lover of good beef would like to see. These cattle were shipped from Spring Mills to Philadelphia, and most of them will go into market there as No. 1. Mr. Cyrus Durst had the feeding of these steers under his care, and he seems to know how to fatten beeves.

-On 20, the case of Israel Erb, under sentence of death for the murder of the Kintzlers, in Snyder county, was presented to the board of pardons. A. H. Dill and F. F. Smith made strong pleas for the condemned. Charles Hower, of Selinsgrove, counsel for the prosecution opposed the pardon. During the argument a statement was made that Jonathan Moyer's wife on her death bed stated that she was not at the Kintzlers' as claimed by Mary Hartley.

LINDEN HALL.

A Linden Hall correspondent thinks there is no evidence yet from headquarters indicating the rumored completion of the L. & T. railroad. He says there has been a corps of engineers at work for some time between Bellefonte and different points along our road, and between Struble's ore bank and Lemont. Your correspondent saw them drive the last stake only a few days ago on their line connecting with our road at Lemont. But after all what has that to do with the completion of our road? I think the people along the line of this road who have had their lands destroyed and their money spent without any equivalent, ought to rise in their might and ask re-dress at the hands of the Penn'a railroad

-Sheriff Dunkle has thirteen boarders. Some of them evidently are professional burglars with accomplees outside who try to smuggle tools to the prisoners with which to break jail. One fellow wrote a letter to his sweetheart in Philadelphia, relating that he was 225 miles away in one of the worst prisons in the state-the grub was bad and the Sheriff only getting 25 cents per day for board; he bid his friends good-by he thought for eight years. LOVE,

On broad Lake Erie's bounteous shore
Lived one bereft of health:
Death sternly knocked at her door,
Despite all friends and wealth.
Consumption claimed her for its own,
Claimed this young, loving wife:
But that which sells from zone to zone—
Peruna—saved her life!

The total number of hogs packed at Cincinnati from November 1 to March 1 was 425,400. The aggregate yield of lard was 15,770,206 pounds, an increase of 1,000,600 pounds over the previous year. The number of barrels of pork produced was 16,217.
