THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA. April 5, 1883. The Largest Paper in Centra County.

A country newspaper prints a large advertisement which reads, "Did you notice that lady's dress?" The answer depends on whether it is asked of a man or a woman. If a woman, "Yes, of course;" if a man, "No, certainly not." Men never see the dresses; they see the bills.

The Supreme Court of Iowa has decided that where a promissory note has only the amount in figures it is not legal. The ground taken is that the figures are not part of the note, but merely a memorandum, and that the amount must be written in the place so designated in the note.

Workmen while digging in Upper Hanover township, Montgomery coun-ty, Pa., exhumed the bones of a human body, which are supposed to be those of an Indian chief named Chooroorah.— Just opened a full line of Choice Fami- There is a tradition in the Perkiomen valley that Chooroorah was killed 239 years ago by his own people while defending the home of a very pretty white girl to whom he was engaged to be married.

A Chinese lady left off shopping in Boston the other day, and sought a physician in hot haste. She told him she Spring Mills, Pa, feared she was going insane, as she felt a sensation in her head as of something running around on her crown. She removed her hat. The doctor examined her caput and found nothing awry. The fair patient felt better. She put on ber hat, only to exclaim a moment later that the "run-a-round" had come again .-This time the doctor examined the hat and found-most horrible to relate-a live mouse. AB. Are never imitated or counterfeited.

This is especially true of a family medicine, and it is posi-tive proof that the remedy imitated is of the highest value.

As soon as it had been tested and proved by the whole world that Hop Bitters was the purest, best and most valuable family medicine on earth, many imitations sprung up and began to steal the notices in which the press and people of the country had expressed the merits of H. B., and in every way trying to induce suffering invalids to use their stuff in ing invalids to use their stuff instead, expecting to make money on the credit and good name of

Many others started nestrums put up in similar style to H. B., with variously cunningly devised names in which the word "Hop" or "Hops" were used in a way to induce people to believe they were the same as Hop Bitters. All such pretended remedies or cures, no matter what their style or name is, and especially those with the word "Hop" or "Hops" in their name or in any way connected with them or their name, are imitations or counterfeits.

Beware of them. Touch none of them, but: Use nothing but genuine Hop Bitters, with a bunch or cluster of green Hops on the white label. Trust nothing else. Druggists and dealers are warned against dealing in imitations or counterfeits.

are assured that prices will soon go up.

The use of chewing-gum after meals as a cure for dyspepsia is all the rage.
