THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED KURTZ, . . . Editor CENTRE HALL, PA., May 3, 1883.

A few evenings ago Professor Harry Morton, of the Stevens Institute of Technology, delivered a remarkable address in which he showed by experiments to death. There was a five-year-old boy that by a simple contrivance and a slight | whose face was bruised and battered and expense, electricity could be used as a whose head was gashed by an ugly motive power, not merely to propel street cars, but to run the most complicated kind of machinery. Energy stored in a ed in bed. He and the little girl were box a cubic foot large could take a car the only little ones the correspondent full of passengers from one end of New

The Williamsport Daily Bunner thinks the Republican party throughout the country are not a little concerned about the sombre outlook for success in 1884. When they turn insurmountable obsta. cles seem to rise up before them, which will not go down at the biddings of the bosses. The reputed leaders in Pennsyl- Sunday, destroying lives and wounding vania have for some time been trying to many peasons seriously, and carrying away houses, fences, bridges and every-thing in its path. A suburb of Aberdeen, cal love feast at which the recalcitrant brothers who kicked the traces last fall are to be given a conspicuous place. Even Tom Cooper is ready to bridge the bloody chasm, but as yet Cameron has not given his assent, and until he does, overtures will amount to but little. In New York the forebodings are even more gloomy. The Democracy are likely to present again an undivided front, in the event of which the Empire State may be counted as among the reasonably sure Democratic States. The branch in Ohio, taking yet closed, and it is not unlikely that the and beams and timbers from houses scat- shirts at $50cts, former price $1 25. Buckeye State may again sound the prelude of a Democratic thunder storm. In Indiana there is also but very little encouragement to the Republicans, while in distant Kansas the rumbling of a political disturbance is still heard. Taken all in all, the grave apprehensions of the Republican leaders are not without cause. But it is too late, we fear, to avert the danger. The party has been ready for burial for ten years, as the existence it has been baving since, has been one of gradual petrification, until it is no longer possible to keep it above the surface with safety to the public health.

SENATOR WALLACE CORRECTS AN ANCIENT LIBEL RECENTLY REVAMPED.

To the editor of the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph: - In a leading editorial in your paper of Thursday, April 19, the crime of forging naturalization papers and tax receipts, and of their use for political purposes, are charged upon me, as they repeatedly have been by other

I have borne these libellous charges in silence as long as duty to myself and to those who are to come after me permits. I deny all complicity with, or responsibility for, any such actions by any one. At no time in either my professional or political life have I ever sided, abetted, or knowingly permitted the crimes thus charged upon me. If they were committed during my chairmanship of the democratic state committee of Pennsylvania, it was without my knowledge and in violation of my plainly defined policy as the head of my party. There are yet living plenty of witnesses who can affirmatively prove my innocence of these oft-repeated falsehoods.

In being silent hitherto, I have acted on the belief that the people among whom I live were the best judges of the truth or falsity. Since their origin in a heated political campaign, by a personal enemy, fifteen years ago, I have been four times chosen to the state senate, each time leading my party, and three times nominated and once elected to the Uni-ted States senate. I refer to these as evidences of the opinion of the people among whom I have dwelled as to my personal record

Surely if I were a forger and a politi-cal leper, as some newspapers declare me, these things could not have hap-

If the public man, whom you say has been an "active, able and industrious legremains longer silent under these baseless charges, they will become crystalized into political history, false and unfounded though they be.

Under our political system the public man has much to bear, of criticism and injustice from the political press; but I trust the press will not deny to one of them who seek to do his duty, as he sees it, to the people of his native state, the publication of this emphatic denial of a long endured calumny. Very respectful Yours, WILLIAM A. WALLACE. Continental Hotel, Philad., April 21.

THE TERRIBLE CYCLONE.

Some Heartrending Incidents of the Affair.

The tornadoes that on Sunday, 22; ult., swept through the states of Mississippi Georgia and South Carolina left a track of devastation behind them. Details of the damage to lives and property show the meteor to have been the most de-structive that has ever visited the South in half a century. Over one hundred and fifty lives were lost in Mississippi and over one hundred in Georgia. In South Carolina not many fatalities are reported. The injured number at least four to one of the deaths. At Wesson and Beauregard, in Mississippi, the points that suffered most, the indomitable spirit of our people already shows itself in efforts to retrieve the terrible material losses inflicted. Succor has been promptly extended.

New Orleans, April 24.—The Times-Democrat's special gives the complete list of the deaths in Beauregard resulting from the cyclone. In making rounds scarcely more than babies, who did not understand it all, with pain and mystification had got beyond their years and were heroic. Scarcely a murmer was heard from the little ones and none complained. But one little girl of three years wanted its mamma to "come and fix my arm," a poor battered and bruised little arm. No one could fix it but mamma, and mamma was in the next room, all unconscious that her baby was burnt unwound. He was unconscious, but even with his brain clouded and not knowing where he felt pain, he moaned and roll-

A special from West Point states that two cyclones passed over Clay county on Sunday about noon. One passed over the western part of the county and the other at about 1 o'clock over the central and southern parts. Both were terriffic, leveling houses, fences and trees and spreading death and destruction in their paths. Near Hohenlinden thirty persons paths. Near Hohenlinden thirty persons were reported to have been killed, and near Pine Bluff seventeen fatally injured were reported. A number of persons were killed in different parts of the country, but how many is as yet not

Aberdeen, Miss., April 24.—The cy-clone passed through Monroe county on containing twenty-five or thirty colored families, were absolutely wiped out, three of the negroes being killed and two others have since died, while twenty-five are under treatment, many of them in a precarious condition.
