The tanning of human skins seems to be an industry peculiar to Massachusetts, and carried on to a considerable extent. -Bellefonte Republican. .

The Republican might as well been a a little more explicit and said the tanning of negro skins by negro-loving Massachusetts, etc.

Governor Pattison issued a proclamationideclaring forfeited the charters of all those corporations which have failed to make a return to the Attorney-General within three years and which have not responded since the issuing of a previous proclamation thirty days ago. Between 650 and 700 charters are declared forfeited. The list is composed largely of defunct concerns.

The Chicago Inter Ocean : Some of the biggest grumblers of the Republican parideas of the "best methods for securing the county of Clearfield. He was reapharmony in the Republican party." One of the best things they could do would be to resolve to quit grumbling and fault-finding. When a man delights to hurl rocks in at the window and smash his own furniture, he is not just the man to instruct his neighbors as to the best methods for securing a quiet household.

Ex-Sepator Conkling, in his recent New York speech, said, among other things, the Democrats were about to take control of the country. Two years ago the Republican party came out of a stoutly fought battle victorious from sea to sea north and south of Mason and was organized, and held the office until invitation to everybody to come and Dixon's line. It fought the greatest political battle ever fought. It was a battle heavily weighted, but the Republicans rallied under the old leaders and gloriand now the speaker could think of but three of the Northern States in which the Republicans were victorious. In concluding his remarks the ex-Senator said tre and Clearfield. He served during the that many of those who were influential in shaping the affairs of the Government were "merely playing push-pin party to supply the place of that gentleover the rot and rubbish of low, tricky politics."

Mr. Henri Waterson says that "Pennsylvania may go to the devil." She may, possibly-but the chances are that she will go Republican .- Omaha Republican. Well, where's the difference ?

We knew Mr. MacManus well and have lost in him a most sincere and cherished friend. He maintained his large mental faculties until his end. We have in our possession his last legal', la-bors, some thirty pages of manuscript prepared only a few months ago for a case to be taken to the Supreme Court, presenting a forcible and clear argun-ment.
The following sketch of the deceased we copy from Maynard's History : "He was born on the 17th of May, 1804, in Carlisle, where he was reared and ed-ucated. In 1824 he was entered as a stur-dent of Thomas Burnside, in Belletonte, and was admitted to the bar in August, 1826. In 1827 he was appointed by Fred-erick Smith, then attorney general for the State, as deputy attorney General for the State, as deputy attorney General for the state, as deputy attorney General for the county of Clearfield. a large number of concise, but by no means dry, biographical sketches of men and women eminent in all departments of activity. Subjects are chosen with the view to gratify the public curiosity for particulars of the life and career of peo- ple whose names are appearing in the public prints. In a word, these selections are timely. The sketches are ably written, and their interest is heightened by ac- companying faithful and well-executed portraits. In quality of paper and print- ing and tastefulness of appearance, The Biographer is among the best periodicals we have ever seen. We anticipate that its enterprising publisher will be reward- ed with a large sale of his unique maga- zine, which supplies a need hitherto feit.
