CENTRE HALL, Pa., May 31, 1883.

GLANCE AT THE RAILROAD EXTENSION IN CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA.

The following rapid sketch of the railroad projects (on foot and on paper) for the development of the coal and iron fields in Clearfield, Centre and Clinton counties has an immediate interest.

The Rochester and Pittsburgh Railroad is approaching the Clearfield region by way of Punxsutawney, in Jefferson county. This corporation has also surveyed a road from Punxsutawney through the coal country, down Marsh Creek, in Centre county, to Bald Eagle Valley, thence to Mill Hall and by the way of Fishing Creek Gap, in the Bald Eagle Mountain to Nittany Valley, thence to Washington Furnace, and by the Fishing Creek Gap through the Nittany mountain to Sugar Valley, traversing its whole length of about thirty miles, to Milton (it is said), where it will confront both the Catawissa branch of the Philadelphia and Reading and the Philadelphia and Erie Road.

A CHARTER FOR A NEW ROAD.

There is a road chartered and likely to go to work soon that will pass directly through the hematite region from Mill Hall, where it will connect with both the Bald Eagle Valley (Pennsylvania Railroad) and Beech Creek, Clearfield and Southern (Vanderbilt) to Bellefonte, where it will again connect with the Bald Eagle Valley Road, and with the Buffalo Run Road, from Bellefonte to Lemont, in Penn's Valley, now in the course of construction.

TWO MORE NEW LINES.

The Pennsylvania road is building a new line from Keating Station, on the Susquehanna, to Karthouse, in Clearfield, a point of inexhaustible coal and iron fields. This road will probably be extended to Philipsburg, there to connect with the Clearfield and Tyrone road, already owned by the Pennsylvania.

The Philadelphia and Erie Company has a corps of engineers locating a line on the south bank of the Susquehanna, from Lock Haven to Keating, forty miles. The line is on easily and cheaply built and will certainly be needed as soon as the Keating and Karthouse is finished.

ONE IN THE INTEREST OF VANDERBILT.

The Beech Creek, Clearfield and Southern Road is in course of rapid construction. This road is in the interest of Vanderbilt and extends from a connection with the Catawissa branch of the Philadelphia and Reading near Jersey Shore to Kylesertown in Clearfield county, a distance of about seventy miles.

REST.

No cure like this was ever known. The doctors disagreed. But each one seemed to be at home. Until they each were felled: They said 'twas cancer of the breast. In Mrs. Ingram's case, But Perina set all at rest, And serofia left the place.

A PAPER PROJECT.

The Williamsport and Ocean is a paper project for building a road up Beech Creek, from a point to the Clearfield coal fields. This charter is owned by the Pennsylvania road.

The Emperor's coronation at Moscow, last Sunday, was a big affair, still Dinges didn't go because of the continued rush to the bargain store for cheap goods.

All the roads that reach the Clearfield coal fields are readily making western connections in any diverging direction desired.

BAGS OF MONEY TAKEN FROM AN EXPRESS MESSENGER'S BUGGY.

Cleveland, May 24.—The United States express company's money carrier, Alexander Granger, received sundry packages of money and other valuables from an east bound Lake Shore train at the Union depot this morning, and placed them in a buggy which was standing outside.

Chicago, May 15.—Thomas Welsh, who whipped his wife to death with a leather strap, and who pleaded guilty, was sentenced by Judge Barnum to-day to thirty-five years in the penitentiary. The crime is described as one of the most brutal ever recited in court.

The Delaware Legislature has so amended its banking laws as to abolish days of grace in the payment of checks.

For a 25c corn broom, best to be found, go to Sechlers, also, for a seamless 25c bag, ball potato 10, good tomatoes 3 cans for 25c, Silver's corn 3 cans for 25c, Winslow's corn 3 cans for 45c, marrow fat peas 3 cans for 25c, Lima beans 3 cans for 42c, strawberries 3 cans for 90c, pine apples 3 cans for 70c, pie peaches 3 cans for 60c, Boston bean 18c per can.

The Czar made his state entry into Moscow on Sunday. Cable dispatches describe the scene.

The Brooklyn bridge is one of the modern wonders of the world—it is the greatest masterpiece of its kind, and was 13 years in building. The opening was celebrated last Thursday and New York and Brooklyn had a great holiday, thousands of strangers being at the ceremonies. This was an event like an opening at the Philad. Branch when a new stock of clothing is put out, which is the case now, and strangers from all sections are attracted to Bellefonte by the low prices of clothing, far below any opposition or competition.

THE COFFEE-POT CONTROVERSY.

Another Link in the Chain of Evidence Vindicating Senator Wallace.

Since the recent publication of Senator Wallace's positive disavowal of part in or knowledge of the fraudulent practices out of which grew the story of coffee-colored naturalization papers in 1867, several statements have been made relating to them. The publication in the Patriot of the letter of Albert Owen is now followed by the subjoined letter from Judge Fisher is another link in the chain of testimony exculpating Senator Wallace.

CHEYENNE, Wyoming Territory, May 7, 1883. Hon. Wm. A. Wallace, Senate, Harrisburg, Pa.: My Dear Sir—I see by the newspapers of Pennsylvania that you have seen proper at this late day to deny that old, old story about the use of somebody's coffee-pot to color certain fraudulent naturalization papers to be used in the political campaign of 1867 in Pennsylvania. So long a time has elapsed since I heard anything about that story that I had forgotten all about it.

At the meeting of the Legislature in January, 1868, a contest arose between Colonel Robinson, of Juniata, and Mr. Shugart, of Centre, as to which of the two was entitled to a seat as Senator from that Senatorial district. A committee was appointed in a manner provided by law, and it so happened that I was one of that committee. After the appointment of that committee we met and proceeded to take a large amount of testimony.

Having completed shelving and fixing up my goods, I extend a cordial invitation to everybody to come and examine my goods, which consist of Clothing, Men's Furnishing Goods Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, and the best assortment of Trunks and Valises in the county. I haven't $40,000.00 worth of goods, I am sorry to say, but what I have is new and of the latest styles. I have good goods, and some cheap goods. I have some of the very best make of the celebrated Rochester goods. I have them to suit young and old, rich and poor. I will not boast of what I will do, but if you give me a call I will do as I always have done: treat you fair and honest and give you the value of your money, and don't you forget it.

SNOW IN VIRGINIA.

Lynchburg, Va., May 23.—Snow fell last night to the depth of a foot on the line of the Richmond and Allegheny railroad between Lynchburg and Clifton Forge. The weather is exceedingly cold, and is doing considerable damage to the crops.

The Emperor's coronation at Moscow, last Sunday, was a big affair, still Dinges didn't go because of the continued rush to the bargain store for cheap goods. There are great attractions at Dinges' store, in dry-goods, ladies' dress goods, notions, men's and boys' clothing, pure and fresh family groceries, &c.

L. Z. Snyder was indicted in $4,500 damages at Reading the other day for the seduction of a Miss Groch. Although Snyder was a married man, when he courted the lady, he promised marriage.

Songs Never Sung.

"How does that verse run? Something like this isn't it? 'There are who touch the magic string, And noisy fame is proud to win them, Alas! for those who never sing, But die with all their music in them.'" "Yes that's beautiful, pathetic and true," said your representative.

"I have suffered with asthma for over forty years, and had a terrible attack in December and January, 1882. I hardly know what prompted me to take PARKER'S TONIC. I did so, and the first day I took four doses. The effect astonished me. That night I slept as if nothing was the matter with me, and have ever since. I have had colds since, but not asthma. My breathing is now as perfect as if I had never known that disease. If you know of any one that has asthma, tell him in my name that 'Parker's Tonic' will cure it—even after forty years' There was a man who escaped the fate of those whom the poet laments.

This preparation, which has heretofore been known as 'Parker's ginger Tonic,' will hereafter be advertised and sold under the name of 'Parker's Tonic.' Inasmuch as ginger is really an important ingredient, and unprincipled dealers are constantly deceiving their customers by substituting inferior preparations under the name of ginger, we drop this misleading word.

There is no change, however, in the preparation itself, and all bottles remaining in the hands of dealers, wrapped and sealed, will hereafter contain the name of 'Parker's Tonic' on the wrapper, and the name of the manufacturer, H. C. & Co., is at the bottom of the outside wrapper.
