LOCAL ITEMS.

—There will be no camp meeting at Wayne this year.

—Mr. L. C. Wynn, of Potters Mills, avowed us with a call.

—On some farms in our valley the clover is so heavy that it has lodged.

—Rev. W. K. Foster will hold communion services in the Presbyterian church, at Centre Hill, next Sabbath in the forenoon.

—The measles are prevailing among the little folks in the vicinity of Hubbersburg.

—Geo. W. Spangler, of near Tullysville, gave us a call—jolly and in good humor as usual.

—The Gentzel Bros. are putting up a large barn on their farm near Zion.

—A heavy rain in the vicinity of Wolf's Store, on Saturday evening, did considerable damage to fields.

—Rev. J. T. Williams, formerly pastor of the Lutheran church of Boalsburg, died at York, Pa., a few days ago.

—The big show will provide itself with a month's groceries at Sechlers—O'Brien finds it the best and cheapest establishment along his whole route.

—A charter was granted a few days ago to the Centre Building and Loan Association, of Bellefonte. Capital stock, $1,000,000. Gen. James A. Beaver is the heaviest stockholder.

—The new railroad bridge across Shamokin dam, at Sunbury, was completed on Sunday, 3. The painting cost $4,000.

—The Centre Democrat folks have put themselves into a new and pleasant sanctum—maybe now they'll be sanctionous.

—Fruit and vegetables, in season, always to be had at Dinges' store. Produce of all kinds wanted and highest prices paid for same.

—Doll & Mingle still lead off in boots and shoes, both for elegance of goods and low prices—that is the verdict of all who tread sole leather. They warrant what they sell, and study to please.

—The Lutheran church at Logansville, Rev. J. K. Miller's charge, was entirely remodelled at an expense of some $12,000 and re-dedicated last Sabbath. There was a large attendance, and a sufficient sum was raised to pay the debt. Rev. Fischer, of this place, assisted in dedication ceremonies.

—Maj. Fisher having been urged in the Journal for associate judge, declines on account of business engagements. The Major would make one of the best looking judges in the state.

—A fellow, the other day, asked us what compound wickedness was. We told him it was when a fellow ordered a paper, lifted it regularly, then quit taking it without paying for it.

—Cheap goods at Dinges' Bargain store—whether dress-goods, notions, clothing for men or boys, hats, caps, and shoes for all ages and sexes. The Bargain store also keeps constantly the purest and freshest groceries in market. Don't miss the Pennsylvania Bargain store if you would save money.

—The Spring Mills Academy will be reopened July 23, under the direction of Prof. Robb, who comes highly recommended. He is a brother of that well-known educator, Prof. Robb, of the State Normal, at Lock Haven.

—Will Smith, son of Dr. Smith, deceased, of this place, has gone into the mercantile business in Clifford, Lapeer Co., Mich., being a partner in the firm of McKinzie & Smith. Hope he will reap an abundance of shekels.

—Mr. Daniel Hess, of Linden Hall, favored the Reporter with a call a few days ago. Mr. Hess is getting tired of the dilly-dallying of the Pennsylvania Railroad, in regard to our road, and thinks the Law should be invoked to make these fellows toe the mark on their promises or refund the money taken from our people and pay for lands taken—an idea which the Reporter threw out long ago. We should like to see the case tried before Mr. Hess as judge and jury—speedy justice would follow.

FRESH MEAT.—James A. Deckert's Spring Mills meat market supplies fresh, stall-fed beef, constantly, also pork, veal and mutton in season. Potters Mills, Centre Hill and Penn Hall will be supplied from the wagon, two days each week. 10may6m

JOB PRINTING.—Having added some new fonts of job-type to our office, and a lot of stationary at low prices, we can furnish 1000 printed envelopes at $1.75; ruled bill heads at $3.40 per 1000, and letter heads at same low rates, for cash.

The first train over the new Shamokin, Sunbury and Lewisburg road will run on the 15th.

—Sechlers keep none but fresh and pure Groceries—first class goods always.

SPRING MILLS.

Prof. Lewis Bobb will open the Spring Mills Academy July 23.
Jas. A. McClinton and W. F. Rarick have broken ground for their new houses.
An attempt was made to rob Bibby's hotel on night of 5, but guests gave the alarm and the thieves fled. Several pistol shots were exchanged, but nobody hurt.

RE-OPENING OF THE SPRING MILLS ACADEMY.

The fall term of this institution will open on the 23rd of July, '83, under the advice of Prof. D. M. Wolf, and will continue for a term of ten weeks. All persons desiring to prepare for teaching, or entrance into college, will find this a very desirable place to do so. No pains will be spared to give entire satisfaction. For further information or reference address, PROF. LEWIS ROBB, Principal, or I. J. GREENBLE, Spring Mills, Pa.

—The Huntingdon Monitor, 7, says, during the prevalence of a storm in the lower end of the county, on Monday afternoon, Charles Crowley, aged about 18 years, a son of Jerre Crowley, a well known farmer who resides about 2 miles from Mount Union, was struck by a bolt of lightning and almost instantly killed. Mr. Crowley, David Daughenbaugh and Charles were engaged in hauling wood. At the time the bolt descended Charles was on top of the wagon stacking the wood as it was delivered to him, and was hurled to the ground. His father and Mr. D. were stunned and prostrated, as were also the horses.
—We were pleased to have a call from our old friend, Fr. Zettle, of Gregg. He gave us an account of a tremendous rain storm, accompanied by hail, which passed over Georges Valley, on afternoon of 13, doing great damage to the fields.
—Wm. S. Fletcher, of Kansas City, writes to his father Rev. Fletcher, of Lock Haven, that the murder of his brother at Tipton, Mo., was a willful, deliberate crime, and one wherein the murderer was wholly the aggressor. We made mention of this murder in our last week's issue. Mr. Fletcher, the father of the murdered boy, was formerly pastor of the Lutheran charge at Pine Grove Mills.
—Whenever a lady wants a handsome and stylish shoe she goes to Doll & Mingle's, in the Brouckerhoff house block, and finds what she wants—she seeks no further.
—Camp's furniture for assortment and quality is the equal of any stock in this county. Mr. Camp warrants his goods, and any inspection of it will satisfy any judge that the Centre Hall furniture rooms are second to none in the central part of the state. Do not fail to give Camp a call before purchasing furniture elsewhere.
—If that little boy of yours needs a suit, take him to the Philad. Branch, and you can have him rigged out in a new Sunday-go-to-meetin suit for $2.50. Just think of it! who would have thought that things would come down to such low figures as that. But that is the style at the Philad. Branch and the style of clothing there is always the latest one.

MADISONBURG ITEMS.

Memorial day: The delegation which arrived here from Rebersburg made Madisonburg lively; the decorating program was very creditable, although an address was looked for, no remarks were made, all was done quietly and properly. The Brushvalley band furnished the music. The corner stone of the new Lutheran church was laid Sunday, 3. Rev. Miller, of Logansville, preached both sermons—morning and evening. Mr. Miller also made an address to the Sunday school in the morning. B. W. Moyer lost a very fine horse for which he refused a large price. Andrew Guiser's new residence on Main street is an improvement to the town; it was put up by two good workmen—Hoover and Hasel. Daniel Weaver, above town, last week, lost a very fine cow; she fell over an embankment 30 feet high and broke her neck. The glorious 4th of July is to be properly observed in our town under the direction of the Union Hall Co. The locust blossoms are here and, according to an old saying, it is now safe to take off your winter under clothing. Batter took a tumble last week to 12 cents. Goods received daily at the new store of Bartges & Reber. Eggs should be sold by weight and not by the dozen. The change could be brought about if farmers would take an interest in the matter and remind each legislator that they wished the change made. Not a long time ago in one of our neighboring towns a celebrated minister delivered a discourse on the text "He giveth his beloved sleep." Observing that a large number of his hearers were nodding their heads he suddenly stopped and said: "Brethren, it is hard to realize the unbounded love which the Lord appears to have for a large portion of this congregation." E. S. Shafer, of near Madisonburg, left a hen egg at Bartges & Reber's store which measures 6x8 1/4 inches; those are the kind of eggs I. E. would like to buy at 14 cents per dozen. The telephone exchange is now in full blast, at least as far as Madisonburg and Howardsville branch is concerned, and as will be seen below many have taken advantage of the same by taking instruments. We have already found it to be of service to us, and we believe we only echo the sentiments of all when we say that it will prove one of the greatest conveniences that Madisonburg has ever enjoyed, of course outside of railroad facilities. Jacob Heinley is confined to his bed having been quite ill the last few days; he is now in care of Dr. Reber. Simon Smill's new house is completed. Madisonburg markets: Wheat white 1.00, rye .50, oats .40, potatoes .40, wool .30, butter .12, eggs .14, lard .10, country hams .12, shoulders 35, sides 30, Cattle 60¢, sheep active at 44 1/2, milch calves 50¢.

BIG FIRE IN SNOW SHOE.

On last Saturday night Gran's store, in Snow Shoe, was destroyed by fire. The stock of goods is put at $25,000. There were, besides, two houses and several stables burned. The fire is supposed of incendiary origin.

Mrs. James T. Hale, of Bellefonte, died peacefully at the residence of her daughter in Coatesville, on Sunday morning. Her father was the late Hon. Charles Huston whose long services as a Judge of the Supreme Court of the State, made his name honored as one of the ablest members of that judiciary, his term covered many years. The burial will take place from her late home in Bellefonte, on Wednesday, June 13th. Her son George, who is journeying in the West, and both daughters were present at her bedside.

Ridott, Stephenson Co., Ill., June 9.—I send you a few lines for publication from this section. I arrived here on morning of June 8 from Spring Mills via P. & E. R. to Erie, Mich. Southern and Lake Shore R. R. to Chicago, and Chicago & Northwestern here. This is a nice section of country, but do not think it is as healthy as Central Penn'a. Crops look well; some corn is 4 inches high, though some farmers just finished planting. The soil is of a black sandy loam, and in a very wet season like now there is plenty of mud. The hay crop will be good, potatoes are six or more inches high. There is considerable woods in this part of the state but mostly small timber. W. H. Dueser.

Near Livingston, Stafford county, George Cromer made a proposition of marriage to Miss Tillie Wensell, who refused him. He then draw a revolver, shot her twice, knocked her down with the weapon and then cut his own throat. Both are expected to die.

The powder explosion at Scutari killed seventeen men.

Thirty-two deaths from yellow fever occurred at Havana during the past week.

HARD FACTS AND PLENTY.

Oak Hall is simply a great retail Clothing House—the greatest of its kind in the country. Our Clothing is made upon honor. We would be worse than fools to expect to build and hold a business upon other than honest goods at the least prices. We neither hold nor buy the remains of wholesale stocks to run off at retail, but make every garment to sell direct to the wearer, under our cast-iron guarantee, a bond of good faith original with us and perfectly well known to everybody in the vicinity.

NO PRICES REDUCED.

We are not advertising reduced prices, but we are in position to offer the best bargains in Spring Clothing of every sort and upon many items very great bargains. In a very true sense all our
